

First Published in 2009 by Soltec and Toltec Enterprises
Copyright © 2007 Jasper Stevenson (Soltec)
ISBN : 978-0-9579602-2-0

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced, emailed, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted form, or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording or otherwise, without the prior permission of the publishers.

Soltec and Toltec Enterprises: PO Box 14, Cardiff, NSW, 2285 Australia

www.melchizedekuniversity.com

Many thanks to the following kind souls who assisted with the production of this book : Wendy A, Suzannah B, Jenny D, Sharon A, Vernice M

CONTENTS

Introduction

How it Began	5
What is the White Star Temple?	5
Expanding your Consciousness	6
Purpose of the White Star Temple	6
Who are the Lecturers?	7
Who is Soltec?	7

Lecture Series One

Mary: Master of the Stars	10
Portia: The Universe	13
Archangel Kyrael: Angelic Principle	17
That Which I Am: Consciousness	20
Akhnaton: Unconditional Gratitude	22
Melchizedek: Radiance	27
The Cosmic Buddha: Ruby Ray	29
Mary: Separation	32
Melchizedek: Diamond Activation	36

Lecture Series Two

Sanat Kumara: Ripples of Consciousness	42
Portia: Totality	47
Kyrael: Sword	51
Akhnaton: Levels of Learning	54
Sananda: My Energies	57
Akhnaton: Aspects of You	59
Sanat Kumara: Temple Blessing	63
Lady Nada: Prayer	66
Iktare: I Join You	68
The White Star Temple: Speaks	70
Melchizedek: The White Star	72
Sanat Kumara: Fractal of Life	75
Aspect: Speaks	78
Cosmic Buddha: Going Beyond	80
Melchizedek: How I See You	83
Akhnaton: Divine Chaos	85
The Blessed One: Speaks	89

Lecture Series Three

Kyrael: Quantum Light	92
Melchizedek: A Magical Life	95
El Moyra: Geometry of You	98
Mary: Communion	102
Akhnaton: Energy Field	104
Maitreya: Higher Enlightenment	107
Sananda: Acceleration	110
Kyrael: Sword Meditation II	113
Cosmic Buddha: Honouring	115
Akhnaton: Spirit & Joy	117
Sananda: Holographic Eternity	120
Sanat Kumara: Gift of You	123
Sanat Kumara: Shower of Light	125
Melchizedek: Transcendence	127
Kuan Yin: Chakra Attunement	129
Maitreya: Aspect Embrace	131
Mary: Stillness & Faith	134
Sanat Kumara: Cosmic Faith	137

Lecture Series Four

Akhnaton: Who Am I?	141
Serapis Bey: Ordinarieness	144
Sanat Kumara: Movement & Blessing	146
Maitreya: Initiation	148
Galactic Ashtar: Galactic Consciousness	153
Cosmic Buddha: Inner & Outer	156
Sananda: Divine Stillness	158
Kuan Yin: Grace	161
Ganesh: Celebration	163
Maitreya: Expansion	167
Sananda: Eternal Love	169
Akhnaton: Gift of Life	172
Melchizedek: Calling	174
Akhnaton: Future Contact	176
Sanat Kumara: Ruby Ray Activation	179
That Which I Am: Speak to God	183
Sanat Kumara: Age	186
Akhnaton: God's Gaze	188
Melchizedek: Your Consciousness	191

This book is based on transcripts of recorded lectures from within the White Star Temple and is intended to be a companion to sets 1 - 4 of the audio series. Ideally you would be in a meditative state listening to these recordings to receive the powerful energies. However, this book is a wonderful introduction to the knowledge given but to journey more deeply we recommend you work with the recordings. Access to them is offered at the end of this book.

How the Melchizedek University Began

Soltec has been channelling the Ascended Masters and star beings for many years and in that time he has often run channelling/meditation groups. His most recent group, held in his home weekly, had taken an exciting new direction two years after it began. One night, Melchizedek came through Soltec and invited his group to become part of a university which was to be sponsored by himself, hence the name 'Melchizedek University' (MU). The White Star Temple (WST) was helped manifest by Soltec and his Temple group under the guidance of Maitreya, Akhnaton, Melchizedek, Mary and Lady Nada. It was to be an interdimensional learning experience where various Ascended Masters and other multi-dimensional beings would give lectures within an etheric structure called the White Star Temple (WST).

So began the WST group and its journey. Soltec had the foresight to record and document the Temple from its inception. Feedback from the group and from those he initially shared the recordings with, revealed that by listening to the CDs while in a meditative state, one became part of the White Star Temple and received the same energies and understanding as the original group! With this startling realisation Soltec could see how the university and the WST could become available to others around the world, not just his small gathering.

What is the White Star Temple?

The White Star Temple is an interdimensional Temple which sits outside of the space-time continuum. As such, anyone can access the Temple at the same time as everyone else, and in any location, as time and space are irrelevant. While in the White Star Temple you will receive cosmic understanding from the Temple's ascended 'tutors' within a multidimensional context. Many others will join you from all around the cosmos, from many spectrums of spiritual evolution, as well as others like us from Earth. Each will hear and receive energies and understanding relevant to their level of being.

The WST stands for all 'time' and has its own consciousness which evolves as we evolve. The creation process of the White Star Temple is documented on disc 1 of Set 1 of our Melchizedek University lecture recordings and you too can participate as the event stands outside of time and so is available to all. You need only listen to the lectures while in meditation and your consciousness will join with the WST. While the words are being heard by you from the recording you in fact are experiencing them at the moment they were first spoken.

Expanding Your Consciousness

It's Melchizedek's wish that your consciousness be expanded at this time through a greater awareness of our multidimensional universe and its many expressions of the Divine. Go beyond the illusion of your present reality and join the rest of Creation in discovering how God's incredible vision is manifesting. The energies each Ascended Master brings to these lectures is the means by which understanding is formed within us. The lectures begin simply then expand your knowledge of advanced cosmic and spiritual insights.

The multidimensional energies and lectures of the WST, combined with your own willingness to be open to higher understanding, will propel you into a majestic journey through the cosmos, Creation and beyond. A great spiritual acceleration is possible because what you are receiving is truly multidimensional.

The Purpose of the WST

The purpose of the WST teachings is to greatly expand your spiritual consciousness; to integrate multidimensional concepts and understanding and to assist you in opening your being to the absolute majesty of Creation and God. Ultimately, we would hope that through the Temple and your own guidance, you will come to a deeper, profound connection with your Creator, as well as an inspired appreciation for the multifaceted existence you occupy.

The teachings cover a wide range of concepts from the simple to the more advanced. Looking at our contents page perhaps you feel as though you already have a knowledge of such topics. The way in which the Ascended Ones speak and the energies they bring gives a whole new dimension to this learning that is quite exceptional. However, if you are just beginning your cosmic journey, these lectures will also be perfect for the teachings are delivered in a sequence that beautifully and carefully expands your understanding step-by-step.

Who are the WST Lecturers?

A splendid array of Ascended Masters, star beings and other beings of light gift us with their presence within the White Star Temple (WST). They come into this place between dimensions to offer us higher energies and an expanded spiritual awareness beyond the limitations of our own reality.

More often than not, within the WST the lecturers come in a greatly expanded aspect of themselves. This means that the energies they radiate, are more powerful and transformational, which can be experienced by those of us within the WST, including yourself if you choose to become part of it.

Many of the Ascended Masters that grace the WST may be known to you, such as: Melchizedek, Maitreya, Mary, Sananda, Sanat Kumara, Serapis Bey and so on. Yet there are beings that have also come forth specifically for this learning experience. These include: That Which I Am, Archangel Kyrael, and The Blessed One. Plus oversouls of many of the Masters appear including the Cosmic Buddha and Galactic Ashtar. The White Star Temple itself speaks and star beings such as Iktare and Portia make themselves known.

So you can see that a wonderful variety of multidimensional beings kindly make themselves available. We are honoured to have them in service to us at this time.

Who is Soltec?

Soltec is an Australian channel who has been working with the Ascended Masters for most of his adult life. Soltec and his sister collaborate on a new age publishing venture which produces beautiful spiritual tools such as the Star Language CODEX (www.starlanguages.com). He is a spiritually dedicated man whose gentle voice resonates perfectly with the Masters' wisdom.

Contact Us

If after journeying through the profound wisdom of this book you would like to become part of a WST community to share your thoughts, experiences and questions with others then please visit our website at: www.whitestartemple.com or go to: www.melchizedekuniversity.com or use our postal address listed at beginning of book. We would love to hear from you.

May you find the following pages truly expansive and uplifting...

Teachings
from the
White Star Temple

Lecture Series One

Mary : MASTER OF THE STARS

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, Mother Mary who comes to connect with you this day. You may perceive me perhaps as the Mary you would know from biblical times but I have incarnated many times upon your earth in many guises as I came to your world as a Master. I am best known as the mother of Jesus yet you may perceive me as a beautiful being of light, that which I am. I am here with you and my energy field is vast as with most Ascended Masters. It is bigger than your solar system and larger still for it is not contained or restrained by physical space or time. When we speak of having a large energy field it is not in the way that you would perceive it. It has nothing to do with measurements rather it has to do with potency, clarity and vibration. You are within my energy field and so embraced within my essence. Upon the earth, I am symbolic of the Eternal Mother, of compassion, of unconditional love, the Keeper of Sorrows, the Listener of Prayers and so on. It is but one facet of my extraordinary capabilities for there are many other qualities which may manifest and through which God speaks and moves through me.

I wish to engage with you this day in an aspect that is not commonly known or associated with me. I am also a Master of the Stars. I have a great connection with the cosmos and your third dimensional universe. I did incarnate on several occasions within a scientific mind in which I explored and furthered conscious knowledge of the stars but not in a way that is astronomical, for that is part of the illusion and is just a measurement of the physical. Instead, I immersed myself within the science of the energies that individual cosmic bodies carry and emit and how those energies are exchanged between stars, planets and galaxies and the rivers or currents of energies that flow between such places. There is truly a cosmic highway. For those who have eyes to see, your universe is resplendent with dazzling rivers and currents of cosmic energy. It maintains the fabric and matrix of your universe through which the breath of God passes. The planets, heavenly bodies and stars have their own consciousness and emit their own vibration. They engage and interact with each other as you would engage and interact with other conscious entities, not in the way that you imagine, for your interaction is purely within the genre of human behaviour. There is an incredible community within the cosmos and amongst those who would populate it. Part of my dispensation as an ascended being has been to have the privilege of witnessing and coming to have a greater understanding of the way in which the cosmos interacts with itself. It is truly breathtaking and beautiful. These divine creatures manifest as incredible heavenly bodies (such as planets, gaseous clouds and the burning stars). The consciousness required to manifest and inhabit such a physical creation is truly magnificent. Of course, your earth is one and thankfully many humans have come to appreciate and honour her. Everything within your physical universe is like your Mother Earth in the sense of the overwhelming gift, sacrifice, love and service it requires to be an environment in which life is either sustained or a building block for the cosmos in some way.

So why am I speaking of this to you this day? It is to invite you to connect with me in ways that you are not used to, for there is so much more of me you can access, can come to know and can draw on for inspiration and understanding. It is time that I more fully step outside of the one dimensional role that has been assigned to me by humanity. I am a vast consciousness of light and although I do exhibit and inhabit the qualities mentioned earlier, it is as I have said, but one facet of me. It is the same with any Ascended Master who you would come to define in one particular light yet it is only one reflection of them. The same may be said for dearest Sananda who carries the Christ Consciousness but Sananda's purpose is different in every corner of the universe. The facet that is reflected to a planet other than yours may have a completely different role, yet within Sananda there is still the Christ Consciousness. You are also an interdimensional being with a multifaceted existence. You may have had proof of this. Your reflection differs from dimension to dimension, from vibration to vibration yet your essence is still there. Not only is it my time to show another facet, it is your time to allow the light to be reflected back from another part of yourself. This is why it is necessary for you to be initiated within the Melchizedek lineage and receive a multi-faceted diamond within your aura. All the strands are beginning to be pulled together for you, it is beautiful and there are more strands to come.

It is time now for another part of yourself to be begin to be revealed. It is not a part that you are currently conscious of for it is not a human aspect, rather it is part of your soul essence. As I gaze upon you I see you as magnificent beings of light. I do not and never shall see your human form. It is not necessary, for what I see has far more beauty, character, and substance. The light that you emanate can be focused upon anything that you desire. The reflection that I speak of is a reflection of your light only. As a Master of the Stars I wish to speak, meditate and bring knowing to you. I share that which I know is within the confines of what it is that you are capable of understanding within human consciousness. More often than not it shall not be words. My dearest ones, I thank you for your time and for listening and I share my energies with you this day. I shall join you each time that you meet which is not to say that I will speak but I shall be here.

I AM MARY, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Mary is vast, as she is not contained by space or time.
- ◆ How humans know Mary and her role as the eternal mother, is but one facet of her.
- ◆ Mary is also a Master of the Stars and has a great connection with the cosmos.
- ◆ Our universe is filled with dazzling rivers or currents of energies which maintain the matrix of our universe through which the breath of God passes.
- ◆ Planets, stars and other celestial bodies have their own consciousness and interact with each other. They are truly magnificent.
- ◆ We are given an invitation to connect with Mary in a greater capacity.
- ◆ It is time now for another part/facet of ourselves to be revealed.
- ◆ Our reflection differs from dimension to dimension yet our essence remains the same.

Portia : THE UNIVERSE

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, PORTIA who comes at this time to address you and you may perceive me in female form if you are comfortable with this or as a being of light but I am not literally in human form of course. I come to you as an emissary from the stars for humanity's destiny lies with the heavens and has always done so in ways which perhaps in the past have been more subtle and indirect yet now in the imminent future shall become much more overt and immediate. This is one of the reasons why dearest Mother Mary did come and speak as a Master of the Stars.

I come as a representative of star children within your particular universe and it matters not which particular region for it is an illusion this idea of location and physicality. Rather, I refer to the vibration which I and my race carries and those of whom are like me. This is the important aspect. Humanity has its own unique vibration, within which there are vibrations within vibrations, as each nation has its frequency, its own particular level of spiritual evolution that translates into a vibration. The vibration that I inhabit, generate, and am aligned to is unlike any vibration that you would experience upon your earth. It is not of your earth, nor of your solar system which impacts upon your earth or even your galaxy. All of these have been designed or more correctly, attuned to particular vibrations suited to the evolutionary nature that you are currently experiencing and have experienced since your sector of the universe came into conscious being.

The universe is not unlike a most beautiful musical composition. It is orchestrated like a wonderful symphony which has so many different instruments playing together to create multiple layers of harmony, chords and octaves. The universe is comprised of many different vibrations that together create a musical tapestry that is the universe. Using this analogy I would say that you are sitting in the brass section of the orchestra and I am sitting in the stringed section of the orchestra and we make beautiful music together but we are completely different in our vibration, the way by which we make the music. This has long been known. It is the music of the spheres, the heavenly music, the apparently inaudible sound that the stars and the planets make as they gently rotate in movement in accordance with the life force of the Creator. There is the explosive sound and energy of new stars coming into being, and stars imploding. All of these things combine to form this wonderful symphony.

I am giving you this knowledge for you have entered into this Melchizedek University. Your area of the physical universe has its own unique vibration which can be heard as sound. For humanity to expand its awareness beyond its own borders it must come into contact with other vibrations within the universe and become aware of other parts of the orchestra so that you may be more conscious of how humanity contributes to the overall vibrational tapestry. As spiritually aware people it is important to know all about vibrations and to know that the earth has its own inherent vibration which can be heard from space. This has been documented by your scientists.

To become consciously aware of how other areas of your universe complement your particular vibration is a very profound form of learning because it means that you can become exposed to the spiritual and the metaphysical intricacies of the dimension in which you live. This is far more fascinating, profound and beautiful than which you and humanity know at this time. Humanity is focused on the physical expression of the universe; how the planets and stars look and are built rather than how they exist, how they serve God and how they relate to earth. The spiritually aware ones upon your planet, like yourselves, can spend whole lifetimes trying to discover what it is they are meant to be doing and their place within the scheme of things. I would say to you that is an important pursuit but parallel to this, as a species, we would hope that humanity would yearn to discover what earth's purpose is and what the human species purpose is within this dimension. By looking toward the heavens and becoming open to a connection with other beings in Creation within your universe, this awareness of the greater purpose of earth in the scheme of things can become closer to being known. There is a purpose for everything. It has often been said by spiritual ones that every individual human upon your earth has a divine purpose and is essential to the Divine Plan. If one individual were to disappear it would affect the Divine Plan for it would create a variation which is why suicide is not encouraged for it does create a variation. Not that the Divine Plan, which is inscrutable to all, is so linear or literal but let us say that shock waves go out throughout the vibrational matrix of the universe when there is a variation, when a life force has been taken away or has been transmuted by death to a different state. I digress, suffice to say that everything on earth has an essential part to play within the Divine Plan, within the greater universe and as such your planet is not insignificant, nor is any. Your world has been cocooned for so long within the particular arrogance that it is the most significant planet in the universe as opposed to just being significant. This has blinded humanity to being able to open itself up to the greater realm of Creation.

My purpose today is not so much to offer a lecture but to introduce myself as an emissary of the stars so that you and I can be joined together within this university. I can offer you in service my limited knowledge which would expand your limited knowledge and likewise I hope that in time I can also learn from you so that my horizons can be expanded also. If you so wish it I would welcome the opportunity to come back and to offer you discourses on particular subjects that I hope you would record, integrate, and master so that you can expand your consciousness in order to then turn around and assist others in expanding their consciousness. You can be visionaries, for visionaries, as I am sure you will agree, are essential to any advancement. There needs to always be those who can see ahead, who can see more than the present reality, and are able to pull the blinds apart, no matter how small the distance, for others to see through. I am honoured to have been invited to participate with you by dearest Melchizedek. These Ascended Ones do not limit themselves to any one environment, peoples or planet and serve where they are directed to by Spirit. As an Ascended One there is a degree of omnipotence so that it is possible to serve through the expanse of the space-time continuum to many people, places and times. How lucky you are to be in such a time where the dawn is just about to break for your world - a new dawning into intergalactic connections.

Well, these are my words this day and before I depart I wish to bring my energies to you, my vibration, my piece of the orchestra. So become consciously aware of me before you, and you can visualise a most beautiful light stemming from my hands if you would see them as such. The colour of this light matters not for it is not a colour for which you have any reference. Yet as a colour must be seen you can choose white and this energy extends into your aura if you welcome it in. You may feel a little uncomfortable for it is not energies that you have known. If there is a coolness to this energy allow it to gently, as if it were snowflakes, move through your aura, attuning you. It is also a very peaceful vibration that I carry as my world is spiritually wise. There is a wisdom that is not words and this vibration will assist you in integrating the words which I must use in order to communicate with you but the words are not the significant part of the communication. It is inherent wisdom within the vibration that I bring. This is the most significant part and will anchor a new knowingness and the words will occupy your consciousness, your mind but the vibration, the energies will speak to the spiritual parts of you.

I will come again and I thank you for this opportunity and we shall no doubt become great friends.

I AM PORTIA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Portia: a representative of star children expressed through vibration, but not a vibration humanity experiences.
- ◆ Our galaxy and solar system have been attuned to particular vibrations suited to the evolutionary nature of the world we inhabit.
- ◆ The universe is like a beautiful musical composition or symphony comprised of many different vibrations which can be experienced as sound.
- ◆ Humanity must come in contact with other ones in the universe to expand its awareness beyond its own borders, and to learn the greater purpose of Earth.
- ◆ Every individual has a divine purpose and is essential to the Divine Plan.
- ◆ Invitation to become visionaries through the WST, for visionaries are essential to any advancement.
- ◆ How lucky we are to be in a time where a new dawning into intergalactic consciousness is possible.

Kyrael : ANGELIC PRINCIPLE

Greetings dearest ones, it is I ARCHANGEL KYRAEL who comes to communicate with you this day. Well, my friends I come as an emissary of the angelic realm or the Angelic Principle, as we call it. Perhaps I am not one of the archangels that you are familiar with for I am not part of human mythology or history as such but I come at this time as a cosmic angel; one whom is in service throughout the cosmos and not tied to any particular reality or occupied physical realm. I wish to speak briefly about the Angelic Principle. The angelic realm was part of First Manifestation when the All That Is burst into existence through Creation. This manifestation was light and sound and the Outbreath jettisoned itself through space and time to create dimensional existence, so it is, that upon this first burst of thought, we came into being predating 99.9% of all else in Creation. We hold the concentration of divine energy. As this energy traveled outward and expanded the space-time continuum to accommodate itself, it did not dissipate but rather evolved upon its path. We, however, remain unevolved, being part of that First Manifestation and so one can then say that we are the closest to the initial thought of God, of the All That Is.

It is no wonder then that the angelic realm has held such fascination for humanity, for truly we are incredibly powerful, divine beings who have such an intimacy with Source that it is not possible for all ones who are subsequent to us to comprehend. This is what we call the Angelic Principle. As part of the First Word, the First Thought, the First Manifestation there is a knowingness within the Angelic Principle of the exactness of the All That Is. It is not something that can be conveyed or communicated for you have to 'be' this in order to know this and be part of the Angelic Principle. This is not to say that the Angelic Principle is in any way above or hierarchical in terms of all else that has followed. As the Outbreath moved through the space-time continuum taking all things along with it, life became experienced in an infinite array of being, none better or worse, just different. You often refer to this difference as frequencies, the multidimensions and the level of tone that moves outward with the Outbreath. All of which is comprised of multiple tones, multiple octaves, multiple pitch to create the overall sound of Creation. Simultaneously manifested is light and colour and all manner of things outside the frame of reference of those in the physical.

Why is it important for ones to know of the Angelic Principle? Well, in a literal sense it is not dissimilar to asking why it is important that humanity knows its own history, because there is something to the idea of knowing ones roots, ones origins. As part of First Manifestation all things have extended outward from the Angelic Principle, from the angelic realm, for the Outbreath passed through us and continued on through the space-time continuum. So through all else in Creation there are varying degrees of angelic energy and vibration including within yourselves and all else upon the earth and within this particular universe. For universes were not all manifested at once and when the Angelic Principle came into being there was no universe, for the Angelic Principle being close to the All That Is, just is. One explanation that may help is that you have iconic pictures of saints whom have halos which represents the divine consciousness of that person. So it is that you could say that the angelic realm is the halo surrounding All That Is confirming the divinity of Source and as such we do not belong to any universe or are limited to any dimension, for although we move through the space-time continuum of existence we are not literally part of it, the same as the Outbreath of the All That Is is not literally part of Creation because it stands outside of it. Creation being, as you know, an illusion. We are not part of the illusion but we are part of the Outbreath and therefore are not infinite but finite until such time as an Inbreath. Yet our consciousnesses can observe and move throughout all of Creation, being truly not part of it but able to be moving through it, which is why we can be as omnipotent as Source itself. So indeed there is a specialness to the Angelic Principle and there is an untapped profound availability soon to come to humanity from the angelic realms. For truly there shall be an Inbreath; a return to Source as Source moves to the next Thought. So it is that as we stand outside of Creation itself we will play an active part in the Inbreath as we have done with the Outbreath. Therefore we will be working with humanity in ways that have not yet been known or offered before. It is beyond the role that has been assigned by humanity to us as simply guardians, caretakers and right-hand beings of God for there is not yet any true recognition of the full function of the Angelic Principle.

I hope that I may return to you to offer some sort of insight in preparation for those who are destined to align themselves with the Angelic Principle. Of course the words shall be but a mask for an integration of knowingness that will come through other means, a means not limited to the speaking of words.

This is my message and my introduction this day.

I AM ARCHANGEL KYRAEL, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Archangel Kyrael is not part of human mythology/history, rather is in service throughout the Cosmos.
- ◆ Angelic realm is part of the First Manifestation and predates all else in Creation.
- ◆ The Angelic Principle is an exact knowingness of and intimacy with All That Is.
- ◆ The Outbreath from All That Is first passed through the angelic realm and then continued on through the space-time continuum to form Creation.
- ◆ The angelic realm is not limited to any universe or dimension as it stands apart/outside of Creation.
- ◆ The angelic realm will play an active part in the Inbreath of our Creator; when Source moves to the next Thought.
- ◆ A profound angelic availability will soon come to humanity.

That Which I Am : CONSCIOUSNESS

Greetings, dearest ones, it is I, THAT WHICH I AM and although this may sound rather cryptic, it can be said in no other way - I am That Which I Am. There is no definition of me for I am not ME as such. I am not individualized. There are multiple facets to that which we know as existence, as has been spoken of so eloquently by others. Everything in existence has a consciousness at a core level. Well dearest ones, I am consciousness. I am not any particular consciousness but I am That Which I Am; I am consciousness. I am the manifestation of consciousness and the means by which consciousness is. I am the governing energy form, for want of a better term. I am the energy that allows consciousness to come into being and to manifest in limitless ways of being. I am not divine, I am not The All That Is, I am That Which I Am. It is perhaps easier for me to say that I am the Divine Thought that allows consciousness to be but I am not the originator of that which is divine or of that which is the thought.

Everything requires a means by which it can come into existence, a conduit and you have learned that God is the conduit for the Outbreath of the All That Is or that which cannot be known. I am the conduit for individualized consciousness and for individualization. There is mass consciousness and there is the illusion of your own consciousness. I am the matrix by which you can be individualized. It is through my being and through That Which I Am which enables you to be, although I am not the originator of you for I am not divine, in that sense. It is truly difficult to even define such conceptualization for it is a knowing and either you resonate and absorb the idea of this or you do not. If you are open, all of this shall be integrated. It is not that you would have sudden understanding of what consciousness is as it is not that literal. It cannot be pinned down to a definition. It cannot be made real but rather as that which I bring is integrated you will have a shift in your perceptions on many levels as another piece shall be added to the puzzle unconsciously. The information I bring (not so much in words) will have an influence and it will be like more light being shed upon the mysteries of the cosmos. It is difficult to express, so do forgive me. It is an illusion that I am being channelled and speaking with you in this way. I cannot be defined as such or limited to one who can be channelled. Rather an individualized consciousness is being channelled who I am moving through, if this makes sense.

One must always remember that nothing is in truth, truth - either you resonate with this or you do not. As the Outbreath continues to expand the space-time continuum then so does the idea of existence continue to evolve as will the idea of consciousness.

Well, I AM THAT WHICH I AM, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Everything in existence has a consciousness at a core level.
- ◆ TWIA is the manifestation of consciousness: the means by which consciousness is, the Divine Thought that allows consciousness to be, without being the originator of that thought.
- ◆ TWIA is the conduit for the individualisation of consciousness, allowing you to 'be', yet you do not originate from it for you come from our Creator.
- ◆ TWIA is beyond definition and it is an illusion that this presence is being channelled.
- ◆ Nothing in truth, is truth.
- ◆ As the Outbreath continues to expand the space-time continuum the idea of existence and consciousness evolves also.

Akhnaton : UNCONDITIONAL GRATITUDE

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, AKHNATON. Allow a column of golden white Light to appear about you and integrate this into your energy field. Having done this, allow it to expand and fill this room in which you are seated. Allow it to then dissipate and you find yourself in between time; that space that is not of your dimension but not yet the next dimension. You are within a structure that is not unlike a beautiful, clear crystal bowl, so large that it encompasses you and the many others who are seated upon the floor of this structure. It is transparent so that you have an opportunity to see, not with the eyes, of course, the space which this structure occupies. Interestingly there is nothing to see, it is a void. The void is not necessarily black, it is an absence of Creation but it is still part of Creation, if this makes sense. It is energy in movement yet is static at the same time. It is what you refer to as 'all potential'. This crystalline round space within which we are seated, is a structure that is entirely manifested by the thought forms of those present. Everything in Creation has been brought into being by both individual and collective thought forms.

Those who are seated here along with you, did create this structure prior to your coming together for this meditation in preparation for your arrival so that you may be joined within this no-time space with them. As has been spoken, there are others who will be attending this university from other areas of the universe and from interdimensional planes when necessary. This spherical structure will unmanifest at the close of this session because it is a conduit for energy, time, light and many other things including the current of thought. In our previous encounters there have been instructional messages and in part that will be so today, however, foremost we will experience the energy.

I ask that you would, as best you can, begin to still your mind. You are here among friends. It is not necessary for you to visualise the other students here but perhaps you are aware of, or can sense, particular energies that emanate from these ones just as you yourselves are also known by your vibrational signature. So, as you begin to still the mind a great quiet descends about you. As you are between no-time and indeed between dimensions so it is that the void (the nothingness, the everythingness) about you is in complete equilibrium. This serenity is the most peace that can be experienced within Creation for it is just prior to manifestation. So take a moment to become aware of the peacefulness about you where there is literally nothing except yourselves. The sphere itself is now beginning to become a conduit for your collective energies which are now moving within the circumference of this sphere. Your energy flows and combines with those within this group. You are becoming expanded as you tap into the incredible power of the void, of the all-potential and the all-nothingness at once. It feels as though you could expand in any direction and that you could do and be any thing or anyone at all.

There is an incredible excitement which comes with the knowledge that anything is possible and can be created and experienced with no limitation. The All That Is can do exactly this; be anything, do anything, create anything, uncreate everything and start again without limitation. Artists are able to experience a glimpse of this and when I say artists I include composers, musicians, mathematicians, engineers or any human endeavor that is highly imaginative and creative which results in something having been manifested tangibly. Imagine a trillion-fold and beyond, the sense of joy which comes from creativity. Those of you upon the earth usually wish to have their creativity shared and reflected back to them. So an artist may present a show in a gallery, a composer will have his compositions played or recorded, an engineer will have the bridge built, a child will make a card for its mother and so on. On nearly all levels humans require an audience or another external to themselves, to acknowledge and appreciate what they have created. There is great satisfaction in this, is there not? Sometimes the simplest things are the most spiritual, reflecting true spirituality. So the All That Is delights in Its creations, Its expression and requires a reflection back to Itself; an acknowledgment of that which has been created and an appreciation, one would hope. So inbuilt within all things in Creation is the desire, once awakened, to honour God the Creator, the All That Is and show our deep gratitude for all that has been created . .

Gratitude is a terribly important quality within Creation. Not only are we a reflection back to our Creator, but to be grateful for being in existence and for existence itself is truly an amazing thing or should I say it can have an amazing effect upon you. Gratitude is so often misunderstood upon the earth-plane, often diminished and rarely is it used to its full potential. When you are in a state of wholehearted, enlightened, gratitude, it requires an acknowledgment of our Creator. For in acknowledging God and then embodying gratitude toward God you begin to truly 'live' as opposed to just 'acting'. I hope that you understand this, for most people within the illusion of existence are acting. They think they are living, really living. Existing within spiritual gratitude and acknowledgment of God you become alive in ways that you just didn't think were possible - in ways that you cannot conceive of until you are in that space. This is what existence is. It can bring you closer toward the bliss that is so often spoken of in your texts and by those in deep meditation. There is only one doorway and to pass through that doorway there must be gratitude and not just in a material sense.

I speak of unconditional gratitude. It is gratitude toward God for God existing - it is gratitude that God is even there. Not what God has done for you, or could do for you, or for what you presently experience but gratitude that God is, that the Creator is. There is a big difference in this level of gratitude which can bring about the aliveness that I have spoken of which aligns you with divinity. It is difficult to describe in words because words are so human. However, if you can work toward manifesting true unconditional gratitude and just be in love with the fact there is a Creator then you will begin to move into a living that is beyond life, so to speak. The love we have within each of us becomes greatly amplified through acknowledgment of God. I ask that for a moment you go within and allow some understanding to come to you, perhaps a little glimpse of what it can mean for you to have gratitude in the way that I have described, to think upon the Creator . . .

Well, it can be tricky for it is not something that you can practice; it is something that must arrive. Sometimes it can take awhile and there is the universal law of 'the more gratitude you have the more that you are grateful for'. The key to the gratitude that I speak of is to not tie it to any one thing. Humans are often tempted to create a gratitude list and say: 'I am grateful for my life. I am grateful to be living in an affluent society. I am grateful for the people that I love, my family.' This is all wonderful within the human experience. Yet it is conditional for it is tied to something having been provided to you. Again I say that the unconditional gratitude for just being thankful that God exists is far more profound. It encompasses everything yet it is not part of the illusion that you experience. Part of your training through this university is to help you to go beyond your 'humanness', to go beyond the emotional spectrum through which you filter all of your experiences so that you can begin to become aware of the greater manifestation of qualities that are part of Creation. The illusion of life on earth (which is as you know, an incredible experience in itself) is but a very small portion of the totality of expression. For example, love is experienced on earth in certain ways through your emotional vehicle and your connection with others which, by and large, is mostly conditional. Yet love is bigger than this and some people choose to try to tap into a bigger picture which they call 'oneness' or 'universality'. Trying to love all is a challenge while in human form. Beyond human experience there are many aspects of love experienced throughout Creation. And then there is just love, with no definition. Qualities that exist as part of the expression of our Creator are filtered down and separated into learning experiences in various dimensions and in various forms such as human form. How you experience love is very different to how others from differing dimensions or universes may experience love. None of which is the totality of love. Love is love and without definition it becomes a state of being and not something that we switch on and off according to what goes on about us or what moves through us.

Love becomes totality because it is the manifestation of the Creator. It is the First Thought before the thought fragmented into many tangents. Let us say, if we could project the energy of love through a prism and as it passes through the prism many offshoots are created but they are all distortions. It is the same with gratitude; gratitude is a state of being because it is part of the First Thought of the Creator. When you move closer to this state of being you gain a sense of 'life' itself: no longer acting, doing but living. What is life, what is that which creates?

Well I fear I have gone on but I could talk and share for eons with you but the words do no justice at all. Yet as we have come together the understanding, which has been supported by the energies, has been directed towards you. What I have said, as inadequate as it is, will serve as a trigger for the true understanding to come. I guess in your world you would call it subliminal.

Well, dearest ones I do not doubt that you will in time become incredibly expanded individuals and this I honour for I have known many human lifetimes and the challenge of being in human consciousness yet striving toward transcending that human consciousness. It is such a big challenge.

Well I hope you have enjoyed this experience.

I AM AKHNATON, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Many ones join us in the WST from across the universe and multidimensions.
- ◆ The All That Is is delighted with its creations and requires a reflection back to itself.
- ◆ Inbuilt into Creation is the desire to honour our Creator, therefore gratitude is very important.
- ◆ When you exist within spiritual gratitude and acknowledgment of God you become alive in ways not thought possible.
- ◆ Unconditional gratitude is to be aspired to.
- ◆ There is a big difference between gratitude for what God does for us and gratitude that God just is. This is true spiritual gratitude; to be in love with our Creator without condition.
- ◆ Universal law: the more gratitude you express, the more you have to be grateful for.
- ◆ Love without definition becomes a state of being. Gratitude and love are parts of the First Thought before it fragmented through the prism of Creation.

Melchizedek : RADIANCE

Greetings dearest ones, it is I MELCHIZEDEK who comes to join you this day. May I say what a pleasure it is to see this beautiful little Temple grow. I come to welcome those who are new and I am pleased that something within you has drawn you to this place. It is not just the words that are spoken which draws you as they are the least significant aspect of when we commune with you. It is the energies that we bring to you and that you bring to us and so it is like a finely tuned, beautiful instrument. Those who gather in this little space are perfectly attuned and aligned not only with each other's energies but also to the level of energy that is being transferred by the presence of the many unseen beings of light who also attend this gathering. They come because this Temple is a beacon of light and although it is very new it matters not for the radiance that shines forth is a reflection of those who would come here. So it is that within your hearts, and your energy field there is a wonderful resonance of light. We do not perceive you in your physical form, there is no recognition of you as such. What we perceive is your inner vibration, that which is your soul resonance and so we know each of you via this means. So I say to you that the inner divinity within each of you is a wondrous thing. It is such a challenge for those who are in human form to allow that inner divinity to percolate and bubble up and then radiate outwards into their energy field and beyond. This is what we attune to and see within you. So my friends, know that your inner radiance is beautiful to behold and can be seen and felt interdimensionally as can all vibration, all energies, all consciousness.

As we are known to each other by our radiance (that which we radiate outwards) so it is that your essence is being beamed outward throughout Creation and the cosmos for all to behold. Likewise, all else in Creation is radiating the essence of their true selves and so forming our incredible, wonderful, universal Creation where all of this harmonic is taking place. The interweaving and intertwining of personal energies by all of those in existence is the most wonderful tapestry of life. The majesty of it cannot be fully conceived while within human consciousness and indeed may not be fully conceived while within any consciousness - that would be to see into the mind of God, which is inscrutable. Yet we see reflections of God about us and the way in which Creation is created. Within the limitation of your physical realm it is very difficult to see beyond the physical to the strands of living light and energy that are the Outbreath of God that flows through everything, or to perceive the pinpoints of light and harmonic that is every being in existence. Yet within the physical realm there is also a great reflection of the Divine for there is an incredible beauty to physicality, is there not? You appreciate your physical environment and the wonderful cosmos, with its achingly beautiful galaxies. The underlying energy field or matrix of all this physical beauty is even more inspiring.

Well, suffice to say I welcome you and your radiance is known to me and to all else in Creation. Likewise the inverse is true – you have the capacity to align and attune yourself to any other being within Creation. You can know them by their vibration, by their radiance including the Ascended Masters and the Angelic ones. Well these are my words this day.

I AM MELCHIZEDEK, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ WST is comprised of our energies and Masters and other beings present.
- ◆ WST is a beacon of light because of the energies we bring.
- ◆ The Masters do not perceive our physical form, rather they know us by our radiance; our energy-field vibration.
- ◆ Our radiance can be seen and felt interdimensionally; is beamed out into Creation.
- ◆ We have the capacity to know other beings in Creation by their vibration/radiance.

Cosmic Buddha : RUBY RAY

Greetings, dearest ones, it is I, the COSMIC BUDDHA and I welcome those who are new to this gathering. Of course that is an illusion for those who are drawn together in this place have been gathered before. There has been an atunement in other places, in other times where ones have gathered together within spiritual learning and so it is that whoever comes here into this space will recognize this resonance of ease and great clarity. It is almost a continuation of spiritual yearning and the quest for spiritual understanding that was started many lifetimes ago for each. As the illusion of time is just that, and as this etheric Temple stands outside of the space-time continuum so it is that no time at all has passed between when you were last gathered in those supposed lifetimes. There are many other ones who are also present who are yet to come in the physical to this gathering but are gathered nonetheless. For all paths and all time zones collapse into that beautiful Eternal Now.

Understanding comes to you, not from these words but from these energies that are the current upon which the words flow. Such understanding is already known to you for it has all occurred, is occurring, and will occur. While you are within this containment of time, within this bubble of moment, you must undertake the illusion that you are understanding anew - that this is the first time these energies and these words have come to you. But it is not so and I say this to you, as it is all known to you as part of the gradual expansion of your consciousness. Although governed by the illusion of your earth time here, it can be sidestepped even if only for short periods of time so that you may begin to perceive a period of no-time more fully and more often. This is part of your expansion; to be able to step out of time in this manner. You have the perfect vehicle for this, it is the etheric diamond. All of those present who are unseen lend their energies, vibration and intention and indeed their radiance to this project. Together you have created an environment in which it is far more easier now for you to step outside of time. When you do this you do not need to do anything else, for there is no need to learn as such as it is known because time has not occurred.

Dearest ones I wish to bring with me a most wonderful tool. So I ask you to visualize in the centre of this room a most beautiful ruby red sphere of light. It is the embodiment of the ruby ray and is a ray of activation and encodement. It is a stimulus for expansion; it assists you in being able to become more consciously aware of that which is beyond general human understanding. So with your permission I ask that from this beautiful living light which is pulsating before you and has the softest red glow, you allow a ray of light to come from this to your third eye. If you so wish, you can ask that this ruby ray assist in the attunement of your energy field toward greater consciousness expansion.

The energy of the ruby ray is profound. It can be intense but it is also gentle and it is a wonderful thing that has been brought into existence. The consciousness of rays (there are many rays within existence and there are many energy streams as we call them) have been set in motion for the benefit of Creation. Some originate directly from Source. Some originate from the angelic realm, which is one of the closest realms to Source, being part of the First Manifestation, and some rays have been gifted to Creation by beautiful beings who embody that ray.

Everything has consciousness including a grain of sand and energy itself. You have experienced communion with the energy which calls itself That Which I Am - which is consciousness itself. There are not only such things as beings, plant life and rocks within Creation, but Creation itself has consciousness. The energy flows, the energy streams, the energy rays are consciousness itself. Tone, colour and everything that can be conceptualized has a living consciousness and so the ruby ray is brought into existence and embodied by an energy consciousness. If it was not so, you would not be able to experience the ruby ray as an energy stream or a ray of light for without consciousness it could not be within existence. For if all is living when you sing a note, utter a word or make a sound it does not appear out of thin air. Yes, there is the mechanical, physical reason why you can create a sound from your body but the sound comes into being because it has consciousness otherwise it could not be within existence. I hope that this is making sense to you for if you grasp this then you will have opened yourself to a very fundamental perspective upon existence and Creation and how Creation is. This is truly expansive and once you are able to integrate this understanding then you will have no other option than to begin to interact with your environment in a much different way. Yet I do not mean just the environment in which you move with your five senses but your whole environment. Consciousness carries the tones that make up your words, the living of your thoughts, the energy of colour, the vibration that is attached to every emotion. This includes the many divas that you are commonly aware of and all physical attributes and aspects of your planet. Beyond this every single thing has consciousness; abstract consciousness.

The ruby ray ball recedes and I am here in front of you instead, however you wish to perceive me. My energies are truly vast and I have stepped them down to be within this little Temple and I extend my energies to you and my love to you. Know that the pathway before you is a golden one.

The door has been flung open and you, my friends, have a very special road to travel. You are not alone as there are many ones who travel with you. I ask that you would become, if possible, consciously aware of those who join you at this time and who are not in body. If you are unable to perceive them then just acknowledge in your heart that there are others present. They too are on their journey and as this place of learning, this Temple, is outside of the space-time continuum, it is accessed by ones from various points within Creation and that is a most wonderful gift. It is like meeting people from overseas for the first time. There is so much blending of beautiful energies; there is such a sense of camaraderie and a willingness to be open.

Well, my love and light to all this day and before I leave I ask that you would sit with these energies for a little while.

Well, my friends I AM THE COSMIC BUDDHA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ All paths and all time zones collapse into the Eternal Now.
- ◆ Everything is occurring simultaneously but within the illusion of our containment of time, it appears as if we undergo a gradual expansion.
- ◆ Ruby ray: a ray of activation and encodement; a stimulus for expansion.
- ◆ There are many rays within existence and they have been set in motion to benefit Creation.
- ◆ Some rays originate from Source and some have been gifted by beings who would embody that Ray.
- ◆ Rays have consciousness, as does everything in existence.
- ◆ Without consciousness nothing could be in existence.

Mary : SEPARATION

Greetings Dearest ones, it is I, Mary who comes once more and it is indeed a joy to communicate with you in this manner again. I bring with me my energies on many levels as I come to you again as the Master of the Stars. This best describes the infiniteness of my being and the energies that I carry. I am hoping that you may feel about you these energies – the timelessness of them, the peace, the flow. As you well know, there is movement throughout the universe and beyond. There is always movement as the universe experiences a gentle rotation. All of the galaxies, planets, suns and moons dance the dance of the spiral and of the circle, both of which do not know a beginning or an end. This reflects the infiniteness that is Creation. The paradox being that at any time uncreation is possible and so the infiniteness recedes and seems to contradict itself.

I wish to speak to you this day regarding one of the universal consequences of being in existence and of Creation being what it is. It is something that is felt within every soul that exists throughout all dimensions, all timelines. To be in existence as part of Creation, in fact, to be created means to be separated from the whole, the one, the All That Is. Although we can experience oneness with all (and that is surely an aim for humanity) it does not eradicate the sense of separateness from God, from the All That Is. It is a wound but not a wound; it is something that causes a great sense of inner grief. To be fractured and fragmented into the beauty of this Creation and for each of our souls to be a shard of the All That Is, is incredibly painful. Those who are not fully conscious are not aware of why it is so; they are not aware of why they feel this cavernous emptiness at the core of their being. It is that part of the soul which yearns to be reconnected with Source, to cease to be separated and fragmented into individuality and wanting a return to Totality. It is not something that can be healed for it carries forward through all souls and through the timeline of each soul. Those of us whom operate on higher frequencies are not immune to this pain of separation. As with everything in regards to spirituality, and to life with its challenges and triumphs, a surrendering to and an acceptance of what is, is the only key to being able to exist in such a state of separation.

For those Ascended Beings and beyond whom appear to be so peaceful, knowing and wise, there is indeed peace but in order to achieve this we have come to a point of acceptance, a surrendering to this pain and brokenness within. Recognize that it is there as a byproduct of being within Creation and of being created. Also recognize that the yearning is a symptom of the most unbelievably profound love that we have as souls, for our Creator for if we did not love so dearly we would not feel the pain so acutely. This pit of emptiness at the core of our being is a beautiful indication of the heart connection that we have with Source. Yet Source is also not immune to the separation and although Totality is all that there is, God sees into the hearts of every being and knows the pain. Just as a parent to the child, God has the most beautiful love and compassion toward us and embraces and cradles each of our souls with the promise that we will never truly be separated. The parent will always be there and we are of the parent.

It is inscrutable to human consciousness at this time why there should be such a thing as separation and why it should cause pain for 'if God does know of our suffering why does He allow separation to continue'. These are very superficial questions and they are not even the right questions, for it is nowhere near as humans could ever imagine - why Creation is structured as it is. There have been theories put forward, and one is that those of us in Creation have this yearning, this separation in order to claw and inch our way back through the challenges and triumphs of existence. Yet this is not truly correct. It is a theory that can be held by the human consciousness, but why things are as they are, is far beyond what you can understand. It is such a big picture yet as we have said often, such a simple plan which is so beautiful in its simplicity, so profound and so unbelievable in its beauty. Yet even though it is so simple, it is so incredibly intricate and all of these things can only be described in these terms. It is an understanding rather than knowledge; it is a knowing rather than a science. You have the tiniest grain of perception as to why life is and why there is separation. I do not say this in order to make you feel small or to diminish human consciousness for it is how it is and you have volunteered to come in and inhabit this consciousness because it so perfectly serves your soul at this time within the timeline of your soul. There is no lesser or greater, but what I am trying to impress upon you is that the Divine Plan is so much bigger and so perfect that you don't have to worry. You do not need to make the pieces of the puzzle fit because they never will while you are within this consciousness. The pieces of the puzzle don't fit for me either. I may have more pieces of the puzzle fitting together but it is still incomplete, however, each time we pass through the wheel or the spiral of life we gather to us more understanding. Know that there is separation on many levels and remember that we are always a reflection of our Creator. We are fragments of the whole, of the All That Is, and as we appear in every single dimension we are also fragments of ourselves for you are aware that you have a higher self and that your higher self has a higher self and so on. All of those selves also have a yearning to be whole again, as the whole you, and so the cycle goes on. There is a yearning within to bring the pieces of the soul back together and then for that soul to be reunited with Source, and made whole.

I say all of this so that you can begin to accept and surrender to the fragmentation, the separation. Human consciousness is not unique in this aspect and has tended to deal with this core grief of separation in ways that have been detrimental to you as a consciousness and as a species. It often drives people into irrational ways of coping at a very deep unconscious level which can manifest as depression, violence, despair, neediness etc. All of this is a very superficial response and is only the tip of the iceberg of what goes on within the subconscious and its awareness of the fragmentation.

Your subconscious knows that it has come into separation. We can go our whole lives upon the earth trying to fill the hole, trying to bridge the gap. Some people are very well adjusted yet always there is a sense of disquiet or discontent at the back of their consciousness. Others throughout not only your universe but all dimensions and universes deal with the fragmentation in differing ways according to their spiritual evolution. There is a tendency for humans to feel damaged. I dare say that there is virtually not a person upon your earth who does not believe somewhere that they are a damaged person. Yet the unparalleled truth is that you never were, are not and never shall be broken – never were, are not and never shall be damaged. For you are aware that the soul is made of ‘teflon’, nothing sticks, stains or scratches. It is part of the illusion and even though it is a common core wound for all of Creation the fact that Creation is an illusion means that the fragmentation and brokenness is an illusion too. This simple thought if integrated into your being, will greatly assist you in accepting, embracing and surrendering to the fragmentation so that it no longer fuels subconscious and conscious behaviors, self-perceptions or anxieties; the biggest one of course being self-love. Somewhere within the human consciousness it has interpreted this fragmentation as being ‘not good enough to be loved by God’. It is how a little child would feel if that child were asked to leave the room when it so desperately wants to sit upon its mother’s knee.

Know that throughout Creation this separation forms an incredible bond. You upon the earth often speak of the bond of humanity, and how humanity is bonded in and by its humanness. Creation is bonded by its separation for as I have said, all of Creation experiences this grief. To balance this, compassion is inbuilt into Creation because we are born of love and the energy of the universe is unconditional love. All of Creation is there to support you and you may also help support all of Creation, if you choose. More to the point, Creation is there for you. We Ascended Beings or Masters are acutely aware of the degree to which humans experience and process this separation, grief and loss. We come with profound compassion and love for you as we know that you are almost lost in the wilderness because the veil has been so complete upon your world, the illusion is so concrete. Our heart goes out to you as sisters and brothers so that we can help to soothe, comfort and show you that everything is okay - you are not damaged or truly fragmented and the Divine Plan has your best interests at heart. You are fortunate to have so many in service towards you. There are many upon your planet who are unaware of Creation which is why we come to you in this university. We bring you words but more importantly, understanding. When integrated this places you in a better position to help your fellow beings. By awakening them to the joyous knowledge that they are well loved and have a vast family of beings about them helps them accept the inner wound and to trust that all is as it is for a reason even if that reason cannot be known.

Well, these are my words to you this day.

I AM MARY, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The universe experiences a gentle rotation of eternity.
- ◆ Each of us is fragmented into the beauty of Creation.
- ◆ This fragmentation from the Whole is painful as the soul yearns to be reconnected.
- ◆ Separation is felt throughout Creation and it is inscrutable to us why this is so.
- ◆ To transcend the grief of separation one must surrender and accept that there is a Divine purpose to this.
- ◆ The Divine Plan is so perfect that we need not worry.
- ◆ Humans tend to feel damaged by this sense of separation but it is an illusion within Creation.
- ◆ Creation is bonded by this sense of 'separation' from Totality. We must trust that all is as it is for a divine reason, even if that reason cannot be known.

Melchizedek : DIAMOND ACTIVATION

Greetings, dearest ones, it is I MELCHIZEDEK who comes forward once more and, as ever, it is truly an honour to be amongst those who are so magnificent; for those who are both present in the physical and of course those who are present in the non-physical or of a differing physical nature. For again this beautiful little Temple that is a place of learning has standing room only, so to speak, with many ones who come from varying parts of the cosmos and other dimensions. Truly this place is filled with a wonderful ambience and light and, my friends I come forth this day to bring forth an activation or perhaps initiation.

I ask that you would perceive about you an etheric Temple however you wish to visualize it. As you know it does not sit within the space-time continuum and so it can be within any context or realm, however this day I ask you to perceive that this little Temple has many windows through which you see the magnificence of the physical universe but not only the physical universe, for layered upon it is the fifth dimensional universal soul which, like a beautiful transparent pane of glass, provides a wonderful sparkle and glow to the cosmos. When not viewed in the physical it becomes a sea of colour as it is not represented as the darkness of space. All about you, like a wonderful jeweled landscape the galaxies, solar systems, nebulae and so on, sparkle twinkle and are filled with light, colour, sound, movement etc., this is truly a wonderful reflection of the imagination of our Creator. What you are attempting to visualize is but a pale shadow of what actually is, for you are still utilizing the human consciousness but I can assure you that you can times by a trillion the beauty that you see about you, the beauty within which you live as a being within existence. There are an infinite number of layers upon which reflects our Creator's imagination. There are a limitless number of dimensions and variations in physical and non-physical form including the light realms, realms of pure tone, realms of pure colour, realms that are just pure geometry and realms that you have no frame of reference for so that I cannot even speak of them. There has been nothing that cannot be thought or imagined brought into existence and more than you or I could ever conceive. You are part of all of it as you exist in every single realm.

Aspects of you and fragments of your soul are everywhere and the wonderful genius of how existence is manifested is that you are self-contained within each fragment, particularly within the physical dimension. You can be as omnipotent and omnipresent as God as you are virtually everywhere but because each of your aspects or fragments are separated by the illusion of individualized existence, you rarely have any integrated understanding of this. To have self awareness of all the aspects of oneself all at once, is to become God realized; is to actually allow all of separation in all dimensions, lifetimes and aspects of yourself to disappear. When this happens the result is that you rejoin back with Totality, with the All That Is - stepping outside of existence. To become God realized is to leave existence. It is owing up to the fact that you are God and so you are instantly back with God.

So my friends I say all of this as a prelude to the little activation I wish to undertake with you this day. Before proceeding I ask for your permission, if you are open, to continue with this activation for it can only ever have positive results. As you are operating within a realm of freewill I must consult with you and am happy to do so.

The cosmos with all of its splendor is a wonderful background to this White Star Temple. It is a fitting place to initiate you into a new unfolding, part of which is accessing this little university. So I ask that you would see me in the middle of the Temple with you and perceive me however you wish, perhaps as a beautiful being of light or perhaps as an earthly representation, it does not matter to me. I stand before each of you in this Temple and I also include those who hear this recording. I bring in all of my energies for your expansion. You may feel these intensify about you as if a balloon of energy was being inflated. My energy field spans the cosmos for when you are outside the space-time continuum, distance and measurement cease to be and so I can be vast. You are held within my Melchizedek vibration; it is an office such as is the Christ office. To hold office in a spiritual sense is to be allocated a particular degree of service. It is my honour to have been given much service to not only humanity but to many different ones from many different dimensions. My energies reach interdimensionally allowing others to join you within this Temple.

Well, every being within existence (including every single particle and molecule and atom etc,) has an individualized consciousness so that everything not just that which you would refer to as sentient beings but the concrete beneath your feet, the chair that you sit upon, the stardust etc., all has consciousness within its molecular structure. The soul is the God-realized self that chose to come into existence in whatever form, or expression or dimension. You can even exist as an idea a concept, a sound, etc. We have said all this before and I have knowledge that you have been introduced to even the being that is consciousness itself which refers to itself as That Which I Am. Everyone of these forms at a soul level may be perceived as a beautiful multifaceted, living diamond, so incredibly beautifully shaped and chiseled with an infinite number of facets. These facets each represent you experiencing existence in a different form, a different expression, a different dimension etc. It is a wonderful prism that reflects our Creator. The Light of our Creator shines forever upon this diamond and your facets reflect this light back to God in how you have chosen to express yourself within the beauty of your soul. It is a visually symbolic representation of how you can manifest everywhere all at once; a multi faceted soul self with each facet seemingly unaware of the facet beside it and each facet uniquely reflecting back light to Source. Within this diamond there is also your own light, which is also reflected outward. It is so beautiful. This diamond, which is your soul, may also be perceived as pure harmonics and sacred geometry. The facets are intricately assembled and shaped and bound by sacred geometry. At any given time, so to speak, this geometrical matrix changes depending upon what you are expressing in any given form or life, so that it is constantly changing direction, evolving, building upon itself. It is a marvelous sculpture in never-ending progress and not only are you responsible for how it is being shaped but of course our Creator is also consciously shaping you through opportunities, the infusion of God energy and love and in ways that we cannot even conceptualise. You are a work in progress, for God did not just make everything and stop and say 'this is perfection'. Everything that has ever been and shall be, is continually being evolved and altered. For the mind of God does not sit still, it does not all of a sudden go blank. You were once a rough diamond and you have been beautified along the way.

Well, I am going on but it is such a pleasure to speak of such things that can barely be touched upon at all with words. Suffice to say that the energies I bring will also carry an understanding that is not reliant upon words. I bring forth to each of you here a prism-diamond that is symbolic for you, of you and of your soul. I hold it before you and it catches the Light of God and is illuminated from within by the brilliance and absolute beauty of your soul. If you were to look upon your own soul light you could not contain, you could not withstand, while in human consciousness, the beauty. You would fall apart. You would have no idea of how amazingly, incredibly wonderful a creation you are. How you dazzle, how you are the best that God could conjure and that is saying a lot. Moving toward you I see your energy field for, as you know, this is how we perceive you. With your permission I wish to place a symbolic, multifaceted diamond into your aura, close to your third eye. Once there your aura begins to change in response to the receiving of this beauty. It responds because it recognizes it as a symbolic representation of you. I bring this diamond because it represents change. From this day onwards you have the opportunity not only to shine more brightly, but to reflect even more back to God. You may become more aware of other facets of self, allowing them to shine through into your human consciousness and that is a pretty big thing for it means that the separation between some of your facets becomes more transparent. I hope that both myself and others will inspire and encourage you through our guidance to become aware of this process and to welcome it. You will become a greatly expanded being and ultimately more aware of the Light that shines on you from Source. So take a moment to become aware of this diamond within your aura like there are a thousand little suns within it. This is nothing new, it is always within your aura and you can choose to allow your reality to encompass it.

Well, we are and shall be great friends and I ask that you would look outward once more to the cosmos where every dazzling spark is God shining back from that which He has brought into Creation. I ask that you bring your consciousness back, dearest ones and I thank you for your participation. Each time you hear this recording I will come and you can re-experience and be reminded of that which has been put in place within the geometry of your being.

Well, my love, light and harmony is with you this day,

I AM MELCHIZEDEK

SUMMARY :

- ◆ All dimensions of existence are layered upon each other reflecting our Creator's divine imagination.
- ◆ We exist in all dimensions through aspects of ourselves.
- ◆ Each of our aspects is self-contained, separated from each other through the illusion of individualised existence.
- ◆ To have self-awareness of all aspects of self at once is to become God-realised.
- ◆ To become God-realised is to leave existence and rejoin Totality.
- ◆ Each soul may be perceived as a beautiful, multi-faceted diamond with each facet representing you in your differing expressions/aspects.
- ◆ The Light of Source shines forever upon this diamond and your facets reflect this Light back to God in how you have chosen to express yourself within the beauty of your soul.
- ◆ God is continually shaping us.
- ◆ Activation: symbolic, multi-faceted diamond placed in our aura and represents change. Other facets of self will begin to shine through into our human consciousness.

Teachings
from the
White Star Temple

Lecture Series Two

Sanat Kumara : RIPPLES OF CONSCIOUSNESS

Greetings, fellow travelers, it is I, your friend SANAT KUMARA who comes to commune with you this day. As we fill this little Temple with golden white light you are transported into the etheric and as before you are amongst others from your universe and from other dimensions who come here in the spirit of light and learning to this special little place that dearest Melchizedek has manifested. I am honoured to be able to come in this manner and to share some of my knowingness with you, remembering that in truth there is no one truth, it is all a matter of perception. This leads me into a topic which has been requested - of time. Time is such a splendid invention; it is a tool that is unique to the third dimensional existence, to your realm. It is an ingenious manifestation from a Divine Mind in ways that are difficult to conceptualize while you are operating within the realm of time. Time governs, seemingly, the natural laws of your world, your existence at the most fundamental level. From birth to death there is the passage of time and in order to have death or the illusion thereof, time came into existence to create the illusion of having a separate life to other lifetimes.

There is indeed a consciousness that inhabits time. In the human folklore this consciousness is known as Father Time and Father Time does indeed exist. It is the being who allows the Laws to operate within this illusion. This consciousness has the duty or mission to allow a manifestation of time to inhabit your world and to adjust itself to your perceptions. As you well know, time is an elastic thing; it stretches and contracts and all of this must be manifest through the consciousness of the one who embodies time. As you have learned outside of time and the illusion of your physicality, all moments, if we can use such a term, coexist simultaneously. So then, there is no past or future, only that marvelous thing called the Eternal Now. All of time collapses into the 'Now' when you are taken out of the illusion of physical existence. For everything coexists in the one moment; all of your supposed past lives, all of your supposed future lives and even this present life is all occurring in the one instantaneous moment. The term moment is in itself erroneous for it implies a unit or a measurement of time but I have no other words to use for you. The Eternal Now is all of existence operating all at once on every level and therefore you are able to alter the past and shape the future. There is no such thing as a linear sequence of time, for there is no time. The beauty of the illusion of time is that it seems such a straight line between the past, the present and the future while you are living within time. But it is anything but straight for your next earth lifetime could be as a caveman and your last lifetime could have been five million years into the future. As all life experiences within existence are experienced simultaneously so it is that if you change or alter your perception of one particular reality then all other experiences and realities are transformed. In this way not only can you alter a supposed future, but you can alter a supposed past which then, in turn, alters the present and the future for it is all as one. It is a change in perception on your part, a change of your consciousness in how you interact within any given reality which alters all else within existence that is linked to you and to your consciousness. If the human you could grasp this to the point of integration you will be a Master of Time; you would be able to affect all that has occurred, that will occur and is occurring in your human lifetime. However, timelines, the illusion of linear time, was manifested in your world for good reason - to fully support the illusion of you being separated from the rest of Creation and from the Divine, the All That Is. Time is the means by which separation can occur. It is the backbone of the illusion which you occupy. If you take time out of the equation then you cease to be in this illusion at all because then you would become aware of the simultaneous nature of existence; that all lifetimes, all experiences are layered upon each other in differing dimensions and occupying the same space and time, being the Eternal Now.

Do not allow yourself to write the past in stone, like it is concrete and cannot change for this is not so and there is a marvelous consequence of realizing that time does not exist. Within the illusion and duality of your realm there is the illusion that you can be harmed and be harmful - that you can sin, for want of a better term. Often we have said upon the high realms that at a soul level you cannot be touched, you cannot be scarred because the soul itself does not operate within the duality of your realm. It is your human consciousness that operates within the duality yet your human consciousness is an illusion, even though your personality feels so real. Even though this is all that you know while you inhabit this body, it is still part of an illusion. Whatever you do to another and whatever is done to you is impermanent because time is part of this equation. Time shifts according to your perception of reality and existence shapes itself around your perceptions of reality when time is not present. And so it is.

I will give you an example. If in a lifetime you have murdered another, then within the illusion of your world it appears concrete and absolute that you have done this. The present human consensus would be that this past life has occurred and in that life you were a murderer. Often humans will say 'Yes, in a past life I have done all of these things, both good and bad.' and that is true of that time, but if you take time away you will see that you have a perfectly evolved consciousness. Many lifetimes afterwards you may have evolved so spiritually that in your consciousness you can't even imagine killing another creature or another human being. Knowing in your heart that it is not who you are and that you are not capable of such a thing will then alter that past lifetime, for time is dependent upon your consciousness and in taking away time, there is only the Eternal Now. If your consciousness can no longer sustain or conceive of the idea of killing another then that is what occurs in the Eternal Now. Any lifetime that has occurred when you have harmed another will simply cease to exist because your consciousness will no longer support that reality. It is not as if it is wiped clean or that you have balanced the karma, it is simply that your consciousness has changed and therefore all of your experiences in existence reflect your present consciousness in the eternal ONE moment. Therefore you never did murder for it ceases to be part of that reality in the Eternal Now.

This may not at all be giving an adequate explanation and I do apologize if this is so but I hope that you would follow these words. Underpinning these words is the understanding that is being directed towards you through the energies I bring.

As a parallel I wish to speak on the Christ Consciousness. You are aware that the Christ Consciousness embodies compassion and unconditional love. The Christ Consciousness is also an entity and we have spoken of this before – of ideas and qualities having consciousness. There are magnificent beings such as Christ and Maitreya who take on the vibration of the Christ Consciousness. You will know, of course, Christ as Sananda. These beings allow both the energy of Christ Consciousness and the consciousness of Christ Consciousness to move through them, acting as a conduit. Within your relative world and realm there is indeed such a thing as consequences – that which you would term a karmic wheel but not quite in the way that ones upon the earth usually perceive of this, but there are causes and effects, as you are aware. Within the construct of your reality in this realm there is a perpetual balance that needs to be brought into being at all times. This balance is brought into being through the Law of Karma but the Christ Consciousness offers a way in which, to a degree, karma can be transmuted. This is a beautiful role that Sananda, in particular, has taken upon himself for your earth world. For the balance of the universe requires that any action on your part must be balanced out, whether that action be positive or negative. There is a perception that if you have negative karma it must be balanced out or erased by you by experiencing an atonement or redemption - to not undo that which has gone before but to keep the balance, to right a wrong, so to speak. The Christ Consciousness, Sananda in particular, through service since the dawn of your earth time has always stepped forward in the role of the Christ to be the redeemer. In simplistic terms this has meant that many times, unknown to you, Sananda (and other beings who are conduits for the Christ Consciousness) has stepped forward and stood in your place to balance out karma and take that burden upon himself – to right your wrong and transmute the debt that needed to be paid for the balance to be kept. This has always operated within the realm of free will for you, and Sananda and others are always there for you to call upon to step in, in such a way. These beings know you and they know every thought, every action, every lifetime, every future, every past, Eternal Now, everything about you is known, not judged of course as it is not coming from that perspective. They have enveloped into their own being each and every human upon the earth; to inhabit you, so to speak, as an offering of service. They are able to intimately relieve you of the balance that is required without interfering with the marvelous process of spiritual learning that occurs within your dimension. What a gift, and how much more challenging would life be if Sananda and others had not offered themselves as redeemers for you, for isn't life challenging enough already? Yet do not forget the greater context that even this karma, this balancing that must occur in the natural law within your realm, is part of the illusion.

Well, these are my words to you this day and there is another to follow my friends and I hope this assists you in better understanding the greater reality about you.

I AM SANAT KUMARA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ There is a consciousness that inhabits time : Father Time.
- ◆ Time is the means by which the illusion of separation can occur.
- ◆ Outside of time everything coexists in the one moment: the Eternal Now.
- ◆ As all your lifetimes coexist simultaneously, if you change your perception of one reality then all realities are transformed.
- ◆ All of your experiences in existence reflect your present consciousness in the Eternal Now. As such as you grow spiritually mature any harm you have caused ceases to be for your 'present' consciousness no longer supports this idea. Thus 'sin' is impermanent and cannot touch your soul.
- ◆ Yet, the Law of Karma exists for us, as a perpetual balance in our realm is required.
- ◆ Christ Consciousness transmutes karma through ones such as Sananda. Often he has stood in your place to experience your karma so that the balance may be kept.
- ◆ Such service, however, is given in such a way that it does not interfere with your spiritual learning or free will.
- ◆ The Law of Karma though relevant, is also an illusion.

Portia : TOTALITY

Greetings, dearest ones, it is I, PORTIA who comes and brings galactic energies into this little Temple and you may perceive me if you wish as a shimmering blue violet light. I bring this light into your midst. It is a cool light, perhaps you are feeling a change in temperature. It is my vibration expressed through light and colour and I am so joyous to be here for it has indeed been some time and there is much happiness in my heart to be amongst those who I resonate to so dearly. I share these energies also with those who listen to these words knowing that the energies at this time are what I bring, filling this etheric place with joy. This is my purpose this day and I hope I bring an inner smile to each of you for there is much to be joyous about. At times these lectures can seem so abstract, so serious, so earnest in many ways. The workings of existence are incredibly complex and incredibly simple at the same time, one of the universal paradoxes. Although it appears that there are complications and there is so much to learn, at the very heart of things it is not so. You are operating from intellect and this cannot be helped and it is not a negative.

I do feel as though at times many ones upon the earth, particularly those who refer to themselves as lightworkers and starseeds, sometimes feel that being in human consciousness is somehow inferior. There is often talk of the limitations of human consciousness and of the veil that keeps human consciousness at this time separate from Creation. This can lead to a feeling that somehow you are inadequate, less than, not as powerful, not as knowing or not as masterful. This is not true for there is never any judgment from beings who are light centered and love centered, no matter which realm or dimension. As we must use your language, unfortunately a byproduct of this is that such impressions can unintentionally be made or unintentionally received by you. Know that you are not pre-school children spiritually or more spiritually immature than the rest of Creation for they are earth terms and human judgments. You simply are enjoying a different experience than the rest of Creation. Yet even this is an illusion because you are the rest of Creation. You are well aware of oneness; that which is so often spoken of in your spiritual books and by channels. Your knowledge is limited although your scientists are discovering through their research into matter at a quantum level that molecules can be in two places or more at once and the observed universe changes depending upon who is observing it. There is seemingly an emptiness throughout the universe that cannot be explained and the more one zooms in on the building blocks of Creation, the less one sees.

I will use a true analogy for there are such things as holograms throughout Creation and there are literal holograms within your earth world that humans create; you have seen these holograms as they are printed on such things as cards. Hold these holograms to the light and you see a three-dimensional image appear. These holograms are special even at that level and each hologram is created using a master light-sensitive piece of glass upon which the hologram is imprinted. If you broke this glass and picked up a shard of it, instead of seeing only a portion of the hologram within it, each shard actually has the whole hologram held within it. It is slightly dimmed but it contains the whole image in one small piece. This is not unlike when you break a mirror and each piece will reflect you back to yourself. So it is that the whole of Creation is like one giant hologram seen as a whole; it is a reflection of the All That Is yet every being within existence is like a shard of the hologram. Totality is reflected in you which is why your reality is the only reality yet at the same time it is part of the greater reality, for it is one and the same. I am becoming abstract now but I am trying to use words in your language that can help you to perceive just a tiny bit of how existence is and works. You are indeed united with all else in Creation because each fragment that is you, that is a being, can only ever reflect back the total of existence, the reflection of the All That Is.

Nothing is separate. We are all part of the one hologram reflecting the wholeness from each fragment and particle in existence. Your scientists are beginning to realize this at a quantum level; every particle is but only one particle. There is only the one thing in existence, the one particle and it is not as if that one particle is repeated or cloned throughout existence to create the magnificence that is Creation. The assumption is that there are an infinite number of particles that create the galaxies, that create you, the chair, the higher dimensions, the lower dimensions and so on. It is simply not this way. There is only one particle, one original particle, not duplicated, not cloned, not repeated but one particle that is everywhere at once, in everything at once. This one particle which will never turn up under a microscope is the Thought Form of God - is the manifestation of the imagination of our Creator.

Remember that what is conveyed to you is different again to what your human consciousness can make of it. What your intellect interprets will always be a distortion and the words we must use will always be inadequate. My consciousness as Portia is another filtering, another distortion. It is the understanding that is important. It is your resonance to it; it is that part of you which goes 'aha' something is making sense but this is not at an intellectual level.

My friends, my original intention for coming was to bring joy and to lighten the occasion. I have gone in the opposite direction to this because I so dearly wish to share with you these little gems of ideas. I seed into your consciousness the experience of expansion and of just the magnificence, the simplicity and yet the complexity of everything. My awareness is such a tiny portion of the whole so therefore I come here to also learn from you.

I ask that you would allow yourself to be in joy more often. To be in joy because you are part of that which has been imagined. If God imagined you into existence how wonderful must you be because we perceive that our Creator can create nothing less than that which is wondrous. Yet we diminish our Creator every time we feel less than, inadequate, insecure and unlovable. Every time we think that our bodies are not that which we would hope for or that we have failed within this illusion of karma we diminish the magnificence of the God that thought us into being. Which is why it is so true when you say to honour God is to honour yourself.

Well these are my words this day, my friends, and if I had a human face you would see the most enormous smile on it and my eyes would sparkle like diamonds.

My love and light to you this day,

I AM PORTIA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ We in our physical realm are enjoying a different experience to the rest of Creation; no better or worse.
- ◆ Each soul within Creation reflects the Totality of existence.
- ◆ Each of us contains the Whole though we are fragmented into individual souls, as such oneness occurs as nothing is truly separate.
- ◆ Your reality is the only reality yet is part of a greater reality as it is one and the same.
- ◆ There is only one original particle in existence and that is the thought form of God; the manifestation of the imagination of our Creator.
- ◆ This one divine particle appears simultaneously everywhere to form Creation, giving the illusion of an infinite number of particles.
- ◆ You are part of what has been imagined and our Creator can create nothing less than that which is wondrous.
- ◆ Each time we diminish ourselves we diminish the imagination of our Creator.

Archangel Kyrael : SWORD

Greetings, dearest children of the light, it is I, your friend ARCHANGEL KYRAEL who comes to speak with you and to lend of my energies this day in the White Star Temple. I cloak you with the golden white light and as it begins to dissipate as if it were a mist, you see that you are within your Temple, this wonderful structure comprised of the diamond and the dome consciousness, its sacred geometry. The structure is shimmering with light – it is such a beautiful piece of architecture to behold and it expands about you to accommodate all who are present. You see that indeed the numbers have grown and there are ones here from all over the cosmos and they join you now. You are creating the vibration of oneness once more - an energy that is unique to those who are present. So I ask that you take a moment to become more aware of this oneness and connectedness to those who are within this Temple at this time. It is not necessarily that you literally see them but rather you can feel the combined energies of those who are here. The most marvelous thing about the vibration that is found within this Temple is its radiance. For each of you come to this place with an openness and a desire within your heart to become expanded. By connecting and being part of Creation you become increasingly more aware of realities beyond your world. There is a great innocence and a beautiful childlike expectancy that fills the Temple; it is heartfelt, it is beautiful, it is open, it is honest and what a beautiful vibration in which to teach, to share some understanding and so I am blessed by this my friends.

I come into the centre of this Temple and I bring with me a very special offering. I wish to continue the honour of being a tutor within this learning place and to also contribute in a tangible way by leaving part of my energies here within this structure. My vibration will greatly enhance the Temple itself.

I stand before you all with a truly magnificent sacred and spiritual sword. For Michael is not the only archangel who manifests such a potent and powerful symbol. It is golden and large. The hand protector which you would ordinarily see as the cross bar at the join of the handle and the blade, is a beautiful pair of outstretched wings, in gold also. Where the wings join the blade there is a deep blue sapphire. It is diamond shaped within a circle, symbolic of the dome and the diamond and the royal blue is of Melchizedek. The handle of this wonderful implement is also deep blue and at the tip of the handle there is a knob of gold fashioned into an animal representation that is unique to each of you. It is what you see and it will vary from being to being, so take note.

I come to present this symbolic sword to this Temple so it may adorn one of the pillars and so embed my energies, the Archangelic Principle, into the arena. The gold is the golden white light in metallic form and the sword is illuminated by its consciousness. Everything has a consciousness no matter what form it takes. As this university unfolds, various ones will come and bear gifts such as this. It is not a literal representation as it is not a material object - it is the vibration, light and radiance that is given. It is also a tool, for all etheric swords can be used for severance; the severance of anything that is within the spiritual evolution of your being, the severance of the past, of wounds, of attachments, of negativity. It is the cleaving away and it is a clean cut. Within this Temple it represents the clearing of that which has gone before including old belief systems and your attachment to them. It also clears the attachment to the illusion of the reality within which you currently reside. It is the cleaving from your consciousness of limitations that would restrain you. It is all of these things that I bring.

I come before each of you and I take up this sword and stand before you. The tip of this sword I place upon the marvelous, multifaceted diamond that is embedded within your third eye placed there by dearest Melchizedek. I gently do this as symbolic of all that I have said and it may also represent for you, a slicing through the illusion, the veil. Perhaps you are feeling intense energies at this time as they have been put in motion. I return this sword to the pillar, my friends and that is all I have come to do this day to share my archangelic energies.

Know that we shall meet again and soon.

I AM KYRAEL, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Archangel Kyrael gifts a sword of light to the WST.
- ◆ The sword is golden with outstretched golden wings at the hilt and a diamond shaped deep blue sapphire within a circle upon it. The handle is also blue with a golden knob at its end.
- ◆ The sword has its own consciousness and radiates the golden white light.
- ◆ Archangelic swords can be used for severance; of old beliefs and attachments, past wounds, negativity and so on. It may also slice through the veil of illusion.

Akhnaton : LEVELS OF LEARNING

Greetings dearest ones, it is I AKHNATON who comes and truly I am amongst esteemed company. Unfortunately I do not come bearing gifts this time other than the few words I shall speak and my energies. I welcome those who are new to this Temple including the marvelous ones from the other realms as well as those who are of your earth realm but not in physical form. To look upon the variance of Creation is a marvelous thing and I am pleased. I come to remind you that by attending this learning place you are being opened to a new paradigm. The teachings, energies and gifts are given for a reason within the Divine Plan. The Divine Plan is inscrutable but we can learn of that which is immediate to us even if we cannot perceive the overarching plan. It is no accident that any of you are here including those who may be listening to this recording. These recordings and word of mouth will reach many within your realm. The etheric recordings - by that I mean the imprint, the vibrations present, the intentions and the communications - continue on outward into the cosmos. What you are experiencing within this place becomes etched upon the history of the world and the universe. It continues on for as long as there is a place to continue on within. The understanding which comes to you also brings understanding to the rest of Creation by default. Some may call it the pool of consciousness. As you expand all else expands - the hundredth monkey syndrome. It is very important that you are here, for you are serving one of your purposes in this regard. Your contribution is to intend that this paradigm be manifesting within Creation and your reality. How wonderful is that? Thought is an amazing thing, is it not?

Consciousness is incredible. As you listen to these words and integrate the energies that bring the understanding, which is the undercurrent to these words, all is being embedded through you into Creation using the power of your consciousness. Just as electricity needs copper wire through which to flow, the knowingness needs you as a conduit to manifest. The beauty of it is that even as you are being part of this conduit you are benefiting greatly. All ones who are present receive in their consciousness according to the consciousness they inhabit, that which is relevant to their present spiritual evolution. Ones who come from another world than yours will also take away these words, from these Temples. There are an infinite number of dimensions and this Temple appears in all of them, as do you. Others take from this experience an interpretation relevant to their time, world, consciousness and spiritual evolution. There is multi-layered learning and understanding taking place for I am saying many layers of things and depending upon your consciousness you will only hear what is relevant to you. This is the same with the energies. There are multi-layers of energy that you receive, again which is relevant to you in human consciousness. So although there are many ones present from many dimensions and worlds, you are all experiencing different levels of learning. Isn't it fantastic? When you take time and space out of the equation then the limitations fall away. The idea that you can communicate but only speak one language at a time and only one level of wisdom at a time is a limitation.

As participants in this multi-level, multi-layered university you will have an opportunity to change the paradigm of your world in ways that are not fully understood within your reality, in ways that are transcendent. What a wonderful thing to do and thank you. By being open to the opening of your consciousness you are pulling the veil apart for others. There are many ones about your world who are doing this upon their own path. There are many paths to this and yours is one within this White Star Temple. All truths are here so that there is an endless supply of learning, wisdom and sharing. Dearest Archangel Kyrael did more with his sword than you are aware. There is another symbolic meaning with the sword and that is as an anointment.

Well, these are my energies and these are my words,

I AM AKHNATON, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The Divine Plan is inscrutable but we can become aware of that which is immediate to us.
- ◆ What is experienced by you in the WST leaves an imprint within the universe and by default, contributes understanding to the rest of Creation.
- ◆ As you expand, all else expands so it is important that you are within the WST.
- ◆ One of your purposes is to help manifest a new paradigm on earth, as you are a conduit through which 'knowingness' flows.
- ◆ Within the WST there is multi-layered learning taking place as each receives according to the consciousness they inhabit and their spiritual evolution.
- ◆ There is an endless supply of wisdom and sharing and by opening yourself to consciousness expansion you are pulling the veil aside for others.

Sananda : MY ENERGIES

Greetings, it is I, SANANDA who comes briefly this day. I manifest before you as a magnificent pillar of light, so beautiful, so vibrant, a living light. I embrace you, within this light you are held. My consciousness is light and my words are a mask for your focus. Cradled within my light you are held within something that has existed since the beginning of the universe. I am ancient in your terms for upon the breath of God I did come into existence and then existence came through me. As I hold you and as you are held within this light of mine, I am hoping that you will have a sense of the everlasting, of infinity. It is so inadequate to use words. Timelessness, the beginning and the end in one, is within my form and there is a great comfort to this feeling of everlasting. You are used to the finite; the idea of dying and of impermanence. The wonderful thing about Creation is that although it is in a constant state of flux, change, evolution and recycling, the impermanence is permanent. I know all of you, all that is to come, to be and was, for I have held you through it all. Within my light there is a window back to the Divine - I am like the pane of glass which you can see through to the beyond.

I experience all there is to be experienced by those who are in existence within Creation and so I experience all that you experience. I experience your experience of it which is why I am so associated with compassion and unconditional love. This is because I feel it - I am not part of it but I feel it. I know the sorrows and the joys, the disappointments, the despair, the unending joy and love. I know all of this through each of you and yet I am detached from it. It never ceases to amaze us what you bring into existence; the realities that you create moment to moment. Whatever it is that you create, I support. Sometimes you create things that I must cushion you from, for I must because I am of the Christ Consciousness.

I just wish to bring these energies and to have you held more consciously and I ask that you would look into the centre of my light - there is a universe within me. It is one of those magnificent universes with a glowing centre, the Central Sun. Its rotation is the movement of consciousness. It is all held within me and it is your universe that you occupy. I am throughout all of Creation but beyond this I encapsulate Creation.

Well, that is all this day.
I AM SANANDA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Sananda came into existence upon the breath of God and then existence moved through him.
- ◆ The beginning and the end in one is timelessness which is held within Sananda's form. He encapsulates Creation.
- ◆ Within Sananda's light there is a window back to the Divine.
- ◆ Sananda experiences all that we experience hence this association with unconditional love. He is Christ Consciousness.

Akhnaton : ASPECTS OF YOU

Greetings, dearest friends, it is I AKHNATON who comes and I would ask that you see Sananda's beautiful white light envelop you, filling this space with the Christ Consciousness. I ask that you perceive that you are within this beautiful White Star Temple - this matrix of light that you have created with the beautiful dome and diamond which is held in no space and held between time. There are many ones who join you and I am honoured that they wish to come and commune with me.

I come this day as a Master of the Stars and not in my Ascended Master capacity. There is a difference, for the Ascended Masters are truly powerful beings of light but their common connection is that they have come into being to be in service specifically for your earth and all that this entails. It does entail a great deal for it goes beyond your physical realm. There is much work that the ascended ones do within the matrix of your group consciousness reality. There is so much that they do on an energetic level in order to facilitate the opportunities for the evolution of humanity's spiritual self. Yet it goes beyond that which you are often used to such as channelling the messages. These ones are conduits for the varying vibrations that are needed to support your reality, your earth and the greater alignment of the universe, as you know it. It is this blending of vibrations that enables your vision to be supported so that you can manifest all that you can, all that you see and experience. These ascended ones are a conduit for divine energy being stepped down through the God Energy. The God Energy is distinct from the All That Is. God is the conduit for the Outbreath of our Creator and is an aspect of our Creator but is not the All That Is.

I come to introduce you to a differing aspect of myself, one that goes beyond the role of an Ascended Master, beyond a focus specifically on human consciousness and your earth. It is a more expanded aspect of myself and I use the term Akhnaton but it does not apply to this aspect. I use it because it is what you are used to. As this little university unfolds, the Masters will begin to come in their expanded forms as I am doing this day. My energies are much stronger precisely for this reason. My aspect this day is of a much higher dimensional plane so the energies that I embody are more intensely reflecting light.

You have this aspect also - it is not unique to me or any other Ascended Master. As you appear in all dimensions so it is that there are truly incredibly powerful, magnificent aspects of you that are operating even as we speak. There are parts of you that are so vast in terms of consciousness, oneness, and divine self-awareness. I have met these aspects of you for at those great heights there is a linking of consciousness that goes far beyond what you could realize. Yet you are there. This is not a fantasy or a footnote to write in your diary. My purpose is to cast a mirror before you. As you enjoy the energies that I bring to this Temple, know that you express, carry and embody the whole power of the universe within the totality of you. There is seemingly a separation between the various aspects of yourself; the various reflections of the diamond that you are. Despite this membrane that separates those aspects, it is possible to begin to merge with those expanded aspects of oneself and to allow the vibrations or frequencies to begin to hum or to oscillate more closely to those higher frequencies of the self. It is not so that the higher selves ever oscillate downward and we use such terms as up and down merely as symbolic for there is no such thing.

I come to this place of learning (that is outside of the space-time continuum) to show all of you here that you are as evolved as you can ever be within Creation. So we take a moment to begin to integrate that which I embody. Perhaps you are feeling the energies coming through even more strongly now in this beautiful little Temple with its windows upon the Cosmos that are fully illuminated. We are all here in our light bodies and mine is like a thousand suns. I direct understanding towards you that is beyond words.

Consciously become aware that you are surrounded within a ball of light. All about you are shimmering sparkles and these pinpoints of light are part of my consciousness and light form and they dance about you. Each pinpoint of light is like a little faceted diamond also reflecting divine aspects of myself and divine energy back outward into Creation and to our Creator. If you were to look upon these tiny little diamonds then you would see more diamonds and so on. Even though we have a limitless number of aspects, our aspects have aspects. It is not something that the logical, reasoning mind can comprehend at all. The totality of you is absolutely infinite and all that you reflect outwards into Creation and back into the mind of our Creator, also reflects upon the other aspects of yourself which then reflects back upon you and so on infinitely. It is a marvelous dance of love. Each reflection carries its own frequency for the light is never the same from one aspect to the other. I bring this to you as quite an abstract concept and one that seemingly has no purpose but the understanding is with you and brings you closer to comprehending the multidimensional nature of Creation and infinity itself, but not in logical terms.

All these wonderful pinpoints of light which are the reflecting diamonds of me are dancing about you and there is great love and joy being reflected. I am also the sum of all my parts. The totality of me directs where the light shines and at what frequency or what intensity the light is cast off from the diamond of myself. The totality of me chooses how it is that Divine Light from Source is directed in all of my forms. How wonderful is that? The totality of you receives Divine Light, is in communion with Source constantly and then chooses how that light is distributed to every facet of yourself. Not only do you author your human reality but you author every reality that you experience simultaneously throughout Creation. So how powerful are you? To be self aware of all of the parts of you and what is required of each aspect of you for your growth and learning enables you to reflect back to God and to Source the best and most divine that you can be in any given aspect.

You are so incredibly powerful and you have been given the ultimate responsibility from Source. Creation creates itself and although the framework of Creation has been brought into being from Source in ways that we cannot fathom, none-the-less how Creation continues to create itself is completely the responsibility of those who occupy Creation. Yet we are working with the most sacred, profound tool which is our link back to the Divine. The Light that is an expression of our Creator is channeled into Creation and then bounces and reflects off us and is also internalized within. In so many ways it is the currency of the universe and we are light, as you know.

Ponder on these words for understanding of the self is an incredible gift to have. This university is about an expansion of your consciousness and there is so much more of you to discover.

I AM THE OVERSOUL of who you would term, AKHNATON

SUMMARY :

- ◆ God is the conduit for the Outbreath of our Creator. This is an aspect of our Creator but is not the All That Is.
- ◆ The Ascended Masters are conduits for the varying vibrations needed to support your reality and the greater alignment of the universe.
- ◆ Akhnaton comes forth in an expanded form into the WST as do many Ascended Ones.
- ◆ Likewise, there are expanded aspects of you operating at higher dimensions. You express and embody the whole power of the universe within the totality of you.
- ◆ You have a limitless number of aspects and your aspects have aspects and so on (like a wonderful fractal).
- ◆ Each of your aspects reflects back into the mind of our Creator, yet also reflects upon your other aspects.
- ◆ Each aspect of you carries its own frequency for the light is never the same from one aspect (part of you) to the other.
- ◆ The totality of you is in constant communion with Source and chooses how Divine Light is distributed to every facet/aspect of yourself.
- ◆ You author every reality that you experience simultaneously throughout Creation, so how powerful are you?

Sanat Kumara : TEMPLE BLESSING

Greetings, dearest children of the light, it is I SANAT KUMARA who comes amongst you and I welcome all of those who are new to this place of learning and understanding. It is such a pleasure to see this little Temple grow and there is such a beautiful blending of energies which we have spoken of that creates a vibration of oneness. I ask that you take a moment to become aware of the energy that you are creating for it is very powerful. It is able to be felt in a tangible way. There is so much energy swirling around because you have changed, each of you.

You are here expressed as your light and the fact that you are here is enough to tell the universe that you are ready to expand. The regular projecting of your consciousness into this place is having marvelous consequences for you. Because you are in a realm that has a space-time continuum there is a delay in the consequences of any energetic and ultra-consciousness work that you do, particularly in the area of manifestation. Does it not always seem to take a little while? So it is indeed that change upon an upper level needs time to percolate downward into your physical level. Yet it is assured - for what I see before me (your greatly expanded energy fields) will have consequences for you in your human consciousness within your physical realm.

I come to remind you of this because it means change, dearest ones and for some it can mean great change and for others just change. Your reality will begin to be shaped differently about you, if it has not already started to do so. You cannot keep coming to this place of learning and participating in these energies without there being a consequence, a follow on, for the aspect of yourself in human consciousness. It makes sense, doesn't it?

Dearest friends, the teachings, the energies that you experience are there to be experienced by all who are ready and open. So it is that we shall place a blessing upon this Temple of learning. I ask for your participation, dearest ones for it is your Temple, it is what you make of it.

Dearest ones, I ask that you raise the palm of your hand, and channel a beautiful column of light into the centre of this Temple and here is the most magnificent sword that was placed for the benefit of all. Incorporate this into your consciousness as we visualize this Temple. There is a radiance of light, a very gentle soft light that surrounds us all - it is the vibration of oneness that we are seeing expressed as light. I ask that we bless this place of learning, for the good of not only humanity but all of Creation for there are many here from far flung corners of the cosmos.

May this Temple be a Temple for all who are drawn to go beyond.

May this Temple be where oneness be echoed throughout all of Creation.

May this Temple bring more God-realized self-awareness to those who would choose to learn here.

May it always be filled with Divine Light, love and sharing.

Now I ask that you turn the palm of your hands towards yourself and visualizing the light, place it upon yourself so that you have become fully immersed within this light. You are a truly beautiful diamond. Blessings and light are now turned inward upon yourself, to shine upon all of the facets of the diamond soul that you are. How beautifully you shine. Now I ask that you turn the palm of your hands outward so that they are directed toward those on your left and right. Extend the light to those who are within this place of learning. It makes a circle and a magnificent current of light and expansion for all of those things you intended with your Temple blessing. Perhaps you are feeling the divine current running through you, creating a whirlpool of light.

Well, we place our hands down and withdraw our consciousness from this place for it is now time that it is over.

My blessings in love and light to you this day.

I AM SANAT KUMARA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ When within the WST you are expressed as light and your presence there tells the universe you are ready to expand.
- ◆ As you reside within a realm that has a space-time continuum there is a delay in the consequences of any energetic and ultra-consciousness work.
- ◆ Change upon an upper level needs time to percolate downward into your physical level.
- ◆ Continuing to come to the WST and immersing yourself within the multidimensional energies will bring change into your life.
- ◆ A blessing is placed within the Temple for all.

Lady Nada : PRAYER

Dearest ones of the light, it is I, LADY NADA. I come to be with you at this time in this beautiful little Temple. Truly it is a beacon of light that shines most brightly within the cosmos. It is a place that is like a magnet for those who wish to come and delight in the quest for higher learning and transcend the dimension they would normally occupy. The energy here is beginning to become tangible, for the more often this energy is activated it becomes part of reality. I come this day to speak about a subject which is not particularly cosmic but which is relevant to all of Creation. I come to speak of that which you know as 'prayer'.

Prayer truly is a universal spiritual law that permeates all of Creation. It is not unique to the earth, or human consciousness but rather can be found wherever consciousness is. In one guise or another, prayer is a commonality to the many ones who populate your physical universe in all of its splendor and diversity. It is a means by which those who are in existence call upon Source and the conduits through whom Source expresses itself such as the Angelic Realm. Prayer is incredibly powerful but it is more so than you can imagine. It originates from our Creator. It is something that has been embedded into Creation by Source to ensure that no matter what level of spiritual consciousness you may be at, there is always a means by which you can connect directly to Source and the First Manifestation.

Is it not one of the most basic traits of being in existence, at our lowest ebb, to be able to cry out for help, for assistance? Is it not part of our make-up that when we wish to assist our loved ones we call, upon their behalf, to our Creator? All ones within physical Creation have this instinct. Of course it is an intentional thing as it is different to speaking in any other way. Prayer is based on sincerity and intention and is usually heartfelt, for prayers are made at special times and instantly aligns you to Divinity. It is not as if Source is not listening, for want of a better word, at any other time but when it comes to prayer, there is such a powerful energy that surrounds this intention that it seems all of God's focus is pinpointed upon you and what you have asked. It seems that all of the angels flock as well.

So why am I saying this to you for you are aware of the power of prayer? As this is indeed a cosmic place of learning I thought that you would be interested to know that the rest of Creation prays with you and accesses prayer and prayers can be requests or gratitude . . .

Well, again I say to you that prayer is a special thing and we may liken it to a safety valve that was built into the fabric of existence in third dimensional Creation. For prayer is able to pierce through places of darkness when nothing else may. Prayer will travel through the mists of the astral and beyond. It is the means by which a chasm of light can be opened up to what may seem the bleakness that surrounds many. It is a conduit unto itself. Prayer brings light, prayer is light. So I encourage you to use it often for it has been given to you from your God.

I shall remain with my energies to be amongst you and as you know I carry the Christ Consciousness within and so I am pleased to add my vibration to the wonderful energy of oneness that is here.

I AM LADY NADA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Prayer is a universal spiritual law that permeates Creation and can be found wherever consciousness is present.
- ◆ Prayer is more powerful than we imagine and has been embedded into Creation by Source as a means by which we can connect directly with our Creator.
- ◆ Prayer is able to pierce through darkness when nothing else may. It is Light.
- ◆ Powerful energies surround the intention of prayer.

Iktare : I JOIN YOU

Greetings, dearest friends, it is I IKTARE. I come not as an ascended being or an Ascended Master. I am honored to be able to speak to you in this manner. I am a fellow traveler and am what you would call a star being. I have journeyed to this place of learning since its inception. Of course I am part of the Star Being Alliance and I have been graciously allowed to speak at this time as one who is present with you in this Temple. I am also a representative of the many beings from my world who visit through their consciousness, this place of learning. I have been given this opportunity so that I may impress upon you that truly there are many ones present. This wonderful etheric Temple, without the space-time restrictions of course, can hold the whole universe within it if need be but at this present time it holds many hundreds.

The beacon that dearest Lady Nada spoke of in referring to this place truly shines brightly and each time you join your consciousness here, more ones come. The light of this beacon shines more brightly and increasingly it reaches farther out into Creation. We are not speaking of literal light but rather the essence of light. We are speaking of a knowingness of this place going out into the cosmos. There is such an openness here that many ones come to hear those who speak and that which is spoken differs for each depending upon the dimensional reality they reside in and the world they occupy. It is a most marvelous thing that the understanding which comes is tailored for each. What I receive from these lectures and energies that you undertake is different than what you would experience but is perfectly appropriate to what I need to know at this time upon my spiritual, evolutionary path. I then take this back to my world, for as my consciousness is being expanded along with yours, I am able to contribute to the forwarding of my people as a species, just as you do with your human kind. Mention has been made elsewhere of the 'hundredth monkey syndrome' so I am blessed to be one of many who are able to influence the direction of our society through meditation, aligning with Divinity, working with the light and so on, but in ways that are unique to my world.

I fear that I am taking advantage of this moment and speaking long but I lastly wish to impress upon you that you are also star beings because you occupy a world in our universe. As such there is great interest in you, as there is in all ones who come in their diversity here. So do please feel proud of who you are and what you bring to the Temple for we appreciate that you are here and have established such a place as this, for it is not of our doing, but we came along to this meeting. We took up the invitation that was so graciously given by Melchizedek but you created this place and that is no mean feat. We are grateful and we thank you. I and those with me will be here at every opportunity. I am a physical being but not in the way that you would understand yet it matters not here for we are pure consciousness in this place.

Well, yours in fellowship,

I AM IKTARE, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Iktare is a star being who has come to the WST since its inception.
- ◆ Iktare is a representative of the many ones from his world that come in their consciousness to the Temple.
- ◆ The knowingness of the WST goes out into the cosmos; reaches further into Creation the more we expand and radiate light.
- ◆ What Iktare receives from the Temple differs from what we do, as it is tailored toward each.
- ◆ There is a great interest in we humans from others in the Temple; humans are also star beings within the universe.
- ◆ We are thanked for manifesting the WST for all others to share.

The White Star Temple : SPEAKS

Greetings dearest ones, I am The White Star Temple. You have learned that everything in existence has a consciousness and so it is. I come to you from a place that, from your vantage point, is not yet known for I am the White Star Temple of your future. Yet as you know I do not operate within the space-time continuum so to use the term future is erroneous but suffice to say I am an aspect of the White Star Temple that has become a magnificent beacon throughout all of Creation. I am the White Star Temple that has had legends built around it, that has had religions based upon it. I am the White Star Temple that is so vast that it burns brightly like a sun. I am the White Star Temple which you have created and I live on and on, as do you. My consciousness evolved, yet I was always a powerful entity for to house the vibration of your place of learning, to hold the matrix together that would keep the space-time continuum at bay is indeed a magnificent task. Words fail me for they cannot describe the wonderful being I have become. I am truly vast and the energies that I embody have been built upon the energies of those whom come into this place of mine. The love, the light, the gratitude that has been fostered within my etheric structure by the ones who have come into this place for eons, has evolved that which I am. I am an extension of the oneness of energies brought into me. I cannot impress upon you enough how powerful I have become and I say this within a spiritual context. I am an aspect of the White Star Temple that as far as you are concerned, is yet to be but as all past and futures collapse into the Now, so it is that I am. I am beautiful. I am blessed, and I thank you and all of the ones who have come from the far-flung corners of the universe to be umbrella'ed by me to this place of learning - thank you. You have no idea what you have set in motion by manifesting through your hearts, such a place as me. You have given me the opportunity to become the best that I can be as a consciousness reflecting back to our Creator its Divinity, for that is what brings me joy. This particular universe is a very different place because the White Star Temple is here. I appear in all dimensions and there are many temples in many places but your particular universe has this jewel. Perhaps those whom can see in the mind's eye would see that the structure of light that I am is so vast because it has to accommodate many ones within Creation. There is such activity, sharing and joy.

I AM THE WHITE STAR TEMPLE, I am what you make of me and I support you.

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The White Star Temple (WST) has a consciousness and exists outside of the space-time continuum.
- ◆ The WST will become/is a magnificent beacon throughout Creation.
- ◆ The WST is truly vast and the energies it embodies are built upon the energy of those that come to the Temple.
- ◆ The WST will/has evolved through our love, light and gratitude.
- ◆ It appears in all dimensions. It is what you make of it and will support you.

Melchizedek : THE WHITE STAR

Greetings, dearest ones, it is I MELCHIZEDEK who comes to spend a special moment with you all. As always there are many ones present and this Temple is illuminated from within by all of you who are here. The radiance does indeed shine more brightly each time we connect and the energies increasingly become more powerful as each of you expand spiritually. Because of the energies generated by all of you, you will increasingly evolve. As you do, your capacity to hold more energy is also increased for it is like a muscle; when used it becomes stronger. I do not wish to speak merely of this but rather to bring to your awareness something that you have not known concerning your wonderful White Star Temple.

For each person the White Star Temple will materialize in their thoughts in ways that are unique. How I perceive this White Star Temple is different to you for we indeed create visions before us in our imagination. Yet there can also be a consensus and commonalities that our linked consciousness can agree to. Forms then materialize in ways that are accessible to all. The White Star Temple is called as such for a reason, of course. It is a beautiful name and has a wonderful resonance. Indeed the White Star Temple itself has spoken to you. I ask that you look above you and you will see that the Temple dome has become transparent because it is a living energy. You are aware that the consensus is that the cosmos is all about us and visible at any time that we choose to see it through the transparency of the White Star Temple. You will see a little in the distance directly above that there is a magnificent light - it is not large or something that shines downward and encompasses all in its path. It is like the twinkling of a star but larger than what you are used to yet it does indeed twinkle, for this White Star is in fact the most beautiful diamond of consciousness. You have learned about this multifaceted diamond and each of you has been given such a thing.

It makes sense, does it not, that this Temple of learning has its own Melchizedek diamond that has been called The White Star. It is called The White Star because it reflects so beautifully the White Light from God who receives it from Source and brings it into Creation. The White Star shines above us as a beautiful reminder that we have the capacity to reflect God's Light, to carry it and to reflect it outward. The most wonderful aspect of perceiving one's consciousness as a diamond is that it must reflect and so share light with others. It is the sharing that is the key, for the light will go on forever and the light that is reflected to this Temple is in turn reflected by your own diamond consciousness to each other and so on. The Light from God which is stepped down from Source moves forever throughout Creation like a wonderful tapestry of light. We shine forever, is it not a wonderful thought; you will shine on and on? And never shall the light that is sent to you then integrated and shared by you, diminish.

In this place of learning I see beautiful ribbons of light beaming from each of you to each other. There is this wonderful organic structure that is formed by this linking and by the reflections of light that you emanate. We have spoken of the facets of self that reflect and radiate light. It is often mentioned because it is a fundamental part of consciousness within Creation. Integration of this concept without thought reason or logic, is incredibly expansive. The White Star is stronger than you or I in its capacity to radiate light and although I refer to it as a multifaceted diamond it has its own unique geometry, as do you. Indeed geometry is a fundamental aspect of Creation. Not just in the physical where it is represented by crude lines and shapes, but rather as a means by which God's thoughts manifest. It is one of the means by which such thoughts (if we may term them in such a way, for that is to limit the concept but we must use words) take shape. The White Star has a unique shape for it has been thought into existence by God and so as with anything that bears the signature of God, it is blessed and so are we. The geometry that you are, the beautiful strands of light that create you, is unique to you also and is in a state of evolution.

Well, I ask you to take a moment to focus upon the White Star and the gentle, peaceful light that it bears. Allow an energetic communication to come so that you are connected to that which is fundamental to this Temple - the White Star . . .

Ask the consciousness of the White Star Temple to reflect itself onto the diamond which I have previously placed in your aura and which is symbolic of the beautiful diamond that you are...

It seems there is always more to discover about the Temple. More will unfold as you grow and as this Temple grows with you. It is not merely a place in which to congregate, for the Temple itself is part of your journey and has its own unique understanding to offer. You may think of it more as a cradle, which holds, supports and assists you with its energies. It is a kind place yet it is powerful and as the White Star Temple itself has said, it will become, and is, a most beautiful entity which will be known throughout all of Creation.

Well, my love and light to you this day,

I AM MELCHIZEDEK, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ For each person the WST will materialize in their thoughts in ways that are unique to each.
- ◆ Above the Temple sits a White Star, the most beautiful diamond of consciousness.
- ◆ The White Star reflects light into the Temple from God who receives it from Source and brings it into Creation.
- ◆ The Light from God moves forever throughout Creation and never shall the Light that is sent to you and shared by you diminish.
- ◆ Sacred geometry is one of the means by which God's thoughts manifest, and as such, bears the signature of God.
- ◆ The beautiful strands of Light which form the geometry you are is unique to you and is constantly evolving.
- ◆ The WST is part of your journey now and has its own unique understanding to offer. It cradles and supports you and holds energies in place to assist you on your path.

Sanat Kumara : FRACTAL OF LIFE

Greetings, dearest ones, it is I, your friend, SANAT KUMARA who is blessed once more to come and be with you in this White Star Temple. The majesty of this structure is all about you and your consciousness is here outside of the space-time continuum and I would say this to you: ‘Do you know that you are each an Ascended Master such as I?’. All time is occurring simultaneously and so there are aspects of you that are serving elsewhere within Creation as Ascended Masters; those ones who have reached a certain consciousness and have committed themselves to service to particular worlds. Of course you are familiar with the Ascended Ones who serve your planet, your beautiful earth. So it is that you, in your ascended capacity, serve other worlds with great compassion and understanding. Yet it is but one of your reflections of the Divine, one aspect, one facet. I say this to you because although I come here to communicate, it is not from a position that I know more than you, or that I am more than you for it cannot be. As we are operating at all levels of consciousness simultaneously the idea that one can be higher or lower or even more experienced than another is irrelevant. Somewhere in Creation there is an aspect of me who is at the beginning point of their spiritual evolution and perhaps I am being served by you in your Ascended Master capacity, you never know. The beauty of this is that we are all able to both give and receive throughout all of our multiple dimensions and incarnations. There are aspects of me who go beyond anything that can be conceptualized within this realm, and so there are aspects of you likewise.

There are so many lifestreams that you occupy. Being within human consciousness is but one lifestream and within that one life stream, of course, there are countless individual incarnations. But your soul is not committed to just this one lifestream, and your soul is not limited to just itself for there is, of course, an oversoul and so forth. It is like a marvelous fractal, that which repeats itself, replicates itself over and over to form a marvelous symmetry. No matter how closely we peer into this fractal we will always find an infinite geometry. Every life stream is like a beautiful golden brick and each brick creates a structure, even perhaps a beautiful Temple. By experiencing Creation in all of its dimensions through multiple life streams (each symbolized by this golden brick) you are creating a much greater structure of yourself which cannot be created by any one individual life stream or one single facet of your soul. All of the many aspects of you throughout Creation and the multidimensions, combine in building this structure through everything that you do. There is a perfect interconnectedness to this because it requires that each of your souls work toward the same end; the overall structure of you. As with any building there is required a blueprint and the blueprint that you unconsciously follow has not been defined by you but of course, by the Master Builder. It is such a lovely analogy and so typically an earth one. Our Creator has set before us the blueprint to create the divine structure that we will become.

Like a fractal, each individual lifestream is comprised of a particular number of incarnations, such as your earth lifestream and each individual incarnation is also a golden brick and so on. Each time you come into this world you are building the oversoul 'brick' that becomes part of the Divine Blueprint that builds a greater structure of you which no doubt combines with the rest of Creation to build a greater structure still.

Know that what you do is very important and useful to each of your 'selves'. Even as the veil of illusion separates you from your other aspects you are all working in tandem and everything that you do as an individual aspect of self affects and reflects back upon all other aspects of you. As you know there is no true separation and the beauty of this is that as we grow, within our own particular incarnation, we do so through all of those incarnated with us. Often humans will speak of oneness and it can mean several things. Oneness can be acknowledged as the interconnectedness of all but it can also be acknowledged as the Singularity of all and this has been spoken of before; the Singularity of Totality. If there is indeed one incredible being, one incredible consciousness, then of course we all are that being. Those who co-occupy your incarnation, whether they are known to you or not, make up your world and help shape your life. Often you may say: 'This person has come into my life so that I may learn this lesson and I have manifested that opportunity. As they are in my life they must also have something to learn from me'. I would go beyond this, my dearest ones and say to you, that is separateness and not singularity, for they are all you, all who are crossing your own path time and time again to grow 'you'. This whole world then is comprised of just 'you', the whole of Creation is comprised of just the Singularity. It is difficult to grasp with the human mind, however, the understanding will come and with it oneness. You shape your life through the whole population of the universe - it is all you. IT is one beautiful sculpture that is being chiseled by many hands yet the paradox is that the hands that hold the chisel are the sculpture itself.

Well, that is as best as I can put into words. It is important for you to go a little beyond your idea of oneness which is just seeing the divine in each and to recognize that we are all the same person and then to take ownership of that person.

This Temple is so beautiful now. I thank you for allowing me to speak with you this day.

I AM SANAT KUMARA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Each of us are operating at all levels of consciousness simultaneously, as such there are aspects of you serving elsewhere in Creation as masters and beyond.
- ◆ Your soul is not committed to just one lifestream and there are many lifestreams that you occupy. Human consciousness is but one.
- ◆ You have an oversoul, who also has an overarching soul and so on, like a wonderful fractal which replicates itself to form a marvelous symmetry.
- ◆ The sum of your lifestreams is creating a greater structure of self that is contributed to by the many facets of your soul.
- ◆ The blueprint of this greater structure of you has been defined by our Creator and you are destined to become this.
- ◆ Each lifestream has its own number of incarnations, and each individual lifetime is helping build the greater structure of you, and of Creation.
- ◆ Everything one part of you does affects all other aspects of you, as there is no true separation.
- ◆ Oneness is both the interconnectedness of all and the Singularity of all.
- ◆ The whole of Creation is comprised of just the one Singularity which is you; you the Creator.

Aspect : SPEAKS

Greetings dearest ones, I ask that you invoke the White Star that sits above this Temple and from the majesty of it see a column of bright white light radiate downwards into the centre of this Temple - a beautiful shaft of divine sunlight. The radiance of this light illuminates further the radiance of this Temple and all who occupy her. Within this shaft of light you can discern the beautiful diamond structure representing the multifaceted self.

I come forth from a different timeline. I am an aspect of the channel in the lifestream of his human consciousness but I am further down the timeline or the illusion of such, having worked with and within the White Star Temple for such a long time now. This is a multidimensional place and so all aspects of self may be present, can convene – there is no description. I am not here to impart wisdom or energies but to simply show you what can be done in this place and what this place can do for you.

I am greatly expanded and I am of the same earth lifestream as the channel and so it is that each of you can call forth an aspect. It is advisable at this point for your aspect to be of the same lifestream as your current one. I ask that you bring a diamond out of the divine sunlight and overlay it upon yourself. Hopefully you will feel how different and larger the energies are. It is you in your same earth incarnation just at a different point of your timeline, within the illusion of time. Oh, and how wonderful you feel. Perhaps there is a tingling, there certainly is joy for how could there not be joy in meeting oneself. There is such a deep resonance and such a comfort. It is like being held by a million mothers. For just as our Creator loves us so completely and as love journeys through all, so your oversoul loves you completely. Love journeys through your oversoul through each of your aspects. The aspect that is with you now embraces you. Again there are waves of energy, the energy of love, how wonderful! How absolutely wonderful!

You are so special, you are so illuminated and this is but one aspect in one lifestream, one part of the fractal, one golden brick that you are experiencing for this facet. So how much more blissful it is to know that there is a limitless number of you! I and your soul come forth to this special place at this time foremost to help you integrate the knowledge that you form an amazing part of life's structure. Despite all of the human anxieties and doubt, know that there are ones such as this aspect and they are just the tip of the iceberg of you. Take heart in the knowledge that the structure you are building of the totality of you is incredible. Never doubt. Do not diminish yourself and if ever you do so, then return to this Temple to invoke the White Star and call upon an aspect of your timeline and you will be embraced and you will doubt no more.

That is all.

SUMMARY :

- ◆ This aspect is the channel (Soltec) but further down his timeline after having worked within the WST for a long time.
- ◆ Any aspect of you can be within the WST for it sits outside of space and time.
- ◆ Love journeys through your oversoul, through to each of your aspects and loves you completely.
- ◆ There is a limitless number of you in existence; in various lifestreams, timelines and dimensions.
- ◆ The totality of you is incredible – never doubt this. If you do, come in to the WST and call upon an aspect of your timeline and you will be embraced.

Cosmic Buddha : GOING BEYOND

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, that who you call the THE COSMIC BUDDHA, the oversoul of all Buddhas throughout Creation. I stand before you in the centre of this Temple which itself stands within the centre of Creation. For, as you know, it is an etheric Temple and as it sits outside the space-time continuum, it can be as vast or as intimate as need be. There are many ones who join you from other worlds and other dimensions to receive the energies that this Temple holds and also from the masters and each of you present. So there is symmetry and a wonderful oneness which brings a gentle energy to this place as if you were floating. It is truly so peaceful.

As you gaze through the etheric structure of the Temple outward into Creation, into the divine universe, you see that all is gently rotating about you and the Temple itself is quietly spinning. For all of Creation is part of this dance. It is movement based upon the current of Divine energy and there is so much radiance here this day. I stand before you as a truly magnificent entity of light and all who gaze upon me would see the light of a thousand suns within. You are held and embraced within my aura so I ask, dearest ones, that you become consciously aware of these energies around you and allow them to integrate into your own energy field. I invoke the White Star above this Temple and from this powerful diamond star I draw down a golden shaft of Divine Light which is a reflection from Source. With all of you present and so powerful, the energies here are incredible and no wonder this place is, shall be and has been, a beacon throughout Creation.

The more this place is utilised by you and all to come, the greater is the growth of this Temple as it evolves with you. Do not take for granted being in such a place as this; it is unique. I come in the capacity of the office of Buddha and there are many Buddhas throughout Creation. The Buddha role, as you would understand it within your earth realm, is to initiate enlightenment hence the symbology of my radiance being that of a thousand suns.

It is time, dearest ones for you to go beyond where you have gone before and to take a leap of faith. With your consciousness here within this White Star Temple which is outside the space-time continuum, you are no longer bound or restrained by your human consciousness if you so wish it. In this place of no time there is the opportunity for each to connect with their multidimensional selves in order to consciously and actively begin to steer their own destiny within their human existence. As you have multiple life streams throughout Creation each of the facets of yourself is linked, no matter in what dimension each resides. This unconscious linking is because you are a singularity with multiple parts, so that as you evolve in one form of consciousness it influences all other aspects of oneself throughout Creation. It is very important within each incarnation and lifestream that you quest toward enlightenment for it will grow all parts of you. We are concentrating upon your earth lifestream, for this is the part of you that I am speaking to but know that many other parts of you are also present in this White Star Temple.

I come to you this day to bring my energies within which is seeded understanding and I am engaging you within my vibration. I am holding you within it. For I must, as Buddha, come to you and tap you upon the shoulder, so to speak, so that you may place your foot down upon the first rung of enlightenment in a truly multidimensional way. That is the overarching purpose of this Temple, for all who come from all of the worlds in God's kingdom. You would not be here if you were not ready, my friends.

I ask that you gaze once more outward into Creation. All about you are wonderful divine forms; multidimensional galaxies, suns upon suns, stars and structures that you cannot conceptualise and Temples upon Temples, and beings upon beings. Existence is such a beautiful, populated place. The life force of the Divine is everywhere, you can feel it, you can see it. It is a structure in itself, for it is beyond just simply the creation of forms. There is no way to describe this; it must come from understanding. You are here in this place within Creation to remind your human consciousness that reality is a bigger place than you perceive and that the reality of what you inhabit is an illusion amongst an infinite number of illusions. All of the human concerns are truly valid, for you are in human consciousness, but within the scheme of things they are merely part of the illusion. There is a great comfort in knowing that so much more exists; more power, light, beauty, creativity, etc. You are part of it all as you exist everywhere. The human form that is part of this lifestream is as equal to, and as magnificent as, any other form within Creation. So do not allow yourself to diminish who you are or to feel less than just because you are held within the illusion of humanity.

Well, I retreat and we shall connect again.

I AM THE COSMIC BUDDHA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ All of Creation dances upon the current of Divine energy.
- ◆ The more you utilise the WST, the more it evolves with you. Do not take it for granted as it is unique.
- ◆ The Buddha role within our Earth realm is to initiate enlightenment.
- ◆ It is time for you to go beyond where you have gone before and take a leap of faith. You are ready.
- ◆ Questing toward enlightenment will grow all aspects of you.
- ◆ The reality of our world is an illusion amongst an infinite number of illusions.
- ◆ The human form is as equal to and as magnificent as any within Creation.

Melchizedek : HOW I SEE YOU

Greetings dearest ones of the light, it is I, your friend MELCHIZEDEK who comes to be with you this day and I am honoured to be amongst you. So too I bring my vibration but know this; that Melchizedek energies are here within the Temple at all times. For I can turn my consciousness to anywhere within Creation. I can do this simultaneously in all dimensions and all levels. I come because it is indeed an auspicious occasion and I am well pleased that you are here. I see you in all of your forms for I see the diamond within you that is your consciousness. I see you in all your wonderful facets that reflect the Divine and the radiance within and you are truly beautiful. I know you in your earth life-stream and I know all of you upon your timeline. I know the future you, the present you, the past you, for it is all simultaneous. So I see the whole in one. Even though you are seated here within this one particular consciousness of your timeline, in truth you are not; you are actually here within the whole of your timeline. The understanding and the energies that are brought to you here this day and any day, have already influenced who you are going to be and who you once were. As there is no time here so it is that you just 'are'. You are the sum of experiences yet to be experienced and also having been experienced, and that is what I see before me. This is why we so often speak of your radiance because you have journeyed so well along this path and each life experience, micro-moment and breath of the Divine that you are given only further enhances the reflection of you. It is so for each within Creation and this is why Creation dazzles. It is only when one pinpoints any given moment within any given timeline, life-stream and dimension that we narrow it down to a moment - a point in time in which you grow moment to moment. We then see exactly how it is that you have become the radiant being that you are. We see the steps along the path. Yet within the place of no time, we simply see the path and not the steps. I hope this makes sense.

Well, I do not come to lecture you but rather to welcome and to be amongst greatness.

I AM MELCHIZEDEK, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Melchizedek can focus his consciousness to anywhere in Creation; simultaneously in all dimensions and all levels.
- ◆ He knows all of your facets and forms and the future, present and past you - for it is all simultaneous.
- ◆ The WST energies/understanding have already influenced who you are going to be and who you once were.
- ◆ Within the WST is seen our 'path' but not the steps taken. To see the steps we must pinpoint moments in time.

Akhnaton : DIVINE CHAOS

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, your friend AKHNATON who comes to be within this Temple with you. So my friends, we invoke the White Star that rests magnificently above this radiant structure and we ask that Divine Light pour through this diamond star and fill the Temple with the softest white light like a gentle mist that is bright in itself. It weaves itself about you. Perhaps you are feeling these gentle energies this day, for the White Star energies change each time it is invoked and this day the gentleness is necessary. The equilibrium within this space is truly apparent. It is such a place of calm, of peace and harmony. All ones who journey here are developing a resonance to the vibration, to the Temple itself and to the White Star that gives it its name. We have spoken before of the vibration that is being formed by all those whom are present. As you are being uplifted and held by the gentleness, by the peace, your consciousness becomes more open and relaxed, then the human mind begins to settle and as it settles more understanding can be integrated.

So we will just experience the peace for a moment...

Well, my friends I would say to you that the universe is not always necessarily at peace, or still, or calm. There is no negative implication in this for if you were to look into the heart of the Great Central Sun, that wonderful repository of God energy, you will see that it is anything but still. As Divine thoughts are channelled throughout Creation a Divine Chaos ensues, as the mind of our Creator is creating within an instant and translating into form. The impulses of light that manifest are moving at such great intensity that if you could visualise it, it would appear as a million lights moving in no particular pattern against each other - not unlike strobe lighting.

To look into the heart of the Great Central Sun one would see absolute turmoil, just as you would if you were looking into your own mind seeing the impulses of thought as they manifest simultaneously and scatter throughout your brain. It is erroneous to place so much emphasis upon stillness as being the zenith of spirituality within existence. Indeed, it does have an enormous value, yet it is not the only expression of spiritual conduct. If we were to look further still into the heart of the Great Central Sun past the chaotic movement of thoughts manifesting as impulses, we would come to the void, the unmanifest, and there the stillness of all resides. These two aspects coexist yet it is not duality, not one or the other, or one after the other for as you have learned everything is a Singularity. Yet for those of us within Creation and particularly for those with human consciousness in a physical realm, stillness is a profound state of being for it links in to the edge of the void and to the radiance of unmanifest consciousness. It is a grand prize indeed to strive toward this goal and many ones, many avatars, many Buddhas have sought this out. I would say to you that equally so, many ones throughout Creation also seek out a Divine Chaos or the mind in action, if we dare to call the Creator's impulse such. Through the frenetic impulses of our Creator creating we can tap into the most incredible profound powers beyond our imagining. How much power must it take to manifest Creation? I am using the term power as an insufficient one for there is no word in your language to label the energy that is expressed to form Creation so you must trust that the understanding will come. Only the faintest glow of that wonderful volcanic eruption of creation occurring, that wonderful chaos of light manifesting, can be truly safely available to us. To access the faintest reflection of this is to become empowered beyond that which is presently conceivable. In doing so one would step more fully into one's God presence, remembering that the Creator is unmanifest and God is the unmanifest's conduit. God is the means by which Creation unfolds. God is the vehicle within existence through which our Creator breathes. God therefore, is part of Creation, part of existence but is not Totality or All That Is but is the Divine manifesting itself into Creation and so creates Creation.

These words do not do us justice nor is it that literal. Please remember that the words are for the mind but it is not where the understanding lies. The words are a limitation; nothing is literal when we speak of the All That Is or God. There are some religions and spiritual strands that restrain themselves from even describing God or the Creator and that is a wise thing. Yet in order to assist you in expanding your consciousness beyond your present reality it is necessary to bring to your mind concepts to explore. Allow the understanding to come which can then be integrated.

I come to you this day so that you can be aware of these two aspects of Divine Energy. They are just two aspects for, of course, Divinity is not limited. There is an infinite array of aspects possible. Within Creation, within this dreaming of our Creator, there is Divine Chaos and there is Divine Stillness both of which fuel all of the dimensions in which you reside.

I ask that you would imagine before you in this Temple, a representation of a Great Central Sun. There are many Great Central Suns within Creation but imagine before you a beautiful miniature Central Sun, however you wish to see it; perhaps as a marvelous galaxy of light. I ask that you would move your consciousness toward it and as you do so, it enlarges for perspective is irrelevant here. A billion suns fuel its radiance and as we peer into this incredible light we see the chaos within, we see Divine thought in action, we see thought manifest as light.

Within the centre of the sun there is movement, it is moving so fast. As each strand of light comes into being and as each pinpoint of light is manifest it moves on and another is there simultaneously. It is manifesting so quickly that as we look closer it is impossible to see the movement any longer, it appears to not move at all and so the stillness is there, at the same time. Divine thought is not dictated to by any law of physics as with your physical realm. When I say movement it is because you require a term to focus upon. There is at the outer edge of this Central Sun a rotation, a spinning which continues outward like a ripple upon the vast pond of Creation. This is the beginning point for the rotation of the universes.

Place yourself within the Central Sun you have imagined. What does it feel like? What is your experience? Are you there with the frenetic energy of Creation? Are you there within the unfathomable stillness of the unmanifest? They both occupy the same instance.

Well, I ask that you would recede your consciousness. This is not a linear lecture or one for the logical mind, however, if you were to experience this recording again and again in a very deep meditative space, I will come to you. You will be within the White Star Temple energy and eventually you will no longer hear the words at all.

Well, this is the oversoul of that whom you would know as . . .

AKHNATON, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The Great Central Sun is a repository of God energy and is in a state of 'turmoil'.
- ◆ As Divine thoughts are channeled throughout Creation, a Divine Chaos ensues as the mind of our Creator is creating within an instant and translating into form.
- ◆ Stillness is not the only expression of spiritual conduct and coexists with Divine Chaos and movement and in fact is one and the same within the Singularity.
- ◆ Stillness is a profound state of being for it links in to the radiance of unmanifest consciousness.
- ◆ Divine Chaos, however, is the Divine mind or impulse in action.
- ◆ To access the faintest reflection of Divine Chaos is to become empowered beyond what is conceivable.
- ◆ God is the unmanifest Creator's conduit and is the means by which Creation unfolds; is the vehicle within existence through which our Creator breathes.
- ◆ As such, God is not All That Is but is Divinity manifesting itself into Creation and so creating Creation.
- ◆ Divine Stillness and Divine Chaos both fuel the dimensions in which we reside and manifest simultaneously, occupying the same instance.

The Blessed One : SPEAKS

Greetings I have not come before. You may see me as a star before you within the centre of this Temple - a star of light. It is not my form, for I do not have form yet I manifested this for you. You may know me as THE BLESSED ONE and I bring my expression this day to all present.

My expression and my energies (and I choose to use the word expression instead but it is the same) are powerful for I come through from Divine Chaos which has been valiantly described by Akhnaton. I am part of the expression of the Divine and I am not an entity as such. Throughout Creation there are those things that cannot be called beings but rather can be called 'expressions.' The dearest one that has spoken to you elsewhere called That Which I Am is an expression, and not an entity and so such am I. There are so many expressions not in form, yet which are crucially part of Creation forming the fabric of Creation, which allows Creation to experience itself. I am the The Blessed One with all that this implies and much more. There is no description for what it is that I bring to Creation; that thought of the Divine which I hold and embody. I am a thought. I am a thought that comes as a gift to Creation.

I am part of the tapestry upon which sits the images that are you. I am woven into the fabric of existence and so am everywhere through all dimensions. The fabric of the universe, that is so often referred to in your New Age writings, is not merely a terminology - molecules that are manifested. The idea of Creation is the composite of many incredible consciousnesses, expressions and ones such as myself and That Which I Am. We are an expression of this idea that comes from the Divine Chaos; the Divine impulses that have been impulsed since Creation was first manifested. I am as old as Creation and each time you hear these words again a new layer of understanding will come. For without me, the idea of Creation could not be sustained nor any of the expressions that are part of the fabric of Creation within which you have Divinely manifested in order to experience Creation.

I am stepping up my energies about you and perhaps you can feel that there is a depth to my expression that is so ancient for you are part of Creation that I have come from - the unmanifest.

WELL, THAT IS ALL . . .

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The Blessed One is part of the expression of the Divine and is not an entity.
- ◆ There are expressions (without form) in Creation which sustain it and allow Creation to experience itself.
- ◆ The Blessed One is a Divine Thought woven into the fabric of existence, impulsed from the Divine Chaos.
- ◆ The idea of Creation is the composite of many incredible consciousnesses and expressions such as The Blessed One and That Which I Am.

Teachings
from the
White Star Temple

Lecture Series Three

Kyrael : QUANTUM LIGHT

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, KYRAEL who greets you and I come to be with you in this truly wonderful White Star Temple and as ever there are many ones present from many worlds and many holograms of light. I welcome you all and to each will come understanding unique to your own consciousness.

I come to draw your attention to my sword which I gifted to this Temple and to you. It is a magnificent sword and it was placed within these energies as a tool for all who would come here. I do not use this sword but I ask that you would see it hanging within this Temple. You may choose to visualize it placed within the center and so I invoke the White Star that rests above this Temple. A wonderful column of white Divine Light streams into this Temple and touches upon the sword. The shimmering metallic light that comprises this sword is a perfect mirror for this light and so the light glimmers on the sword and like rays of the sun the sword reflects outward light to each of you. The white light is absolutely illuminating and the shimmering sword is filled with the most beautiful sparkles of living light. These sparkles begin to move about into little pinpoints of light that twinkle like miniature stars and they begin to fill this place and are all about you. It is so pretty. It is like your earth Christmas. Each pinpoint of light is a fragment of Divine Light. With these sparkles comes joy for it is very childlike to have such things about you.

There is a purpose to this which is to infuse all who are present with this Divine Light that is stepped down and brought through the White Star and then reflected outward to you through the angelic sword. There is a filtration of energies. This filtration is not to filter out particular ingredients but rather it is to filter in and gather more light. This infuses into the light the vibrational frequencies that are held by the White Star and by archangels such as myself.

A finely woven texture of light is able to come into your individual auras. As you are not separate from any other particle in existence this infusion of light begins to integrate into your own energy field. The building blocks of Creation, the sub-atomic particles, manifest in the physical and express themselves in the etheric. These particles speak to each other having a consciousness and taken as a whole, have a singularity. As Divine Consciousness these particles interact and communicate with each other. When light is brought to you it interacts with those sub-atomic particles that create not only your energy field but also your individual consciousness which houses your manifestations. This is why bringing light into your world and into your aura is so effective and so important. The Divine particles interact with your own substance and personal reality which is manifested at a quantum level. Bringing in the light each and every day is an accelerated way in which to propel you forward in your spiritual evolution. The more conscious you are of what it is that you are doing with this light and how it is that you are receiving it, the more effective and influential it becomes. This is the case with anything that you turn your attention to and you focus upon. It becomes stronger whether negative or positive.

Visualize light entering into your energy field, and sub atomic particles however you wish to perceive them. These particles become illuminated and activated, influencing each other. This focus will enhance and make more profound the usefulness of the Divine Light coming through. After some practice with this you may find that it becomes second nature. You will become great friends with your energy field and with all of those little individual conscious particles that house the manifestation of you in Creation at any particular level. By visualizing this you begin to master a profound awareness within your consciousness which can lead to a vast expansion in your perceptions. This is the level where the mechanics of the Divine manifests and where reality is shaped, reflecting whatever your consciousness is directed toward.

To begin to work consciously at this level is to come into greater proximity to Creation itself and the manifestation of the Divine within Creation. Perhaps I am not making sense but hopefully the understanding will come. All of the pinpoints of light reflected off the archangelic sword and the White Star are to bring this understanding through. As you visualise these pinpoints of light they interact with you at a quantum level. It is difficult to attempt to utilize these terms at this level as it is something that is so intuitive, a process that is one of the deepest mysteries of the cosmos and of existence. All of Creation at its most distilled revelation is that one particle, that one Singularity that manifests infinitely and simultaneously throughout Creation. To attempt to interact with that one particle, the Singularity that manifests into so many instances means you are interacting then, in a way, with God himself. God being a conduit for the All That Is, the unmanifest in Creation.

Well, I say to you, dearest ones that this practice of working at a sub-atomic level by visualizing light at that level of consciousness will serve you well. You may find that many insights and a knowingness is possible though it will not come in words. The revelations that will come to you are at a level of sacred mystery.

I will leave my sword in place for the remainder of this encounter within the White Star Temple and all the beautiful pinpoints of light I shall leave to dance about you

I AM KYRAEL, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Kyrael reflects light down from the White Star and off the archangelic sword to all present.
- ◆ The building blocks of Creation (sub-atomic particles) have a Divine consciousness and interact with each other.
- ◆ When Divine Light is introduced to your energy-field it also interacts with the particles of you at a quantum level.
- ◆ Drawing in light each day is an accelerated way to move you forward in your spiritual evolution.
- ◆ At the quantum level and below is where the mechanics of the Divine manifests and where reality is shaped by your consciousness.
- ◆ By working with light at this level you are interacting with God as there is only the singular particle manifested simultaneously into infinite instances.

Melchizedek : A MAGICAL LIFE

Greetings dearest ones, it is I MELCHIZEDEK who comes to be briefly with you this day and I am in good company. It is wonderful to have Kyrael's magnificent sword here within this Temple and so I do truly see a marvelous tapestry of light all about you and within you and within this beautiful place.

I come this day for much more modest reasons. I do not come to present on cosmic matters but I wish to speak a little while on something that is relevant to your earth realm at this time. I would say to you that the human imagination is a truly magnificent and profoundly important aspect of being in human consciousness. Human imagination is reflected throughout nearly every aspect of your lives; from the literal creation of objects, architecture, art and books through to the personal reality that you inhabit. It is purely of your imagination. Many times during human history there has been an ebb and flow of the importance of imagination and in your present day at this time, despite all of the marvelous outpourings of culture, there is a part of human imagining that is missing, or is less so than any other aspects. I refer to the magical and the mystical. When I use the term 'magical' I am not referring to magic per se such as magicians, white magic, black magic or any magic of that nature. I am instead referring to the human imagination of magical which permeates legends and folklore in the realm of, let us say "The holy Grail" or such things. There was a time when the mystical was very much revered and the ones you call saints would spend their whole lives in attaining mystical experiences and if we were lucky documenting them. Those childhood experiences of wonder, of heightened imagination and of a yearning for those things that transcend the ordinary to become extraordinary are what is needed in your world again. To lead a magical life and see the magic in life and then be able to, through your lives, have others experience this also is to bring in the mystical - this is something to aspire to and attain. These are very important aspects of experiencing human spirituality.

There is a difference between that which is the sacred and that which is the magical and the mystical. It is said that the folklore, the legends and such things are not real, they are fiction. I would say to you that all of your lives are fiction as the whole of your reality is an illusion, is fiction. You make it up as you go along and you made it up before you even came into this body. By turning ones consciousness toward marvelous things like incredible dragons, magical swords, wonderful feats of heroism; these things become just as real as your life even if you do not see directly the physical manifestation. For wherever your thoughts go so follows form whether it is astral, physical or etheric form and beyond. Every thought has a manifestation and a consequence. It has a manifestation because thought itself has consciousness as it must because it is in existence. So then legends and folklore exist within Creation and imprints have been left forever in the fabric of Creation and it changes Creation. If our Creator imagined us then your imaginings are also from our Creator. So I invite and encourage you, my friends, to bring about your own mythology, to re-invent yourselves, if you wish, to weave about yourselves an air of the magical, the mystical. There is no harm in this. There is no trickery because the human tool of imagination is there to use, influence and enhance reality yet it is so lacking. What a marvelous thing to begin to live in a more magical way and to perceive things a little more magically. Allow the mystical to come in and it will rub off.

All of these wonderful impulses, like Kyrael's sparkling lights, will radiate out and touch those about you and suddenly the world becomes a little more magical. You can author your own mythology; you can be as great or as extraordinary as you desire. You are as vast as the universe anyway, my friends. This lifetime is but one detail, one narrow focus of the overarching expression that appears throughout all dimensions. So do not diminish yourself by defining yourself as this blinkered and narrow human perception of self. There is no ego, for this is something that often lightworkers fear. There is no ego involved in wishing to transcend the ordinary because you can delight in the mythology of yourself and of others. If others wish to perceive it in a literal way then that is their journey. This is the theatre of life so why not maximize that theatre and open up the theatrical wardrobe, and don as many outlandish, inspiring costumes as you wish. You will not be judged in any way; it is theatre and God has given you this playhouse, this theatre to make of it what you will. The marvelous thing about intention is that once you begin to get the ball rolling you begin to live as though you are magic. The world is then mystical and begins to reflect this and after a while it will no longer be fiction, it will be part of your reality if you are open to the science. Remember you are a vast being of light and there is so much more to you. You appear in many lifestreams and all of those lifestreams combine to create the singularity of you. When you are focusing on any particular consciousness you narrow that singularity down to a particular lifestream, a particular timeline, a particular lifetime, a particular detail; the detail of your overarching journey. This lifetime is one of the golden bricks along the way so why not make that step, that golden brick, as bright, as fun, as enjoyable and as magical as it can be.

Your world is so full of negativity and of make-believe that is misdirected or make-believe that is in a cultural way serving those who would make money. So again I say to you if you are drawn to do so please consider the magical life.

Well, if not for anything else, it is preferable because it will bring joy, laughter, great theatre and will be a marvelous expression and use of that which the Divine has given us in the imagination and our place within existence. So, have fun and I will be there with you and I will enjoy it as much as you.

I AM MELCHIZEDEK, ADONAI.

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Human imagination is wonderful, yet our present era lacks a sense of the magical and mystical.
- ◆ To yearn to transcend the ordinary and experience the extraordinary; to lead a magical life, is once more needed in our world.
- ◆ That which is imagined is real for wherever your thoughts go so follows form.
- ◆ Therefore legends and folklore are real and exist, even though they may not be manifested in the physical.
- ◆ Every thought has a manifestation and consequence because thought itself has consciousness.
- ◆ Imprints of thought are left forever within the fabric of Creation.
- ◆ As our Creator imagined us, then our imaginings are from our Creator.
- ◆ Within the illusion of your life you can create your own personal mythology as God has given you a playhouse within which to explore.
- ◆ Please consider leading a 'magical' and 'mystical' life and in so doing inspire others to do so.

El Moyra : GEOMETRY OF LIFE

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, EL MOYRA and I have not come before to this beautiful place. I am pleased to be welcomed here and perhaps you can feel the energies that I bring to the structure of this living form, which you call the White Star Temple. I wish to speak with you this day about the geometry of life, for it is something that I work closely with. It is one of my purposes of being in form at this time to explore, understand and to work with, what you would term sacred geometry. I would call it simply geometry for everything within existence is sacred. Even the term geometry does not suit the topic well, for it is beyond that. It is more to do with patterns. It is the patterning of Creation I speak of and you are well aware that light comes together to form structures such as this Temple that you have brought into being and also worlds and all forms including energetic streams of consciousness that are woven throughout existence by ones that are much more powerful than you or I. These energy streams are all about us and some may say they are channels for Divine energy while others may link the source of them to that which you term the Central Sun. Yet in truth you cannot define these patternings in any one way for that would be to limit their expression and some things are just not known. Some things are Divine mysteries and so are to be enjoyed and embraced as exactly that so we can be in awe of our Creator. Suffice to say the patternings exist throughout Creation and sometimes we refer to this as blueprints or as energy streams and yet other times as geometry but it is all the same thing, just in different expressions. It is light and movement coming together to form whatever is destined to form and you, dearest ones, are geometry also and have a Divine blueprint, a pattern.

The Divine expresses itself and therefore all of its Creations, in multiple simultaneous ways. The fabric that holds you together is a finely woven mesh of light and we know that light is a physical expression of unconditional love which is part of the essence of our Creator. The geometry of you is beautifully intricate. It is more than your aura that sustains your physical body and which is a conduit for your soul consciousness while in the physical - it is more than this. It is the fabric of you when you take form in any given dimension. Your geometry exists because you are an idea, you are a thought in the mind of our Creator; some say a dreaming, a vision. This thought is expressed on many levels. The geometry of you is unique to you. The sound of you (your own toning) is unique to you. There is a consciousness that is unique to you and there are many other things that I cannot conceptualise that are unique to you. Of course, there is your light, radiance and your personal signature all of which is being expressed as one. This is just a different way of perceiving you and all else in Creation, including myself.

The idea of me, the idea that is me, is as a magnificent being of light and also that light taking form into the geometry that was manifest when I was an idea. This geometry of life is an ongoing one, for you were thought into existence but you were not thought and then left to be and thought no more. You are a continuing idea, an evolving idea and just as you are evolving yourself so it is that God has carefully mapped out a parameter for you within which to grow. All of the opportunities, all of those Divine impulses that flow through you, all of the various existences throughout Creation that you would have and all of their lessons to learn, are part of the geometry that is evolving, for you are being added to and taken away from. The shape that you are is being built even as we speak and is the most incredible, magnificent holographic geometry of light and sound. This is how I see you; for I look into your form and I see the marvelous structure, the living light that is you and each of you differs as do I. If you could see you as I see you, you would be in wonderment of the most beautiful, radiant filaments of light that form the most incredible mandala of Creation, of geometry. It is such a poor term to use. If you can imagine the most exquisite art form of lines coming together, intersecting, creating shapes within shapes and then multiply this a billion fold you still would not come close to what has been brought into being for you. It is changing, I see you changing before my very eyes. I see the filaments moving, re-shaping, turning on, turning off and the light flowing from one to the other instantaneously. I see the light flowing when connections are made.

When you connect with others you create a new geometry by coming together, still whole but separate and unique to yourself; it is like a jigsaw puzzle where the pieces come together to connect and create a greater shape. Those of you who are now present are creating a bigger mandala, a larger structure yet it is not your aura for that is of your third dimension. Light expresses itself in different levels of refinement and frequencies of dimension, but the geometry of you always stays the same. Dearest Melchizedek did give each of you the beautiful multi-faceted diamond. It is symbolic of the multi-facets of self reflecting Divine Light and just as you perceive this as a wonderful geometric structure I ask that you would perceive yourself also as a wonderful structure. The molecules that give you form, no matter where, move within the energy streams that connect you to create a form, your mandala. I use the term mandala as an alternative one to geometry but it is not literal in the way that you would define mandala, it is just a more spiritual term. Your human consciousness responds so beautifully to the detail and inherent beauty of such things as mandalas and geometry in their literal sense. In your world you have them as both art and scientific forms but mandalas speak to the human consciousness, which is why they are used within a spiritual context. There is an inner recognition and a response to visual representations because there is a remembrance deep within the psyche. It is the familiarity of the Divine expression of life in this manner, one of the ways in which you are expressed. There is also a mathematical key to these things. This is important particularly within your realm for pure mathematics does have an insight into the working of the universe - and not in a physical way. It is a reflection again of the Divine and it gives us a glimmer of how the Divine creates Creation. Numbers and how they are worked within pure mathematics and geometry are actually keys.

You continue to evolve, and the idea of you is eternally shaped by the Divine. You play your part in this because it is the impulse of the Divine that it should be so. You follow that impulse and yearn for spiritual evolution because you are unfinished. To say unfinished does not mean to imply a lack of perfection for that is not what I am communicating. It is that you are unfinished because the idea of you continues to be reworked, rethought, re-dreamt, re-envisioned, reshaped by God. How incredible is that? In the eternal moment, in the eternal present, God is still interacting, evolving us as we are continually within the consciousness of God. I hope that you would then choose to look differently upon the idea of being in existence.

The idea that you were first manifest and then left to be is not the case - you were first manifest but that first manifestation stretches outward into all of eternity. Remember that there is no time, so in the instant you were thought into being you continue to be thought into being, for there is no time to either begin, or to cease, or to act.

Well, you are incredibly beautiful in the symbolism of you and I will come again.

I AM EL MOYRA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The geometry of life is the patterning of Creation. It is light and energy combining to manifest form and structure.
- ◆ These energy streams are all about you and a finely woven mesh of light forms the geometry of you.
- ◆ Light may be known as a physical expression of unconditional love which is part of the essence of our Creator.
- ◆ The geometry of you is beautiful and is more than your aura; it is the fabric of you when you take form in any dimension.
- ◆ The geometry of you reflects our Creator's idea of you.
- ◆ The idea of you is continually evolving and God has carefully mapped out a parameter for you within which to grow.
- ◆ God continually reworks, reshapes and redefines you for eternity so that you are all always held within the consciousness of God.
- ◆ Outside of time, you were thought into existence and then continually rethought in that same instance.

Mary : COMMUNION

Greetings dearest Angels of Light, it is I, MARY who comes to be amongst you at this time and I come again as a Master of the Stars. You may perceive me here with you within the White Star Temple perhaps as a being of light or as the earthly form that you associate with me. Either way I am here in your midst and even as I stand before you I am also woven throughout all of this Temple and all about you. For when we Ascended Masters come amongst you it is easy to perceive us as literal beings, or even just as light, taking up space in one place. Yet truly as we are consciousness, naturally we do not take up a space or a place and therefore I am all about you and there is no delineation. Any perception that you are positioned in one particular spot or that I am positioned in such a way is purely for the human mind. Step beyond this and you will come to experience and sense that without space and time, I am about you. Even that term is misleading for it implies somehow being positioned. What really is happening, my friends is that my consciousness is connecting with yours and as consciousness has no tangible form other than what consciousness creates for itself, then so it is we become one.

My presence, which is a much more accurate term, comes into your consciousness. It is your human mind that creates the separation and that is perfectly valid. You indeed go about your daily business within a world that does act upon separation. Yet, given opportunities in a place such as this White Star Temple or any place within this multidimensional framework, there is a gradual receding of the human-held belief of separation. It is possible. One day you will come into this consciousness of the White Star Temple and those lecturers, such as I, will come into your consciousness and yours into mine. You will then experience a coming together as opposed to the separateness of visualizing us and our energies apart. So that is something indeed to look forward to. This is one of the ways in which a multidimensional universe is in operation and consciousness, as you all know, chooses to take form at will. Consciousness itself in any individual is a piece of theatre because there is the Singularity which is true consciousness. Within the Singularity is the multiple and that is where you and I reside and choose our form.

So, friends, I come with this simple message; those within Creation have opportunities to connect from a position of oneness through the sharing of consciousness. Well, this is possible - it is emerging. Perhaps you have experienced this from time to time in your personal meditations and I hope so; where you have touched upon a communion, as opposed to a communication. So I am all around you because your consciousness is within mine.

I will stay and continue to infuse this place and those gathered and all those who would come here via the recordings, with my energies. I also include all of those beautiful beings within Creation who come here from other worlds and other dimensions. For all of these I will lend my energies this day. I do feel as though, for some of you, a great gentleness is needed at this time. Other communications have spoken of the twin aspects of Divine Chaos and Divine Stillness as simultaneous expressions. Well, I am touched with Divine Stillness and so it is part of the fabric of my vibration. It is a blessing that I am able bestow upon those whom I have the honour to serve. This day and all days I give it freely to humanity. I draw your attention to it this day and so you are held within a gentle stillness of love.

I AM MARY, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Consciousness has no tangible form other than what it creates for itself.
- ◆ The Ascended Masters can connect their consciousness with ours and so are able to have a presence within our consciousness.
- ◆ It is our human mind that creates the illusion of separation.
- ◆ Within the true reality of our Singularity is the multiple where we all reside and choose our form.
- ◆ Within Creation we have the opportunity to connect within Oneness through the sharing of consciousness.

Akhnaton : ENERGY FIELD

Greetings dearest ones of the Temple, it is your good friend AKHNATON who comes to be with you and may I say how wonderful it is to see all who are present. Truly it is a full house at this time for there are many ones who come with you and there are aspects and facets of oneself from other timelines who are here experiencing these communions and receiving that which is relevant to their consciousness and to your consciousness at this time.

I come with a wonderful smile on my face for it brings so much joy to those of us who delight to serve you in this way, to be here to see you progress upon your path. Your radiance shines ever more brightly. Truly this Temple of no time and space is ablaze with the Divine Light emanating from all who are present. The energy of oneness is created. This group energy, no matter within which dimension the energies reside, is still creating that unique harmonic each time you come together. The resonance of this is a permanent imprint within Creation. You have brought into being and you continue to sustain, something that is here for evermore for it stands outside of time. How incredible is this?

I would remind you that everything that you do - every thought, emotion, action, desire and daydream - leaves an imprint within existence. It is all there forevermore and you are not judged for it. You may be thinking, 'my goodness, I have thought many things and they have not always been pleasant. They have not always been G rated.' I would say to you that it is not as literal as you would think. It is not as if people's literal thoughts are flitting around in space. Certainly the astral plane that you are familiar with is the repository of the symbolism but outside of the astral realm is the essence, the signature of your thoughts. It gives an impression rather than the detail and I will give you an example.

Perhaps something terribly sad has occurred and you are thinking sad thoughts about it. This lives on forevermore but the detail of that event and your exact thoughts do not but the impression of that sadness and its attachment lives on. So do not concern yourself with the idea that you have all these embarrassing thoughts winging their way around the universe for all to perceive. Anyway, to tune into these impressions one must make a connection with you. It is intention and focus and so if someone has not connected with you they will not access these impressions and it will not become part of their consciousness. Likewise you cannot access the impressions of another unless there is a direct connection - a peeling away of the separation allowing the oneness, the connectedness, to give you the key with which to open up such things.

I hope that this is making sense. Well dearest ones, I also take the opportunity to come and bring you energies this day. Each time ones who are not in body come into your energy field with your permission you truly are uplifted. Your energy fields are so tightly bound to your earthly realm in this particular life-stream and timeline that its vibration very much is closely related to the physical. When you commune with those who are not in body (and I do not speak of the spirit world, that is something different again) we are in much more refined higher realms and the communion that takes place uplifts your vibration.

Often we speak of infusing your energy field with light but what is happening is that your energy field has a remembrance of a higher calling and resonance and it begins to hum at a higher frequency. It begins to sing more highly. I will use the analogy of singing. If you have a choir of two people singing and one starts off in one pitch and the other starts off in a different pitch eventually one will have to go one way or the other. It is impossible to keep singing separately. It is the same when you come in contact with our energy fields. Your energy field has this yearning and desire for a higher resonance because your soul desires this. Your energy field is linked to your soul and it wishes to sing along, to resonate to those of us who you call Ascended Masters. Your personal song is then altered, if but momentarily. Given enough opportunity and occasions for this to happen your energy field will remember the song. It will stay and resonate more highly and will correspond to consciousness expansion. It will be in parallel for all is linked. You are the many multiple bodies of light that envelop you on this earth so the more you connect with us or the Angelic Realm or star beings of light or whatever beings that you subscribe to, the greater the song for you.

Well dearest ones, we will meet again.

I AM AKHNATON, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Everything that you do, think and feel leaves an imprint within existence.
- ◆ You are not judged for this.
- ◆ Your literal thoughts do not go out into Creation, rather an impression of them does so.
- ◆ In order for others to access your thoughts (impressions) they must first make a connection with you.
- ◆ Your energy field has a remembrance of a higher calling and resonance and therefore can be uplifted when in contact with a higher vibration.
- ◆ Communing with the Ascended Masters and Angelic Realm often can alter the 'song' of your energy field toward consciousness expansion.

Maitreya : HIGHER ENLIGHTENMENT

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, MAITREYA who comes among you. I ask that you would visualize the White Star Temple about you and through its many windows perceive the magical expanse of the cosmos which is expressed within your realm in the physical and simultaneously expresses itself throughout all dimensions in various forms of being.

Here in this place between dimensions I ask that you would see the cosmos layered with light, tone, sound, fragrance and perhaps many other things you may perceive. Truly it is a place of all these manifestations as there is no blackness of space for that is part of your dimension. Rather there is the ever-fluctuating expression of light and colour; colour of course signifying the various rays and conduits of Divine expression. There is a sense of urgency and life to Creation as we would perceive it now and you can feel the joy. It is as if the whole of Creation were laughing, so pleased, so absolutely delighted to be in existence. It is truly such a gift and privilege to be within Creation, no matter where. Even the tiniest grain of sand upon your world has a consciousness. That consciousness may not be expressed in the same way as yours but it is absolutely thrilled to be itself, to be fulfilling part of our Creator's vision, that one little piece of sand. It is in joy to just 'be' and if it were not there, there would be an absence and one less thing which would indeed alter the fabric of our Divine blueprint here in Creation.

Creation does indeed glorify our Creator, the All That Is. Not out of obligation or a sense that we must glorify that which is superior to ourselves, but rather glorifying in thanks, in gratitude. It is simply Divine cosmic gratitude for just being here, for playing your part within the jigsaw of life. Your part in this transcends all dimensions - you appear in all dimensions as your consciousness does not have a limitation to any one form. Gratitude at this level is immense. Within the physical realm, however, with its illusion of separation there is a sense from humanity that there is not much to have gratitude for. I am not speaking of day to day concerns but rather the overarching cosmic gratitude of knowing your place within Creation and understanding the importance of being in it with all the intricacies yet absolute simplicity of the Divine Plan and vision.

It is difficult from within the separation to have a true inner connection with cosmic gratitude but I say this to you as an encouragement for you to go into your meditations and step outside of the space-time continuum, at least momentarily, with your consciousness so that you can experience the fullness of gratitude and worthiness. There is an absolute joy of being within it all - absolutely delighted just to 'be' that grain of sand. How much more, in the scheme of things, have you to enjoy in terms of the ability to manifest your reality? As you well know, it is all there within you; knowingness and joy waiting to express itself. The bigger picture of you (the Singularity that has the many multiples which are expressed and experienced in various forms) knows this gratitude and receives a Divine reflection of love and light, internalizing it to all of its aspects of you.

We often seem to flatter you, so to speak, but it is not flattery for it is important for you to come to a recognition of your worthiness and to understand how magnificent you are for in doing so the separation will begin to fall away. The limitations that you impose upon yourself while in human form loosen their hold as you come into an empowerment of self. This can seem at odds with the very human nature of feeling damaged and insecure within the emotional vehicle that is your greatest learning curve here. To touch upon your greatness when you can and integrate it into the here and now, will bring about tremendous, beneficial change. Your role is to shine, for the greater you shine, the more radiance you bestow on your fellow beings and that is the surest path to your spiritual evolution. That is why we say, time and again, do not diminish yourself for if you were to see what we see, which is your energy matrix, you would be astonished.

That is enough flattery for one evening. I bring my energies to this Temple. Do not forget its magnificent dome of light and the diamond that shields it all. I invoke this day the White Star which gives the Temple its name. I draw down a column of light from this multi-faceted diamond star. It shines upon you as you shine back.

Well, this is my message this day and I remind you that the words are a wonderful current upon which the mind can flow but the energies bring the understanding and assist with the knowingness that shall unfold as time passes.

I AM MAITREYA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ It is such a gift to be within Creation no matter where.
- ◆ Everything has a consciousness, even the tiniest grain of sand which is in joy to fulfill our Creator's vision.
- ◆ How much more then, have you to enjoy by being in existence?
- ◆ Creation glorifies and is in gratitude to our Creator - The All That Is.
- ◆ There is a need for humanity to develop a cosmic gratitude of knowing its place within Creation and its importance.
- ◆ The bigger picture of you - the Singularity of your many parts - knows this gratitude and receives a Divine reflection of love and light and internalises it to all aspects of you.
- ◆ To touch upon your own greatness and integrate it will bring tremendous change into your life.

Sananda : ACCELERATION

Greetings it is I your friend, SANANDA who comes to be amongst you this day and as ever it is an honour. We find ourselves again in the White Star Temple, which stands outside of the space-time continuum. . . I would say to you dearest ones that the energies of this particular group are drawing to its maximum. The blending of energies is truly special, for what you are creating is a place of learning and you are creating it outside of the separation and time that you would experience upon the earth. It is woven into the fabric of existence for all time and for all ones throughout Creation. Its purpose is to connect you back to the rest of Creation, to provide a window and an opportunity for you to transcend the limiting veil of your physical world as well as to show you at an experiential level the incredible majesty, intricacies and wonderment of the vastness of our Creator's imagination. So welcome!

I am also woven into the fabric of this Temple, as are you. It is your intention and your unique vibration that sustains this place and it is as real as any physical structure though the illusion of your physical realm masks this. Although you are able to perceive it through your human consciousness one day when you are able to leave the human consciousness behind and come in your true cosmic consciousness, you will be surprised by the incredible beauty of this White Star Temple. It is what you have conjured with others to produce. It has been spoken of before - it will be and already has become a beacon of light throughout Creation. It is a Temple among many but it is a Temple that exists within its own consciousness and it has spoken to you previously. Do not diminish the work that you do here even unconsciously. Simply by being here with your unique and powerful energies within this place of no time and space, you are inhabiting and sustaining something that already has touched an untold amount of other entities throughout Creation. For as there is no discernible future or past and just the Eternal Now, so it is that this place has already manifested the purpose to which it was brought into being; to be a Temple of learning and expansion for Creation. I thank you for the commitment that each has shown and as this place grows, of course so do you.

As you go about your daily lives within your physical realm with all of its distractions (the very act of living in a physical body in a physical world) it can seem as though nothing particularly extraordinary is happening. Such is the nature of the illusion here that it does indeed veil the bigger picture of you which is accelerating remarkably. As the moments pass in this illusion of time, your spiritual consciousness is simultaneously experiencing all lifetimes that were, are and shall be. The overarching soul that is you experiencing all of these life-streams and timelines, is being grown and evolved by each aspect of you. The combination of the many simultaneous parts of yourself manifesting in all realities has created the vastness of your spiritual self. I say this so that the temptation to place pressure on yourself in any given lifetime to become, what you would term, enlightened would be relieved. It is truly a worthy goal and one that is built into human consciousness, to pursue enlightenment at one level or another. Know that all aspects of you are also yearning toward this end. No matter what you do in your life it is still growing you and pointing you toward the overarching advancement of your oversoul. You are not alone in this for you have all of your 'selves' inhabiting all lifetimes to contribute to this effort. You need only to follow your heart and Divine impulses to enjoy the path and opportunities that surprise us in order to play your part in this jigsaw puzzle.

Joy is an incredible energy and to laden the quest for spiritual evolution as one that is overly serious or requires vast amounts of effort is, to a degree, counter productive. Through the wonderment, through the joy, through the love and service will the path become smoother.

As one who is not in the physical and who operates at many vibrations throughout the multidimensional universe I perceive all aspects of you. I see your simultaneous lifetimes and experiences. I see the energy matrix that is your oversoul and I see how it shines so beautifully. It is dazzling; the light that you radiate at a soul level is something that is truly a reflection of the Divine. For our Creator, of course, could conceive of no less than something as dazzling as you or I. All of these life streams that you inhabit across timelines that are part of the illusion, are contributing to a greater picture again for as with anything within Creation it is not simply about the one purpose. So that your soul's growth and the expansion of your oversoul, has a greater purpose than to just serve oneself; it has the purpose of moving the whole of Creation forward as a unified consciousness. That indeed is a worthy task and you are worthy of it.

Well, I have gone on and of course, I shall come again to this place.

I AM SANANDA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The WST is woven into the fabric of existence for all time and for all ones throughout Creation.
- ◆ It is a beacon of light throughout Creation, so don't diminish the work that you do here.
- ◆ As the moments pass in your illusion of time your consciousness and spiritual self is simultaneously experiencing all lifetimes.
- ◆ Your overarching soul is being evolved by every aspect of you, and so is vast.
- ◆ As such, it's not necessary to place pressure upon yourself to achieve 'enlightenment' in this lifetime, though it is a worthy goal.
- ◆ The quest for spiritual evolution need not be serious but joyful as joy is an incredible energy and links us to the Divine.
- ◆ The growth of your soul moves the whole of Creation forward as a unified consciousness.

Kyrael : SWORD MEDITATION II

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, KYRAEL who comes once again and as always I bring with me the Archangelic energies into this place. This Temple is huge at this moment in time and perhaps you can sense this. It is truly vast for as you are aware it does not have a literal form other than the structure of energies that sustain it. We can perceive it as an organic building of light, one with its own consciousness which can expand and contract according to the requirements of the day. There are many ones who join us from other worlds, for the call has gone out for more ones to join in and so they come in their consciousness from throughout Creation. So know that you are within eclectic company and those of you who have eyes to see in such a way will perhaps perceive about them representations of the diversity of those present. I come this day to work with the Archangelic sword that I did deposit here as a gift to this Temple.

I ask you to perceive me in the centre before you, however you wish. For I come in my vibration and I have angelic wings of energy. The wings of angels and in particular of Archangels are enormous and vast. They are not contained by literal form; the energy of these etheric wings that so popularly define us upon earth, is very powerful and is of the Angelic Principle vibration. I ask that you would perceive that my vibrational wings are fully extended and embrace the entire circumference of this Temple. All who are joined here together are held within these wings of Archangelic energy and I come with the love, compassion and insight of one who was part of the First Manifestation of Creation. There is an ancient context to my vibration, more ancient than anything that has gone before and so ancient that it cannot be counted. Yet with such ancientness there comes a specific feeling. In being part of the First Breath of God the wisdom of the ages and the original love source is held within my vibration and like a wonderful cheese it matures beautifully over time or the illusion thereof. I would say more correctly, it matures as the Outbreath of God continues to move through Creation.

I hold before you this Temple sword and it is a most magnificent, symbolic sword which would normally be visible as light but this day I ask that you would perceive it as the most incredibly polished metal that you can conceive of, not quite a mirror but almost. I hold it up to face each of you so that you may look upon its surface and see a reflection back of yourself in whatever form this may take. Perhaps at first your physical body will appear and that is understandable for it is familiar. Keep looking and allow my energies to be integrated with yours. Change will come upon this reflection and you will begin to see differing aspects of yourself. So let us do this now.

You can call to you an aspect and if it helps just visualize your physical face before you and then allow for it to alter. It does not need to alter into another physical representation for it can be an energy source of you. Perhaps there is symbolism brought to you so that you may be able to interpret this aspect.

I ask that you allow whatever has come to you to dissipate and see the sword as it is; a beautiful representation in light. I ask that you would give permission, if you so desire it, for the aspect that you have connected with to allow its light to be reflected off this sword on to you. In this way you can share in the radiance of self - of a different facet of the diamond that you are.

That is all that I have come to do this day and I know that this is being recorded. I say to you that this is something that you can do time and again by journeying to the White Star Temple, retrieving the sword and placing it before you or if you prefer, you can call upon me to do this. You will find that over a period of time your ability to connect with other aspects of you within Creation will strengthen and become easier. You may come to a point of feeling great joy in connecting with another facet of yourself no matter how briefly - a part of you that is not in this particular life time and may not even be in this particular life-stream or timeline. How amazing is that? These things are possible and they are certainly possible within this White Star Temple. Well, do not allow the belief systems of the human mind to hold you back.

I AM KYRAEL, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Angels and Archangels have vast 'wings' of energy as they are not contained by literal form.
- ◆ As part of First Manifestation, angels are incredibly ancient and their energy matures as the Outbreath of God continues to move through Creation.
- ◆ Kyrael presents his WST sword before you so that you may encounter an aspect of self and bathe in your own radiance.

Cosmic Buddha : HONOURING

Greetings it is I, COSMIC BUDDHA who comes into the energy field of this place of being and learning. I am honoured to come within the wake of such a beautiful archangel as Kyrael. His presence is truly vast, powerful and ancient as he has said. Week after week lecturers come to you in such a manner and speak their name and their truth and bring their energies which they share lovingly. Perhaps it is tempting for humans to take this in their stride or for granted and to overlay upon these beings a semblance of humanness. I would say to you that whatever you perceive regarding those who come to you in this place is but the size of a grain of sand compared to the reality of their presence. You may feel as though you begin to recognize their personalities, if you could call it that and also hopefully, their energies. It may feel like someone knocking on the door and being invited in to have a cup of tea and that is perfectly valid in the human mind. The human mind operates within the frame of reference that it knows. However, it is not like someone knocking on the door for a cup of tea at all. You are so blessed to have the consciousness of the ones who come to speak and merge with you in this way. They are so much more incredible than you are aware of at this time. I do not say this with admonishment at all; I say it without judgment. The purpose of saying it is to alert you to this fact, to expand you. There is no judgment as I have said, for how can I judge you for being you, for being human – it is impossible.

When the dearest Ascended Ones and other conscious beings come, allow yourself to be open to perceiving these ones as something more again than what you have become used to in your own mind. Try to sidestep the human thinking to embrace the truth of the enormity of that which is being offered to you week in and week out. This also applies to those who access these recordings and so are participating in the White Star Temple.

I do not say this with any semblance of superiority or imply that there is so much more to us than you, for that is irrelevant. There is no such thing as comparison within the unity consciousness of Creation. A marvelous thing will begin to happen as you begin to allow your perceptions of those who would come to be here with you to fall away. As you are given the opportunity to experience the true magnificence of the beings who come to serve you in this way, you will find that in honouring and accepting the magnificence of them that a by-product of this shall be the honouring and acceptance of you likewise as a magnificent and vast being. You cannot differentiate between the two; you cannot say one is such and the other is not, for that will go against the concept of the singularity. This separation provides the context within which comparisons can be made but that is the illusion. I hope that you will come to experience me in my full majesty because the day that you do you will experience yourself in this manner. At this higher vibrational level of understanding you cannot help but look into the face of another and see yourself.

And these are my words, this day.

I AM THE COSMIC BUDDHA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The Ascended Masters who come to us in the WST are so much more incredible than we are aware of and we are blessed to connect with them.
- ◆ Yet there is no such thing as comparison within the unity consciousness of Creation.
- ◆ Begin to release your perceptions of the Ascended Ones and allow the true magnificence of this opportunity to come to you.
- ◆ In honouring the Ascended Masters in their magnificence you will accept the vastness of your own being.

Akhnaton : SPIRIT AND JOY

Greetings dearest ones it is I, AKHNATON who comes this day and it is an honour. I come to bring my energies into the Temple, connect with each of you and to draw in the White Star energies that give this Temple its namesake. I ask that you would perceive that the beautiful dome of this Temple becomes translucent and above it you see a wonderful White Star which, in fact, is a beautiful diamond reflecting light. We draw down from this star a column of Divine Light which appears within the middle of this circle. It is a white light that it is powerful yet gentle and perhaps you are beginning to feel the vibration lifting. This light begins to merge with you and all else who are present. As you come in your consciousness you are an energy and that is the reality of your form - a beautiful energy. The energy of Divine Light begins to integrate with your energy field which begins to attune itself to that which it so desires. If you could see all of the cells of energy of your form and experience this consciousness at a quantum level you would be astonished by the absolute joy that you, as energy, are expressing as it recognizes and acknowledges and attunes itself to Divinity. And how wonderful is it that Divine Light is all about you.

Divinity is everywhere, is everything. There are spectrums of Divinity. Keep in mind that any verbalization of such concepts is truly insufficient. There are spectrums and frequencies of Divine Light beside the Outbreath of our Creator and all things within existence. There are also conscious emanations from Spirit, conscious impulses that have been brought into Creation for specific purposes. Each of these impulses speaks to the heart of ourselves and attunes itself to whatever level your consciousness is inhabiting. The Light that is drawn to you this day, the Divine Reflection forwarded to us through the White Star, is a gentle Divine Light for it recognizes that you are inhabiting a lifestream that is just beginning.

The gentleness that comes is like a wonderful parent who is tender to a child. As this Light speaks to your essence you are held, you are embraced, you are loved - and doesn't it feel fantastic! The joy begins to become more conscious, for every cell in your energy field is coming into bliss. There is much joy within your essence that you can experience when you are within your physical realm if you so wish it. All you need to do is to come back to this place, to invoke the White Star Temple, draw down the light from the White Star and allow yourself to be conscious. In reality you can achieve this at any time within your own internal processes however I recognize that the human mind quite often requires structure.

Well, you are becoming as light as a feather and this Temple is pulsating with joy for the consciousness of the Temple is in such gratitude to experience this Divine Light. It is also in such gratitude that you are here as an expression of the Divine. You are at a time within your present incarnation where you can be open to a connection with the higher dimensions if you wish it. Although it is filtered through your third dimension and your perceptions, there is great benefit nonetheless. The peace, love, and enchantment is all here for you to experience and then to integrate. You are not simply here for a few precious moments as you sit in your particular room in your body. Isn't it wonderful to come together in such a way? We all go home and perhaps think no more of it yet the reality is that when you come here and when you leave, you have changed. Each time you come together a consequence of what you have received energetically - allowed in and called out for - is that when you depart you are not the same person and life and reality shapes itself around you accordingly. So do not diminish your time here or its significance yet conversely do not give it great weight and solemn importance either. You are your own guru, so to speak, it is all you. It has already been said in times gone that spirituality is joy and lightness; it is not heaviness, it is not hard work.

Well, I am the oversoul of the Egyptian Ascended Master and I will come again.

Blessings, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ There are spectrums and frequencies of Divine Light.
- ◆ There are conscious emanations and impulses from Spirit that have been brought into Creation for specific purposes.
- ◆ You are at a time where you can be open to a connection with the higher dimensions.
- ◆ When you spend time in the WST you change as a consequence of the energies, so don't diminish your time there.
- ◆ You are your own 'guru' (spiritual teacher).
- ◆ Spirituality is joy and lightness - it is not hard work.

Sananda : HOLOGRAPHIC ETERNITY

Greetings it is I, SANANDA who comes at this time. My vibration is unusually strong this day. This is a new cycle and so there is a stepping up to be experienced, going up to the next rung on the ladder of consciousness. Truly this next cycle is one of incredible acceleration for all who are present here throughout Creation in this place. These energies come to you and you embody them while you are within this vibration and the unity circle that you create. While you are here great acceleration and movement will be experienced and there shall be a peeling away. Some of the veils will begin to fall and as they depart what is revealed will carry you forward into places where you can know, integrate and experience knowledge that is not knowledge but rather is understanding. It is a place of being so much more expanded and a place of love - love not in the way that you would experience it upon the earth in the physical, but love as an understanding of the All That Is. I speak of that wonderful Divine connection that is nothing but love and its expression in Creation as Light. I come not just as that being who you would experience as Sananda as these energies are far too strong for this, for indeed I am the Oversoul of Sananda and you may in fact perceive me as Christ Consciousness itself.

The Christ Consciousness is a stabilizing force within Creation. It is a conduit for Divine compassion. The word compassion may imply emotion, which it is not but it is the closest expression that I can give. This stabilizing vibration weaves its way throughout all of Creation and all the dimensions in existence in the many holographic forms it takes. Your universe in all of its infinite expressions and dimensions is but one beautiful, magnificent, unbelievably divine expression of so many other holographic realities -like a beautiful bubble bath. It is not a good term but each bubble which is blown upon by the Breath of the Creator, expands until the point when it pops and a new bubble is breathed into existence. Yet it is all happening spontaneously and simultaneously and there are constantly holographic universes being breathed, expanded and released and uncreated time and again forever. The All That Is can imagine and experience all there is to be experienced which, of course, is never ending. Once the holographic reality has acquired and expanded in understanding and fulfilled its purpose in the expansion of the All That Is, so it is released and uncreated and the next simultaneously holographic reality goes in a different direction. A differing understanding, knowledge and expanding is gained and experienced then expanded all over again and again and again in different ways. It is like one magnificent bubble bath of Creation or a fractal repeating itself over and over with the same elements but with a completely different understanding and direction. It will go on forever for there is no 'forever' as there is no time and one can never experience all there is to be experienced. It goes on and the more understanding that comes, the more that the All That Is becomes self-realized, the more there is to come.

There is no limitation to what can be acquired, understood, integrated, expressed and experienced. Just when you think that you can imagine that there is no more to know, the All That Is imagines more. To the earth mind, to experience eternity in a literal sense would perhaps be abhorrent. Maybe after the first thousand years or so one imagines that one would become bored and then after many more thousands of years perhaps you would wish that death would come. Well, of course it is not like this at all. This is from a linear, sequential perception that is perfectly aligned with your third dimensional reality but is of course the illusion that we know it is. For you would wish for eternity because you would never be at a loss to experience something new or a different expression of it or a different layer at a higher or lower or sideways dimension and so on. To be within Creation is so amazingly blissful at a soul level. You are in such incredible gratitude for the opportunity at a soul level that you happily go on forever - ripening, awakening, expanding, dissipating - ripening awakening, expanding, dissipating and all with incredible joy. It is nothing at all like the cycle of life and death upon your world and all that goes in between.

Do not judge the rest of Creation by what is experienced in the physical and try not to project on to the rest of Creation your perceptions that are filtered through the physical but be open-armed instead. Be a blank canvas for then the soul can write upon this the truth of your present holographic universe and yet of course, truth is an illusion as well.

Yet all of this eternity, (the coming and going of universes and dimensions, the constant reworking of existence) is only possible through the separation of the Divine into the multiple and the incredible compassion that flows through all of Creation, through the vibration of Christ Consciousness. For the compassion comes for the internal severance from the Divine, from the overarching self that is Totality.

There is a way to view the impetus of this eternal experience of Creation. Rather than become more God realized, and search out God accept and integrate that God is seeking you out; that God is becoming you - rather than the other way around. This is an incredible difference and if you were to accept the understanding of this (and my vibration this day will assist) then you will change the course of your consciousness forever and these are my words this day.

I AM SANANDA,
I AM THE CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Our universe is one of many holographic universes breathed into existence by the All That Is.
- ◆ Each universe is created simultaneously, expands is uncreated then breathed anew.
- ◆ Each holographic universe takes its own unique direction, designed to express Divinity in an infinite number of ways perfect for each reality.
- ◆ One can never experience all there is to be experienced and so Creation goes on forever.
- ◆ You would wish for eternity, for to be in Creation is blissful at a soul level.
- ◆ Within eternity God is seeking you out; is becoming more of you rather than the other way around.

Sanat Kumara : GIFT OF YOU

Greetings dearest ones it is your friend SANAT KUMARA who comes into this beautiful Temple outside of the space/time continuum. The energy field held within this Temple is truly magnificent at this time because of those who are here, including of course your own personal energies. I congratulate each of you for I see the matrix of light that you are. I see how dazzling you are, and shall be. Within this Temple you are not tied to linear time or time itself and so you can manifest here as your overarching self and that self is truly beautiful. Within this self is held all of the experiences from this timeline, all of the steps along the path that have led you to the dazzling, astonishing self that you are.

There is great comfort to this knowledge. Although while in human consciousness you may find it challenging to acknowledge or to integrate this idea of the beautiful self, it is enough to know through confirmation from ones such as myself, that you have already become the radiant, enlightened being that you seek to become. All occurs simultaneously so that this or any lifetime is but the fine detail of how it is that you have come to manifest the overarching self. As we have learned recently, it is not so much that you are becoming more God-like or God-realized but that God is becoming more of 'you' and this distinction is truly profound. How nourishing, inspiring and touching to know that God chooses to become you, expand through you, love through you, become more of you in ways that are completely unable to be expressed. So truly God is really the self, not the self is God.

Although my energies are greatly expanded I draw them to you in a very gentle supporting way this day. Perhaps you are beginning to feel as though you are floating upon a pillar of air for my energy field sustains you at this time, is lifting you, so to speak. All the pinpoints of light that are your energy field are sparkling, are dancing, are moving in the eternal rotation of the spiraling universes. They sparkle this day as they do every day, for the sheer joy of being alive within God's Creation and for God breathing into them. These pinpoints of light are the manifestation of your consciousness yet are also the manifestation of that Godself. They are like tiny little diamonds that reflect outward and inward. These molecules are smaller than any particle you can conceive of and are so excited to be you, to be the fabric or matrix of you, your blueprint and so on. Indeed it is exciting to be you and you are such a wonderful gift to the rest of Creation even though from within your timeline in this place called earth, it seems so far from the truth. Perhaps it is all merely intellectualized, a concept but not a knowing.

I come to confirm that your presence within Creation (all of the multiple universes, all of the bubbles of reality) is a gift to Creation itself. How could it not be? You are God given and therefore you are an incredible offering. For God could imagine no less than you and all else within Creation that is you. It is timely to have these reminders as you enter into a new cycle. Your soul cries out and calls for nourishment for you.

Well, the lightest of touches I place upon you and I hope that you bring into your reality this lightness so that as you walk your path you will not be weighed down by the illusions of life and you will be reminded in a tiny fashion, of the overarching you that dances.

I AM your friend, SANAT KUMARA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ You are already the radiant, enlightened being you seek to become within simultaneous Creation.
- ◆ God chooses to become you and to expand and love through you.
- ◆ It is a wonderful gift to be you and you are a wonderful gift to Creation for you are God given.
- ◆ God could imagine no less than you.
- ◆ You are entering into a new cycle.

Sanat Kumara : SHOWER OF LIGHT

Greetings dearest ones it is I, your friend SANAT KUMARA who comes this day. I come forth but briefly this day to bring a gift for the new cycle that stretches before you. So I ask that you would perceive about you this wonderful White Star Temple of light, however you wish to perceive of it. I ask that you would also begin to perceive that from the wonderful dome the membrane of light that crowns this Temple, that is streaming through this dome like a wonderful waterfall of sparkling light. This is Divine Energy and a shower of light descends about each and every one of you. It is dazzling, it is literally lightening, it is lifting you and it sparkles and dances with the joy that is in the heart of Divinity. You are lit up like a Christmas tree. All of your energy matrix, that wonderful light field that you are, is absolutely blinding with this moving, laughing, loving, dancing, joyous light. There is no difference now between you and it because the energy fields have merged and you have become the shower of light so that this whole etheric Temple is awash. If indeed there were ears to hear with we would all be deafened by the laughter, the joy. I am merged with you, with this Temple that is now just a magnificent matrix of light. All the ones who come to this Temple from the higher, the lower dimensions are joined with us and there is a great mingling or merging for there is no difference between one particle of light and the next, between you and the next. We cannot separate and remembering that, of course in truth, there is only one particle - the Divine Singularity and that particle is repeated. That is not the right word - it is manifest simultaneously to give the illusion of the multiple. In this Temple with this incredible light show going on about us that is us, we see the most tiniest portion of expressions of the All That Is in Creation within the holographic universe that has been spoken of - these little pinpoints of light that are us, that generate so much dazzling light and so much joy and laughter, is but the tiniest portions of all that is manifest and continues to be manifest and unmanifest.

Each time you journey back as the energy that you are, you shine differently each time, you reflect back to God differently each time, in each new bubble of reality. The multi-faceted diamond that is symbolic of you is re-shaped time and again.

The joy that is felt (and I hope that you are feeling some of it) is but the palest reflection of the Divine bliss at being itself in an infinite number of ways, of becoming you, of growing into you, of learning more of you. For the universe is self-generating, self-replicating and self-correcting. So there is great Divine delight in becoming you, of anticipating you as you evolve, you as you express differently in all of the bubbles of reality. To become you is the purpose of God's Creation - it is as simple as that. Yet again within the Divine paradox there is an incredible intricacy to this simplicity that is unfathomable while you are within consciousness of any sort.

Well, I was going to be brief. I leave us now to enjoy the light of us for a little while longer.

I AM your friend, SANAT KUMARA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Experience a shower of light of Divine energy within the WST.
- ◆ A merging between you and the light takes place.
- ◆ The universe is self-generating, self-replicating and self-correcting.
- ◆ The Divine delights in becoming you and anticipating you as you evolve.
- ◆ To become you is the purpose of God's Creation.

Melchizedek : TRANSCENDENCE

Greetings dearest ones it is I, MELCHIZEDEK and my energies are already woven into the fabric of this Temple. It is delightful to be here among you and I welcome those who have not been in this place before. Although that truly is an illusion, for you have been here and shall be here and are here. There is no time and that is why it feels so powerful, yet so gentle to be here in this place for it is known to you and indeed it is known throughout Creation, this Temple you have created.

There are many Temples throughout Creation for there are many thought forms and all that you would think, all that you would intend, manifests. For you upon the earth within the third dimension thought manifests within the astral and comes into your aura. Know that certain intentions, thought forms and understandings transcend into the higher dimensions to become universal. They become situated outside of the bubble of time that you would recognize. I come to encourage you to go beyond your thought forms and intentions for occasionally you will manifest into the areas of Creation that are light. It will be those times when you have transcended your human consciousness and have gone into deep meditation or when you have aligned yourself perfectly with the Divine expression of love. There are thought forms in place that manifest as light and can also manifest as structures of light which you have brought into being even unknowingly. These can be seen by all. Some are of great beauty, some are profound and some inspire gratitude and love in others in Creation. All of these things that we manifest (whether in the astral of your realm, whether in the higher dimensions or indeed outside of dimensions) are tied to our individualized self. It is not as if there is a literal signature there but the knowing is there that this belongs to you.

So dearest ones, to consciously manifest in such a manner would prove to be quite amazing for you, for then you can sculpt in light whatever understanding and knowing makes your heart sing and share this with the universes. God delights in such things and God becomes you in this way as well.

It is not an arduous thing to do; it is merely coming from a transcendent place and from a resonance and an alignment to joy and love. Joy is incredibly important, for you cannot have one without the other; if you are aligned with love, you are instantly aligned with joy and vice versa. To experience joy, to welcome it in and to radiate it outward and to bring it to others is such an incredible service and one which is perhaps much underrated within your world. Joy lives on; the negatives dissipate but the positives always move throughout Creation. To contribute more joy into, not only your own personal reality, but into the greater reality of Creation is a wonderful goal. As has been said, the pinpoints of light of you dance with joy and love and so you are doing it already. The matrix of you does this innately so how wonderful for you while in human consciousness would it be to be able to harness this for this lifetime and so perpetuate the cycle.

Well I come this day to just be with you for that is enough. It is always enough for we are known to each other.

I AM MELCHIZEDEK, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ There are many temples throughout Creation.
- ◆ All that you think and intend manifests.
- ◆ Within our 3rd dimension thoughts manifest within the astral then move into your aura.
- ◆ However, certain thought forms transcend into higher realms.
- ◆ It is possible for you to manifest your thought forms into the areas of Creation that are light.
- ◆ All that you manifest is tied to you; belongs to you.
- ◆ Joy is very important and to bring it to others is an incredible service.
- ◆ Negatives dissipate but the positives always move throughout Creation.

Kuan Yin : CHAKRA ATTUNEMENT

Greetings dearest ones, I have not come before. I am the being that you would know as KUAN YIN. I come through a different aspect of my vibration and I come as a Lady of Light. In essence I am the same being but this aspect is not tethered to your earth as is my aspect that is Kuan Yin. For this aspect is part of your realm. I am in service to your world as that lovely term, goddess and I serve through the vibration of compassion and unconditional love.

The aspect of me that joins you here this day is one who is operating at a frequency of light in a higher dimension. I come not as a goddess or even an Ascended One but on the vibration of light as a seeker and as one who is upon their path toward awareness (I hesitate to use your term enlightenment, but it is something similar). It is a part of me that desires to expand and to grow more of me. It is an aspect of myself that has chosen to learn within this vibration. As you are aware, ones whom come to you in this beautiful Temple increasingly come in their more expanded aspect. You are capable now of receiving so much more in your energy fields and to become aware of how it is that others within Creation, experience. Perhaps you are feeling my energies about you at this time for I come with a great expansion of energy about you. Your crown chakra, like an antennae, picks up on this. Within my essence, although I am experiencing a different aspect, there is always a vibration of light, which we know is a physical manifestation of love. My heart centre is boundless and you are held within it at this time. My heart chakra begins to make itself known to you vibrating a little more quickly. The crown and the heart chakras are linked; love and light. This day I come for no other purpose than to bring you these energies and to very gently agitate those centres of light that you know as the chakras so that they may begin, with your permission, to oscillate at a slightly higher frequency than you have been experiencing. I speak specifically of the crown and heart centres. In both of these centres the diamond light rests and reflects Divine Light.

So what is the purpose of allowing these energy points to oscillate more quickly? It is an attunement. Whenever one works with raising or lowering ones vibration, it is an attunement to higher or lower frequencies. If you accelerate these energy points and you begin to open yourself to, for want of a better term, more radio stations, then more stations appear upon the dial, so to speak. Attunement means that you can encompass more, receive more, and become more aware of what is going on about you. You can choose to draw to you higher energies. What is the purpose of this then? I would say to you that the more you raise the frequency the less likely it is that you can sustain and hold the lower frequencies. Within your energy field the energetic things of your reality, third dimension and your astral realm cease to be able to take a toehold. Like vibrations will often resonate to like vibrations. Lower vibrations that may journey to you and come into your energy field (or attempt to do so) will increasingly be less able to because there simply isn't a means by which the lower energies can connect with you. The resonance will no longer be there. You will no longer be able to sustain that resonance which is a marvelous thing. As you continue along your journey through life at this time and as you increasingly decide to allow higher attunements to occur, then blockages, negativity and self-sabotage increasingly dissipate from your chosen reality. You simply cannot hear them any longer - you cannot hear that radio station.

Well, these words are enough and so I ask that you would sit for a moment with the energies and the light that I bring from this aspect of myself.

I AM KUAN YIN expressed as the LADY OF LIGHT, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Kuan Yin comes as a Lady of Light; a differing aspect of herself.
- ◆ Her heart centre is boundless and you are held within it.
- ◆ She comes forth to gently agitate your chakras so that they may be open to a slightly higher frequency.
- ◆ The purpose of this is an attunement which allows you to have a greater spiritual awareness.
- ◆ Increasingly, lower vibrations will cease to resonate to you.

Maitreya : ASPECT EMBRACE

Greetings it is I, MAITREYA who comes to this Temple and truly the energies here are beautiful. Kuan Yin has served you well for the energy matrix I see before me for each of you and for all of the others who are present shines in a way that is very different than before.

The radiance of you is changing and that is indeed an exciting thing for as your radiance changes it affects all of your lifestreams and timelines throughout Creation. As you appear in all dimensions so it is that your radiance manifests in all dimensions so that what occurs within your energy field has a global reaction and affects all of those lifestreams that you inhabit. Although you take in the energies and words, you are not as passive as you would think. As you project your consciousness into this place of no space/no time you expand your overarching self as well, as if by default. Your radiance is the reflection of your overarching consciousness and that is why your radiance is changing.

The other aspects of you who choose to come to this Temple are contributing to this change also for I see the one energy field of you, but know this - there are so many aspects of you present, there are so many multiples of you here. This is food for thought. You come in your human consciousness from your one timeline in this lifestream but so many other aspects of you access this place and draw from it what is needed for the individualized spiritual evolution of whatever dimension and whatever lifestream that aspect inhabits. Although I see the singular energy field of you I am aware of the multiple. I sense so many of you. Some of these aspects are aware of each other which is a very high evolutionary attainment - to be able to transcend the individual bubbles of reality that separate the multiples of you. Most of your aspects are not aware of themselves but nonetheless all contribute to the ongoing work of art that is you. How wonderful! How good to know that so much of you is in existence and it is a timely reminder that I bring, that you are experiencing so much throughout Creation simultaneously. So how expanded must you be to encompass all of this. All of it is growing that overarching self.

I invite you to call forth an aspect (you do not have to know which or what or how, it doesn't matter). I ask that you would imagine within the centre of this Temple that the White Star above is activated and reflects down Divine Light. There is this shimmering column of light before you and you are basking in the glow. I ask that you would call into this light an aspect of self however you wish to perceive this - perhaps as light, a differing colour of light or a being, it matters not. As you do so the energy begins to change does it not? It is a very different energy now about you. I ask that you would imagine that you step forward into this column of light and standing within it you are bathed within its pure white light. Held within this white light is another vibrational signature of you. Can you feel it?

I leave you for a moment to embrace this other self, or that which you would imagine...

This is but one aspect of you that you encounter. How marvelous to know that this self which inhabits a completely different lifestream, is expressing a very different energy but is working toward the same end as you. Consciously or not, you both work to grow you, evolve, reflect back to the Divine your inner beauty and strive toward the best that can be attained within Creation so as to honour the Creator. This is one aspect of countless aspects and countless facets to your diamond and is loved by your soul as you are. This aspect is journeying through existence as you do and is contributing to God, becoming all of these things. How wonderful to know that so much of you is at work, so to speak! So take heart from this because it means that the burden (and we have said all this before) is not wholly placed upon this one aspect of you in human form.

Each aspect of you is as dazzling and as astonishing as the next and the aspect that is within this column of light has been influenced by you and likewise you have been influenced by this soul. For at a soul level, an oversoul level, an overarching self level, you are a singularity. Whatever is achieved and attained by one facet of you becomes a part of the singularity that is then individualized into the multiple of you. Isn't it wonderful! Our Creator is simply wonderful!

Well, the light recedes - your radiance is different.

I AM MAITREYA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ As your radiance changes it affects all of your lifestreams and timelines throughout Creation.
- ◆ The meditative work that you do in the WST expands your overarching self and therefore changes your radiance within all dimensions.
- ◆ There are many aspects of you that are present within the WST.
- ◆ These aspects draw to them what is needed for their individual, spiritual evolution.
- ◆ Some aspects are aware of each other which is a very high evolutionary attainment; to transcend the separation of realities.
- ◆ All aspects of you have the common goal of growing you, and each aspect of you is astonishing and dazzling.

Mary : STILLNESS & FAITH

Greetings dearest ones it is I, MARY who comes at this time. I come in my galactic capacity as a Master of the Stars but I am also known as the 'Stillness within the heart', for that is one of my vibrations which I inhabit. It is such an evocative term but it is the closest that I can use to best describe the energies that I am bringing to you this day in this Temple. Perhaps you can feel about you and within you the stillness that I bring.

Stillness is not a nothingness. It is not inaction. It is a different spectrum of being and we know, and you have learned, that there is a Divine Stillness simultaneous within Divine Chaos or activity. What I draw through me from the Divine Stillness is an aspect of this that is filtered through my own persona so that a unique vibration is formed and shared by me with you and wherever else I am guided to transmit. The Stillness within the heart - I Am. And this stillness is profound for it can only occur with an alignment to Divinity. The stillness brings great clarity because of this alignment. I ask that you perceive that an alignment is taking place within you, if you so choose it. It is like your spine being corrected, to use a metaphor - a straightening, a realignment, a truth as it is emanated from the Divine. The stillness within the heart is not about relaxation, it is about the void, the Divine. It comes upon you now as if a beautiful, soft garment were cloaking you as light as a feather's touch and with it comes a sense of peace, yet a knowing. Knowing is faith and so an alignment to the Divine Stillness fortifies faith. Faith and trust are often used as interchangeable terms and although they are similar they are not the same thing. For trust is trusting that all is as it should be for example, but faith is a knowing, a knowing that all is as it should be. And there lies the difference.

This day I come to you and radiate out with this stillness so that you may, if you desire of it, grow your faith, knowingness and surety. Faith within a greater context than your language, is all this and so much more. In truth it is inexpressible. Faith in its purest form, in its Divine form, in its First Manifestation is such a profound thing of beauty, it is so delicate. It is so incredible, empowering and strengthening. I would liken faith in its purest form to an intricate, delicate piece of lace that is held together and comprised of strands woven in a beautiful pattern or blueprint. Faith when it is held within the stillness of the heart is able to bring all of the strands together and to weave them into the most wonderful mandala of your consciousness.

Faith is something that is cohesive. It holds together the bigger picture while allowing and honouring the individual strands.

You, dearest ones and all who are present in this Temple and all who are drawn to these recordings, are capable of growing your faith in ways that will be accelerated and far reaching. It goes hand in hand with consciousness expansion because the more that you embrace within Creation the more that your personal faith is fueled and becomes more radiant, the more that it is imperative for you to be aligned with Divine Stillness. It shall serve you well in your present timeline and human capacity. For faith is something that cannot be learned or passed on, yet it is so much a part of your blossoming. This cosmic faith I speak of can be the seed from which your knowing and therefore your actions, germinate. It is time if you are not already doing so, to step more into faith and therefore step more into action - to act upon that which is known within and beyond this, to act upon one's direct link to Divine Stillness and Divine Chaos or potential.

Well, the words are not necessary, dearest friends, for the energies are gifted to you this day and they are given because you are ready and the delicate lacework of your inner faith is already so beautiful. Where you are going, where you are heading requires an expansion of this faith. It will come naturally; it will evolve with you.

And so my words serve the purpose this day of reminding you to utilize this stillness within the heart more consciously so that you can be more fully realigned with Divine purpose.

And these are my words this day.

I AM MARY, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Mary comes as a Master of the Stars yet is also known as the 'Stillness within the Heart' because of the vibration she holds.
- ◆ This stillness can only occur with an alignment to Divinity.
- ◆ Faith is also an alignment to Divinity and stillness strengthens faith.
- ◆ Faith is knowing all is as it should be.
- ◆ It holds together the bigger picture and honours the multiple within that picture.
- ◆ Faith is part of consciousness expansions and will evolve with you.

Sanat Kumara : COSMIC FAITH

Greetings dearest ones and all who are present, seen and unseen in this White Star Temple, it is your friend, SANAT KUMARA. I am with esteemed company for there are many Masters of the Stars who are present. Dearest Mary in her galactic capacity is such a sparkling diamond of light that graces you this day. The stillness that has been spoken of is already a part of this living Temple for the Temple itself is comprised of your individual energy fields.

In your visualizations it is tempting to perceive this Temple as a structure of light that is independent of oneself - that it manifests magically with light. The light comes from you as you are the structure of this Temple and the light that you perceive in whatever form you see this Temple, is your own and is unified with those who are present. This changes from moment to moment depending upon who is operating within this Temple. The overall unified consciousness that comes with this togetherness is the consciousness of the White Star Temple that has addressed you in the past.

Faith is a delicate thing, filtered through into your dimension, to your aspect. Faith is seen as a quality rather than an actual living vibration. As it is relegated to a quality it is easily won and lost for it is not honoured and acknowledged as a vibration; a living energy that is part of ourselves that we nurture and which in turn nurtures us. Simply put, cosmic faith is certainty. It is a certainty that comes from absolutely knowing throughout all of the particles of light, that God exists. It is as simple as that for there is nothing else that you need know or have faith about. For if you know this within every fibre of your being, it encompasses all else, does it not?

Once you accept and fully integrate a faith in our Creator then everything within Creation is also accepted and honoured. You upon the earth realm so often speak of an acceptance of God, subscribing to God. It is such an odd way of viewing the Divine for, like faith, it is seen as a quality, a construct, a belief. Yet belief is different again from faith, as faith is different again from trust. To know that there is a Creator, again I say to you, is to know all, accept all and to be open to all. Words do not do justice in this aspect for it is so intangible. Knowing God from within your third dimension is a filtered process and involves trust. Yet when you are operating from your cosmic consciousness it is as if you inhabit God, it is as if you become God and God becomes you. I cannot express it otherwise. This is faith at its purest level. It is a direct experience of the Divine.

I say to you to journey to that stillness within the heart more often and particularly to work with Mary in her galactic capacity. She so generously allows this spectrum to move through her so that faith in your life ceases to be a quality, an adjective or description and instead becomes a deep profound experience. The Divine and therefore all of the holographic universe which you occupy, will come into your consciousness or more precisely, your consciousness will allow the holographic universe to reveal itself. It is abstract, I know.

The energies that have been brought to you this day have been in a sense, chiropractic and that is a good thing and you will see the results of this. It is always such a joy to come among you. I cannot help myself, as cannot the others who come here in service, but to continue to praise you. I am sure that it is not a hard task to listen to such praise. Dearest ones I am more astonished each time I am within your presence as the purity and joy of you is so much more apparent. When we are not inhabiting physical lifetimes and when we are within our energy field and consciousness as we are in this place, it is impossible not to delight in and to experience immense joy from interacting and being in the presence of others and of ourselves. When the human consciousness slips away with all of its judgments then the veils that create the artificial means by which you can separate yourselves from each other and from God are not present. It is then that those within Creation find incredible delight in being amongst itself, in being in the presence of others within Creation. Without the veils and the judgment all that remains is an expression of our Creator, through you in its infinite variety. It is so fantastic to encounter because each is so unique. When I experience the essence of you, I know I have that faith and knowingness that I am experiencing another facet of God. I am seeing God, experiencing God, being delighted by the thought that you are as well.

We know that you delight in ones who you would call the Ascended Masters coming to you and speaking and sharing their energies. Hopefully you do, indeed feel honoured. Yet times this by a billion or more and you get a sense of how wonderful it is to be in the presence of you, of me, of all else who may be joined with us because it is the presence of God. It is not the Divine void which is something again and which is the all-encompassing profoundness, the inscrutable part of our Creator, the Source (that is such a true term to use). As we exist within Creation and as our Creator moves through and expands through Creation, breathing into it and manifests as us, then we see the face of God. Each of us becomes a mirror. Each of us is that wonderful facet of the overarching diamond of Creation reflecting Divine Light outward and inwards.

So how wonderful to be here among you – it is praise because God deserves no less than praise. The energies will speak of this more clearly to you but do not forget this message for it will serve you well in your physical consciousness because it will assist you in being able to see God more fully within those with whom you interact in the physical.

These are my words to you this day and I embrace you in my light and I soak up your light because I know from where it comes and, of course, it comes from the Divine.

I AM SANAT KUMARA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The unified consciousness of those present within the WST form its structure.
- ◆ Faith is a living energy within us that we can nurture.
- ◆ Faith is a certainty that God exists.
- ◆ Once you accept faith in our Creator then everything within Creation is also accepted and honoured.
- ◆ When operating from your Cosmic Consciousness you become God and God becomes you.
- ◆ Faith at its purest level is a direct experience of the Divine.
- ◆ Developing faith will allow the holographic universe to reveal itself.
- ◆ When we experience the essence of each other we are experiencing a facet of God.
- ◆ Therefore Creation delights in itself.
- ◆ Each of us becomes a mirror reflecting Divine Light outward and inwards.

Teachings
from the
White Star Temple

Lecture Series Four

Akhnaton : WHO AM I?

Greetings dearest ones it is I, the oversoul of Akhnaton who comes to be with you in this Temple and perhaps you have felt the energies already for truly they are immense. The vibration is strong as there are many ones, more than there has ever been, who join you this day in this Temple and so there has been a surge in energies.

Well, I come to speak briefly and simply of that which is the one and only question that requires an answer within existence. As you are aware you are a soul occupying a human form. There are billions of you upon this earth occupying human form, all of which are individualised souls. You are aware that you have a higher self and everybody else has a higher self. Then there is an oversoul and humanity as a concept has an overarching soul. Human consciousness desires to know itself and to experience the human condition. So the human oversoul became the multiple, became the billions of souls that inhabit this earth because it posed a fundamental question, the only question, 'Who am I?' All of you went forth into human form and into the challenge of the physical to answer that question in a billion unique ways.

The human consciousness, the oversoul of humanity is part of greater Creation of course. Greater Creation has but one question and that is 'Who am I?'. So, the overarching soul of Creation became the multiple. It became individualised into an infinite number of species and expressions to search and answer that question. It is like a beautiful fractal with each Divine pattern branching off, repeating itself with the same fundamental question. At the same time sending out little leaves to answer that query and these leaves are souls.

Creation was impulsed with this one and only question, for as we trace it back, it originates from the Divine Mind. We pass through the light of Creation into the consciousness of our Creator, the Void, who did ask and put forward this one question, 'Who am I?' and, Creation came into being and continues to do so again, and again - all down the line of this wonderful fractal, repeating itself. There is that one thread which reverberates throughout eternity and it is 'Who am I?'.

There needs to be only ever one question asked. For humans it is often tempting to ask 'Who am I?' and then 'Why am I here?', but all subsequent questions in truth are irrelevant. God our Creator needed to ask only this one thing for held within the answer of this one question are the answers to all questions. If you can answer this Divine query then you know why you are here and you know the heart of God. When you come into self awareness, then it will be time for Creation to be Un-Created and breathed anew. But that is some time yet. Upon your path the more that one tries to answer ‘Who am I?’, the more is revealed of oneself and the more one must query again. Each time more of you is revealed, self-awareness becomes expanded and so forth. It is like looking into a marvelous crystal. The more that you look, the more that you see, so, the more that you look. That is you and that is God.

By coming into self-realisation which is an ongoing quest, you are aligning yourself with God’s will. It is an impulse within you, within all souls and within all of Creation to quest and to discover who you are. The more that you find, the more that is revealed and so the more that our Creator wishes to see, find and love. I say this to you now for you are evermore coming into an expanded consciousness and you will find, as is with the best of spirituality that the most profound knowing is usually the simplest.

Although it is truly exciting and in truth expansive to wish to learn of the mechanics of your universe (and I am speaking of the metaphysical mechanics) the only relevant question is ‘Who am I?’. All else is icing on the cake and part of the joy of experiencing Creation and co-creating it. It is a by-product of being within existence but the fundamental impulse, the thought that went out, the question that is posed for all time is simply ‘Who am I?’. In answering this question, we know who God is.

I am discovering Me. I hold this question within my consciousness for I am the oversoul of this one Akhnaton. The multiples of me go forward with this question so that I may reveal more of myself. As I am revealed it goes back along the fractal to my overarching self and to the soul of the vibration upon which I am expressed. It continues to Creation itself through the Angelic Realm which was part of the First Manifestation. Into the Divine Void goes the resonance of Me, goes my answer - and it changes, for again, the more that I find of Me, the more there is to find, which is why eternity exists.

Well, I AM AKHNATON, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ There is only one question that requires an answer within existence; "Who am I?".
- ◆ Creation was impelled with this question originating from the Divine Mind.
- ◆ Held within the answer to this one question are the answers to all questions.
- ◆ The more you try to seek the answer, the more is revealed of yourself, so the more that you seek and so on for eternity.
- ◆ When you come into self-awareness then it will be time for Creation to be uncreated and breathed anew.

Serapis Bey : ORDINARINESS

Greetings it is I, SERAPIS BEY who comes this day to speak with you and of course, to bring my energies to this Temple. Dearest ones, I come briefly to impart a simple message that is relevant to your earth existence but I will also stay so that my energies continue to be part of this day.

I wish to speak humbly about ordinariness and to me it is such a beautiful idea. Ordinariness, the ordinary, is day to day existence. Upon your earth there is this marvelous impulse to extraordinariness; to go beyond the ordinary. Sometimes this has been classified as heroism particularly in such a place as earth where negativity sits alongside the positive. Many ones strive for excellence but this is a differing concept again. So many upon their spiritual path are yearning to transcend the ordinary and to experience the extraordinary for as I have said it is part of the human impulse. I would say to you as wonderful and charming a goal as that can be, it is the ordinary moments which are of equal, if not more significance. For as you are aware 99% of your days are filled with this ordinariness and the heroism, the transcendence, the extra-ordinary is a rarity. It is those small moments that comprise your days where true growth lies. From second to second you are living out your lives and within those seconds, choices are being made such as how it is that you interact with and respond to those about you and what it is that you fill your seconds up with - the work that you do, the play that you undertake, your meditations and so on. If we break time down to these seconds, then each second involves a choice and then we see how significant our daily lives are, for each second influences the following second and so forth. Each unconscious and conscious decision from second to second is in actuality, for is not your whole life comprised of, the passing of seconds?

I come to encourage you to not diminish the ordinariness of your lives but to value it and to give it significance because it is at the end of the day, the whole of your life except in those rare circumstances where transcendence comes into being. To value the ordinariness is to honour what God has given you. God has given you each second of your life and each second is not to be repeated. So how special and unique is the life that you are living? One never knows if the next second may be the last for this present incarnation. If God desired that every waking moment be filled with transcendent extraordinary moments of absolute heroism then ordinariness would not exist yet it does for good reason. It is in these small moments that we learn about ourselves, we embrace others and interact with them, we shape our lives and build our futures and interpret our past. Some things are just uncomplicated. For how many seconds can you choose to stare at a blade of grass, to listen to a bee buzz by, to catch the wind in your hair, to catch a spray of rain etc? What marvelous moments these are and yet they are too easily passed by, dismissed, forgotten and taken for granted. In our lives and even within ourselves there is the temptation at a moment to moment level to diminish and take oneself for granted by shying away from allowing ones radiance to shine from second to second in those beautiful, special, ordinary aspects of your life. Each second you experience is never to be repeated in the same way again and so is utterly unique in Creation. You are aware that each second is transmitting information back to our Creator for our Creator is experiencing through you and God delights in these small moments otherwise they would not be manifested. They are the nuts and bolts, so to speak, of human existence. So dearest ones be mindful of how it is that you spend your time. Be grateful for the moments that you have. Take joy in the ordinariness of day-to-day living. This is my message this day.

I AM SERAPIS BEY, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The small moments that comprise your days is where true growth lies, for 99% of your life is filled with ordinariness.
- ◆ God has given you each second of your life and each second is never to be repeated; it is utterly unique.
- ◆ To value the ordinariness is to honour God for these moments for through them we learn about ourselves and shape our lives.
- ◆ God delights in the small moments otherwise they would not be manifested. You can delight in them too.

Sanat Kumara : MOVEMENT & BLESSING

Greetings, it is I your good friend, SANAT KUMARA and as ever it is an honour to be here amongst you within this White Star Temple. What a lovely message has been given by our dearest Ascended One, Serapis Bey. Truly there is wisdom in this message. To be mindful of those ordinary moments is to maximize your potential here on earth as well as aspiring to the extraordinary. In tandem both of these goals bring to you the life that God wishes to exist through and it is certainly something to be conscious of; to remember that God is living through you, that God is becoming you.

I have come to join you and the many other ones who are present within this place outside of the space-time continuum. I ask that you perceive the Temple about you however you wish to do so. Outside of this Temple is the majesty of the cosmos through all dimensions. The multidimensional cosmos is a place filled with dazzling light, colour, tone and expression. All throughout Creation there are ones inhabiting souls who are also experiencing their lives as you do. Although time is unique to your third dimension it does not mean that outside of your dimension there is not a concept of a passage of time, so to speak. This is not in your literal sense but in a sense that there is a movement forward and that things are being achieved and attained with all the time in the world in which to do it. Although manifestation can occur instantaneously it does not mean that there is not a sense or indeed a sequence to those manifestations which souls bring into being. For although there is in truth the Eternal Now and the simultaneous expression of Creation, while you are in it you feel the sense of all the time in the world. This is one of the Divine paradoxes where anything and everything occurs in the one moment and that moment stretches on forever. So sequence, a playing out and an unfoldment occurs as the Outbreath of our Creator continues on expanding the cosmos. So know that those seconds that comprise your hours and days are occurring simultaneously when not within the construct of your space-time continuum. Yet there is a sequence to this; there is a Divine unfolding to it that also incorporates your free will and your soul orchestrates your passage of time and so you are in good hands, indeed.

I come primarily this day to share with you my energies and to impart a blessing. I am not like dearest Sananda of the Christ Consciousness, who embodies Divine blessing. I do not take upon this mantle but I pass on the blessings that I receive from Divinity to those who I am in service to. I am in service to you in the Temple and so perhaps you are beginning to feel a swell of energy about you as I bring the grace that I am given so humbly from Divinity. May grace and blessings fill every second of your day. It can do so because it is within the Eternal Now despite the illusion that seconds pass. So I ask that you would sit for a moment to integrate that which I am offering you if you indeed wish to accept this. It is my great joy to be able to pass along energetically to you that which is so abundant within Creation and that is, of course, our Creator's love, compassion and goodwill.

I AM your friend SANAT KUMARA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Outside of our dimension there is also a concept of a passage of 'time', but not in our sense, rather, a movement forward.
- ◆ Everything occurs in the one moment but that moment stretches forever.
- ◆ Within this moment then, a sequence of manifestations is perceptible.
- ◆ This sequence may be known as a Divine unfolding which also incorporates your free will.

Maitreya : INITIATION

Dearest ones it is I, MAITREYA who comes into the Temple this day and indeed it is an auspicious day and there are many ones who are present with you. The Temple itself is vibrating at a special frequency for it has its own consciousness. With your energy fields, you form the structure of this Temple and so you are also vibrating at a special frequency this day.

Today is, for want of a better word, an initiation and it is such an evocative term, is it not? It implies that one is about to pass through a doorway and that doorway holds wondrous potential. All who are present are afforded this opportunity together with all who would access this message. All about you are ones who you would term, ascended for many have gathered here at this moment to be with those who are present in the Temple. The energies are dynamic for there is so much wisdom, grace and love present. There is so much light and perhaps you can feel a sense of anticipation or even excitement amongst the crowd, if you could call it this, for we are all here in our consciousness. Yet there is such joy at gathering together so let us take a moment to become aware of this. You may also become aware of those conscious beings who are about you.

Dearest ones you have been accessing this Temple for a little while now and for some of you, quite some time. In truth all of you have been accessing this Temple since its inception and will so until its transformation. I do not use the word 'closure' but this Temple, in the course of its being, will indeed transform into something different again because you shall transform also and as you are the structure then this makes sense.

This day we come to celebrate the fact that we are together within existence and have access to such a beautiful being as this White Star Temple. We, who you call Ascended Ones, are afforded the opportunity to be in service here for this is a wonderful gift that each of you gives us. We are doing our calling by following Divine impulse and we are growing ourselves through service. We could not do this if you did not invite us and call us to you. For indeed there is a special bond between us.

I ask that you perceive in the centre of this Temple a magnificent shaft of light that descends from the White Star and which reflects God's Light. It is beautiful. It is like a shower of light; it is soft as if it were the water's mist that happens around a waterfall and through which rainbows occur. This represents a gateway, or a doorway for each who are present. For you see it is time, in this place of no time, to open a doorway into new possibilities; new opportunities for each of you no matter in which dimension you reside and no matter what spiritual evolution is related to your frequency of existence. So it will mean many things to many ones and it can because it is a Divine doorway. As with any door or gateway it is always prudent to look upon it before you knock to be sure that you wish to pass through. I ask that each of you take a moment to be still within oneself. Take the opportunity while in this place of no time and no space to connect with that knowing within, which is outside of your earthly existence, (that multidimensional knowing) and to ask the self “what am I ready for?”.

You have the opportunity to call in that which you would wish for. I am not speaking of your spiritual work or of the material - naturally these things are transient, they are part of the illusion of your physicality. We are operating at a higher dimensional level and so your gaze must be upon your soul. Your inner knowing will reveal what you require at a soul level for the soul is purely concerned with ‘being’. What is it that your soul wishes that you in your earth incarnation can manifest? For whatever you do in your earth life, it is so that you can grow your soul. Your soul takes from your earth life the fundamental spiritual experiences. There are only two things that the soul recognizes and that is how you have loved, and who you have served. Love and service, as you well know, are the only requirements that your soul has placed upon you in your human consciousness to attain, strive toward and manifest. For the soul does not recognize anything that may be considered outside of these boundaries. It does not recognize negativity, it certainly doesn’t recognize evil and as such the soul is never stained by what humans perceive as the ‘darkness’. You could massacre entire populations and your soul would not be affected but it would not be grown. It would not be enhanced for duality, as you are aware, is part of your illusion and is the mechanism that allows love and service to arise. There is only ever the Eternal Now, that one present time that shapes the past and the future and just as you create, you also uncreate. For example, if you, in one lifetime, slayed a creature but in another or several lifetimes, you grew yourself through love and service to the point where you could not possibly conceive of slaying another creature, then the previous consciousness ceases to exist. It never happened because you cannot conceive of ever doing this. Whatever is your present consciousness creates your reality and therefore you do not truly sin, so to speak. The soul remains unaffected because you can uncreate that which previous levels of consciousness have created. They just cease to be, they cease to be part of your reality. Outside of the space-time continuum this can happen - it all ebbs and flows - bubbles of reality come into being, they break, so to speak and are released and are no more. I should say they are transcended. This is outside of the wheel of karma which is another mechanism within your physical realm but is entirely different. Well, I digress. Your soul is only ever interested in love and service. What can you do, what can you call in that would enhance your soul and honour God?

I ask that you open this door if you so choose to do so and step into this light or conversely allow the light to step into you. You shall be initiated into a new level of being; of being able to do that which the soul requires. It means more responsibility. For the wiser and more loving one becomes, the more expanded one becomes. All of this leads to mastery and mastery means one thing - to be more in service and to take upon ones shoulders a greater responsibility toward the rest of Creation. It is to gladly take upon oneself a greater burden than has been expected from those who have not chosen the path of mastery. Each has this capacity - you can become, already are, have been, masters. For in the simultaneous expression of Creation all of this has, will, and is, occurring. All ones throughout Creation have already become what you call enlightened, for this phase of existence, until such time as it is transcended and existence is thought anew with new explorations. As you are living out the fine detail of this simultaneousness you have the opportunity to begin to turn your focus toward another aspect of this fine detail in this lifetime and that is why it is such a special occasion, a special day.

I am not speaking of becoming what you call a ‘guru’ upon your planet for that is still part of the illusion. All of earth’s spirituality is part of the illusion - that is how it is and it is not to be diminished because of this. It is perfectly relevant and valid to the great university of your illusion. I am speaking, rather, of turning your personal consciousness up a notch into a much higher perception of mastery which is something that can unfold and it is not for me to define in any way. The energies are stronger and the Divine Light is present and although my words may seem somber and serious, if you were to visualize me in any form then I would be smiling from ear to ear. For it is truly a joyous occasion and all of the Ascended Ones who are present do so because they have such love and dedication toward you and all else in Creation whom you would touch. For you each are like pebbles that will be dropped into the pond of life and the ripples will go out. That is how we see you at this moment, at this crossroad and what a wonderful vision that is. Your influence at a spiritual level is vast, for what you take back into your human consciousness grows from week to week and it may go unnoticed by you and may not be something you are particularly conscious of. We have often remarked upon the growing radiance about each of you. To become a beautiful pebble, an instrument of God that can create ripples across the pond of lives about you is such a special privilege and we are here to be part of that process. We are joyful for this, for you are and we are, inhabiting the fine detail. Part of the joy comes from the knowledge that the goal is reached. There is no failure; there is no lack of attainment for any being within Creation. For existence lasts but one moment and within that moment, all has been attained. The genius of the Divine is, that this moment goes on forever yet, in truth, is so fleeting. To be conscious of that process and knowing the outcome is incredibly uplifting. One need not admonish oneself for perceived failures, lack of discipline, or will, or for falling down twenty times. It doesn't matter for in the end and at the beginning we are each perfection. To be in the fine detail, for our consciousness to have narrowed itself down to pinpoints of lifetimes, is simply an opportunity to just explore, grow, be in joy but more importantly, to be loved and to be of service.

This, my friends, is your initiation this day.

I AM MAITREYA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Maitreya offers you a gateway through which to pass into new possibilities and opportunities.
- ◆ You can call-in whatever it is your soul guides you to ask for as part of your life's journey.
- ◆ Your soul takes from your earth life the fundamental spiritual experiences.
- ◆ Your soul recognises only two things; love and service. These are the only requirements that your soul has placed upon you to attain while in human form.
- ◆ Maitreya initiates you into a new level of being which brings more responsibility.
- ◆ Within the simultaneous nature of existence you are already a master and enlightened.
- ◆ Within our physical realm, however, you are living out the steps (fine detail) to this goal.
- ◆ There is no failure or lack of attainment for any being within Creation.
- ◆ Your influence at a spiritual level is vast; you are like a beautiful pebble dropped upon the pond of life and ripples of you go out and touch others.

Galactic Ashtar: GALACTIC CONSCIOUSNESS

Greetings dearest ones, I have not come before but I have been present for some time. I am Ashtar who comes and perhaps there are those of you who are most familiar with me. I come in an expanded aspect of the one who you refer to as Ashtar, an Ascended One.

The aspect who is present with you now is of a higher dimensional frequency whose essence is still linked to that which you would generally call the stars. I come forth on the vibration of that which is galactic. Individual celestial bodies have a consciousness, have a spiritual body and have their counterparts in other dimensions. Galaxies too have their own unique vibration and I would dare to say, soul.

You are aware by now of the multiple within the Singularity as all refers back to the Divine. Just as humans have a group consciousness as a species, galaxies may be known as the group consciousness of celestial bodies which are drawn together to form such a magnificent entity as a galaxy. Of course the galaxies belong to even larger structures which are termed super-clusters of galaxies - again the multiple within the Singularity. All eventually refers back to the universe as a whole, and as it is a universe amongst many then the whole pattern or fractal repeats again.

I say all of this so that you can appreciate that I come forth this day as a galactic presence. I am operating upon the vibration of the soul of a galaxy and I am blessed to have such a place within the Divine cosmos. The aspect of me that you are so familiar with, that gives the name to the Ashtar Command is but one speck, so to speak, amongst the many manifestations that I exhibit, as of course do you. Ashtar, the ascended fifth dimensional being, is a part of my fine detail and there is a larger part of myself than my galactic presence, and so on. My energies are much larger, are much deeper than certainly the channel would experience of Ashtar.

The opportunity to inhabit the oversoul of so many entities which comprise the vibration I am holding for them, so that they may be umbrella'ed and grouped together, is truly humbling. It is such an honour and I do not say this to in any way magnify myself, for that is completely irrelevant. In truth one must own the magnificence of the self for to not is to dishonour that which thought us into being.

As a vibration of a galaxy I embrace the multiple energies and consciousness of those celestial bodies within my aura, if you could call it such. In your physical realm there is gravity, which holds the galaxies together and which indeed holds your solar system together and so on. We must always recall that the physical is a reflection of the higher realms and the spiritual (as above, so below) and therefore gravity is merely a physical expression of that which manifests in the higher realms at a much higher vibration. It is my consciousness that holds a particular galaxy together.

There are many ones such as I, for there are countless galaxies and your whole universe has its counterpart vibrationally within the spiritual. It is not unlike those images which you receive upon your televisions which really are a series of static and when you view those images up close you begin to see the matrix. They may be called electrical impulses to you but it is a metaphor for the shimmering energy field that is behind the illusion; the mask of the physical realm. That shimmering matrix of energy is a wonderful woven tapestry of entities and vibrations that have consciousness and do God's work in this way. Perhaps there is an aspect of you, my dearest ones, which is the vibration of a galaxy. Perhaps there is a 'you' who is holding whole universes within your embrace so that our Creator's Outbreath and Vision can express itself through the light which is held.

When you look upon the night sky and the dazzling beauty of those pinpoints of light or if you have the good fortune to see through a telescope into deeper space you will see majestic images of galaxies and nebulae and all other manner of expression within your physical universe. As you do this think about the entities, and consciousness which allows these manifestations in the physical to occur for you and for all else within your third dimensional Creation.

The galaxy which you occupy (your beautiful Milky Way) is the most wonderful consciousness. She holds within her grasp the billions of stars and planets and the finest particles of stardust and through her consciousness manifests everything including all the physical laws with which the galaxy is formed. Nothing within existence throughout all spectrums of being is without consciousness. Everything is held together in this wonderful jigsaw of interrelating vibrations yet vibration also has consciousness as you learned through the wonderful entity 'That Which I Am'.

I thank you for this opportunity and I hope that your night sky takes on a differing dimension for you, becoming more intimate. You are being cradled at all levels while in your physical form.

I AM GALACTIC ASHTAR, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Galaxies have their own unique vibration and soul.
- ◆ Galaxies are the group consciousness of the celestial bodies they draw together.
- ◆ The Galactic Ashtar is of the soul vibration of a galaxy and is a larger aspect of the Ascended Master Ashtar.
- ◆ Gravity is a physical expression of the higher vibration that holds galaxies together.
- ◆ Our whole physical universe has its vibrational counterpart within the spiritual.
- ◆ Our Milky Way is a wonderful consciousness and holds within her all that is within our galaxy.
- ◆ The universe is a shimmering matrix of energy; a woven tapestry of vibrations that have consciousness.
- ◆ Perhaps there is an aspect of you which is the vibration of a galaxy.

Cosmic Buddha : INNER & OUTER

Greetings dearest ones it is I, the COSMIC BUDDHA who is with you at this time. How wonderful for you to have the essence of the galaxy grace your Temple and although human words are spoken, in actuality ones such as this are so far beyond the simplicity of language and the simplicity of physical realms. How Creation is held together by Creation itself through the impulse of the Divine is beyond understanding for all including I, and that is part of the mystery of life. Without it why would we seek and dream and so the mystery and the mystical is such an important part of Divine expression, for it is a great motivator toward discovery.

I come not to speak of this but to simply speak of the universe for it has been a topic that is now chosen. There is a marvelous expression within your human spirituality of the universe within. It is the interior of seeking out the mysteries of life by going perfectly within and there being no delineation between 'without' and 'within'. The simple adage of the macrocosm and the microcosm are kernels of truth within your realm. It is exactly thus that the wonderful holographic universes that ebb and flow through the mind of our Creator exist purely in consciousness, does it not? There is no 'outer' to the All That Is as there can only ever be an interior and even that is a falsehood for there just is the All That Is. For we within Creation there is no 'outer' or 'inner' in truth. The expanse of your wonderful, physical universe, the universes of light, the holographic universes is absolutely mind bogglingly vast by your conception, you who are thinking within space and time. Yet this vastness, which seems so external, is equally vast internally for it is one and the same. The universe exists within your consciousness - it doesn't exist 'out there'. Even your physical realm does not exist 'out there' and you know that the physical is an ingenious illusion and one that is almost impossible to overcome but why should you as that is the point of being in the physical. Everything that is out there - so vast, so majestic, encompassing and incorporating all species, consciousnesses, vibrations - is actually held within. I am not speaking just of your human consciousness or the place that you go to in your meditations but of an entirely holistic level. This ties in with your knowledge that you are the Singularity and so all of Creation therefore is held within you. So to understand Creation is to turn ones gaze upon oneself and the challenge is to go past the human consciousness, that is the veil. By going into a deeper consciousness you refer oneself back to the beginning point of the Singularity before you became the multiple. You then see that all of this is but a thought that you had, that you have, that you will have and that you are still having.

Dearest Ashtar, in his capacity as a consciousness that inhabits a galaxy and holds its vibration in place, spoke so eloquently of the intimacy of your universe and so it should be known to you. For it is you and it is like turning an eggshell inside out; it looks exactly the same on the inside as it does on the outside. No matter which way you turn things it will always be the same for there is no 'inner', there is no 'outer'. When you can integrate this, even a little, if you can glimpse the abstraction I am speaking of (which is so limited by human language) you would unleash within the secrets of the universe, that which can be known, beyond that which cannot be known. Which, of course originates with the All That Is. The mystery.

Creation can be known and so I say to you that next when you look up to your beautiful night sky delight in the knowledge that so many consciousnesses are weaving the sky together for you but to also know that what is up there is what is inside. You are not looking up, you are looking in.

These are my words this day

I AM THE COSMIC BUDDHA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The universes exist purely in consciousness so it is an illusion that there is an 'outer' or 'inner' experience; they are one and the same.
- ◆ As the Singularity, all of Creation is held within you.
- ◆ To understand Creation is to turn inward.
- ◆ An integration of this concept is profoundly transformational.

Sananda : DIVINE STILLNESS

Greetings it is I, SANANDA who comes this day in an expanded capacity and perhaps you are feeling the energies as such.

I wish to take you upon a little journey and so I ask that you imagine that you are above the earth. You are peering down and you see this earth but as we ascend higher toward the angelic realm we no longer see the physicality of this earth or the physicality of your home or country upon this planet. We see instead the shimmering matrix of light that underpins the illusion of physicality in your dimension. Yet we do not cease to experience the earth as an entity. We sense it and we also sense the incredible flames of light that represent every living creature and which are woven through this tapestry of light and it is absolutely beautiful. The colours; there is so much vibrancy, light, movement, sound, song and joy for it is Creation celebrating itself. There are many consciousnesses that are responsible for holding this matrix in place and perhaps you become aware of them tending to this structure of light

We move upward and backward further than this; we refer ourselves backward beyond the soul realm and within the soul realm is where Creation experiences itself and where the soul evolves. As such the overriding impulses for all whom are in existence is ‘how have I loved and whom have I served?’ The soul impulses this into your manifestations and your aspects and the question of ‘who am I?’ reverberates throughout Creation. We know of this and within the context of the soul realm it is perfectly valid, relevant and significant. It has profound meaning and it is compulsory, for the soul is impelled from the Divine and so you are the receiver of this impulse.

We now transcend the soul realm - we refer back to the First Manifestation where the Angelic Principle resides and where my expanded aspect of the Christ Consciousness resides. For I am outside of the soul realm which is why I can be considered a Divine Light, a guiding light. Outside of the soul realm spiritual laws cease to apply. There is no longer the question of ‘who am I?’ nor ‘how have I loved and whom have I served?’ for these are of the soul, necessary for its evolution and for Creation to become self-realized and God-realized. Yet as we journey backwards to the Divine and as we move even further still past the First Manifestation, all such things not only cease to be relevant but cease to be. For we transcend the inner and the outer and we come to the IS. Spiritual laws, as I have said, no longer apply for there is nothing to enhance, nothing to evolve - no outer or inner to become self-realized through. They are all irrelevant concepts for we are journeying near to the Divine Stillness. It is the Divine Chaos which generates the impetus for Creation to become manifest and by which it is sustained but it is the Divine Stillness that is a reflection of the void. It is not even the Mind of God, for that conjures up movement and this Stillness, this peace, this serenity that comes from the No-thingness is incredible - nothing matters, nothing matters. There is no thought, that is external. There is nothing to attain, no enlightenment to be sought out. It is irrelevant and it does not apply.

Everything that you know and experience is encapsulated within Creation and the soul realm. Here you are completely free of any such structure with no outer and inner, for there is no such thing in truth. The Divine Stillness is a place where you just are, because you are not even you. You cease to become an idea. Yet as serene as the Stillness is, it is not devoid of the Divine for it is the Divine - yet it is the Divine without reflection and without the echo of the Divine it goes forth throughout Creation. As we attempt to glimpse just a glimmer of this Stillness, it places into perspective all. We can use it as a tool to remind ourselves that in truth nothing matters as nothing stays within Divine Stillness, for nothing is generated. Yet it is so wonderful and to get a sense of Divine Stillness without thought, without attachment, without being, is one of the most profound, incredible things that you can experience while in Creation. We only ever receive an echo of this. To truly become aligned with Divine Stillness is to be referred completely back to Source and you are within Creation but we receive an echo and that echo is a wonderful fountain of peace and serenity that we can claim within our own lives, our dimension and our own spectrum of being. Surely it is desperately needed upon your world and within your lives and the echo is there. Remember this as you journey through life that although you are impelled to grow and embody the reflection of Divine Love and Light, you are also impelled to even become God-realized. Despite this impulse, beyond this it is not necessary. It is part of Creation but it is not part of the greater truth. Although you may hear the echo of Divine Stillness it will not cause you to cease to desire to evolve and to grow because the impulse is there at the soul level and is carried through from the First Manifestation.

I ask that you would sit for a moment with this echo about you - the peace, the no-thing, where nothing matters . . .

In your own meditations and in this White Star Temple you can refer yourself back to hear the Divine echo of Stillness and it will serve you well. Drink it in, for even at such vast distances of time and space to your world, it will bring profound serenity when you need it.

I thank you for this journey.

I AM SANANDA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Within the soul realm is where Creation experiences itself and evolves.
- ◆ Outside of the soul realm spiritual laws cease to apply for they are no longer necessary or relevant.
- ◆ Within the First Manifestation is where the Angelic Principle and Christ Consciousness resides.
- ◆ Beyond First Manifestation we transcend the inner and outer and even 'being', to come to the 'IS'.
- ◆ We have come to the edge of Divine Stillness; a reflection of the void where there is no-thingness.
- ◆ Within Divine Stillness the idea of 'you' ceases to be. There is nothing to attain and nothing is generated.
- ◆ Glimpsing Divine Stillness is one of the most profound experiences you can have, yet we only ever receive an echo of this.
- ◆ The echo of Divine Stillness within Creation is a wonderful fountain of peace and serenity.
- ◆ You can draw this peace into your own life.

Kuan Yin : GRACE

Greetings dearest ones it is I, who you know as KUAN YIN who is present this day in this Temple. I must say that I follow the majesty of dearest Sananda and it is daunting.

I come briefly this day to lend my energies to each who are present and to all who are listening and to the many unseen beings from all dimensions who come together to form the structure of this Temple with you. I wish to speak of what you would term, Grace. I also wish to add to dearest Sananda's discourse to say to you that Divine Grace stems from the Divine Stillness. It is the echo in action and Grace is an incredible thing, is it not? There are many perceptions in your world of what Grace is - that it is somehow an intervention, a blessing, or a correction so that all things will go well and right. Well, it can be all of these things and more.

As an echo of Divine Stillness, Grace brings serenity, peace and the incredible power of Divinity - power that is not structured into any particular form as it is within Creation, yet it echoes throughout Creation. Grace is the echo of Divine Stillness coming into your awareness and God has graced you to be able to hear this echo at times when it is necessary. This is one overarching aspect of Grace and as with anything within your multidimensional universe, it means different things to different ones within differing dimensions. This is the beauty of multidimensionality. It is like speaking in tongues, more or less. What is spoken is heard in an infinite variety of ways yet what is spoken never changes -- the hearing is altered, the receiving is subjective and what you receive is what is in keeping, and in alignment and resonance to what your soul requires. The same may be said for energy - you are aware that this is precisely what is occurring within this White Star Temple. What I am putting forward is being received differently by each within the Temple according to the spiritual resonance and evolution that has been attained. Yet what I say never differs for it is a truth, a singular truth. It becomes a multiple expression of that truth, yet as has been so beautifully expressed by Sananda, outside of the soul realm all truths cease to be. The relevance no longer exists. Yet it is part of the Divine Will that the ecosystem of Creation encompasses the beauty of truth and the incredible journey of soul evolution.

Well, I am not here to be a lecturer but I ask that you perceive me and my energy in a garment of flowing stars. This river of stars flows all about you. My garment now cloaks me and the vibrational gift which I embody is being imparted and shared and there is joy in this. I am joyful and I bring a river of stars because as an aspect of me there are whole galaxies held within me that my vibration coalesces into the entity of the galaxies.

I AM KUAN YIN, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Divine Grace stems from the Divine Stillness.
- ◆ Grace is the echo of Divine Stillness coming into your awareness and God graces us to be able to hear this echo when it is necessary.
- ◆ What is spoken within the WST does not change but is heard in an infinite variety of ways, according to the requirement of each soul.

Ganesh : CELEBRATION

Greetings dearest ones, I have not come before and may I say what a beautiful structure you have formed within the Temple and may I also say what a beautiful structure you have formed within yourself. The energy I perceive about you, that is you, is truly beautiful. I am the oversoul of the one who you would know as Ganesh. The channel has not channeled me before and so the energies are slightly unfamiliar but as in keeping with the interdimensional nature of this venue I come in a greatly expanded aspect of self.

I ask that you perceive this Temple about you as a structure of light that is comprised of all the energies and goodwill of all ones within Creation who come here. Throughout this structure I bring adornment this day. I ask that you see within the matrix of light that there sparkles the most perfect gemstones that you could recognize upon your Earth - rubies, emeralds, sapphires, golden diamonds and pearls and even other gemstones which catch your eye. They are hung everywhere. It is absolutely dazzling and the light that emanates from these gemstones are the living colour rays as you would have experienced them. They glow. This Temple that is more often than not perceived as glowing white is now festooned with so many colours and consciousnesses which inhabit these precious stones. I bring them here within the mood of festivity for truly I come to celebrate with you this day and to bring my energies and my little piece of the puzzle.

I ask that you take a moment to become aware of the vibration that is I. I would have you notice that from each of these gemstones there is emitted a beautiful ray of light corresponding to that stone and it is not randomly created. As you see these colour rays they begin to form about you a most magnificent sacred geometrical structure of light. It passes through, in and around your own energy field and I invoke the White Star above this Temple. Down into the middle of this wonderful matrix descends a column of golden white Divine Light. Now we are positively showered within Love and Light and geometry. Sacred or not it is a very profound part of the Divine and how it is that the Divine moves through Creation. You yourself are also geometry and your geometry is changing. It is continually being re-formed, re-shaped, added to, and taken away from by the Divine Impulse, your soul and by the free-will choices that you make.

The celebration today is to say to you that your time within this Temple is going to take a new direction. You are aware that there is an acceleration upon your earth realm where time truly exists. There shall indeed be a time when the veil is to be drawn apart and humanity returns to its knowingness and becomes consciously aware of its place within Creation. And you, my friends and all else within this White Star Temple, are part of this process. Mastery is at hand but perhaps not in the way that you have traditionally viewed this. It is through all of your life experiences - those within the present, past and future lifetimes that have schooled you well and have brought you to the point of a particular destiny within your life- stream and the timeline of it. There are multiple life-streams for every soul particularly within the physical realm.

All other aspects of yourself are working toward the same goal of growing you and of allowing the All That Is to become more of you. Each aspect is working within the spiritual evolution of its own dimension. There is the overarching soul of all your aspects and that overarching soul has a destiny within Creation as do all overarching souls. And yours my friend is coming to fruition and it sounds most intriguing, does it not? This is why I have adorned the Temple this day with the most perfect jewels that can be conjured within your imagination - for you see mastery is at hand. There is no other lifetime like the present and the present lifetime will always influence that which has gone before, that which is to come and that which is simultaneous. This is why time and destiny shapes itself around your very thoughts but only within the present and only within that which stands outside of space and time, the Now.

Well, my friends the Now is Now - it is coming into being and is beginning to be manifest within the context of time. Or should I say it is beginning to displace time and that is a very exciting concept and realization. Once the Eternal Now begins to displace time then of course the illusion begins to recede and dissipate and the simultaneousness of existence is able to be glimpsed and perceived. I am saying this to you now so that you may be prepared and encouraged upon your path and so that you may choose, if you so wish it, to place every effort towards your personal expansion. For as you have also learned, with mastery comes greater responsibility and that truly is the only definition that one needs - that you are open to drawing to oneself a greater degree of service to others. It is tempting for humans to be reticent or frightened that this means taking upon oneself a burden or chore - to overextend one's already busy life. It is all a matter of perception, for if you perceive it as such, then so shall it be. If you choose to perceive it as an incredible honour and opportunity and an incredible way to advance your own soul then it becomes a joy and something to be welcomed. You are each more than capable of this. This Temple serves you well as do other life choices. Do not think that there is no advancement being made. Perhaps one intellectualizes the knowledge side of coming into the Temple. I say to you that is the very least and I say no more, for you operate within the realm of free-will and one needs surprises. Suffice to say though that as I have come in celebration and festivity, it all must be good news.

Well, dearest ones I am that which you would know as Ganesh but truly I am the higher dimensional entity, an overarching soul that is also blessed to have aspects of me serve humanity and I have in truth known incarnations as well.

ADONAI, my dearest beloveds, I AM GANESH

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The geometry of you is continually being re-formed by the Divine Impulse, your soul and the freewill choices you make.
- ◆ There will come a time when humanity will return to its knowingness and you are part of this process.
- ◆ All aspects of you are working toward the goal of growing you, and your overarching soul has a destiny within Creation.
- ◆ Mastery is at hand but perhaps not in the way you would anticipate.
- ◆ The present lifetime will always influence what has gone before and what is to come.
- ◆ Time and destiny shapes itself around your thoughts within the present, outside of space and time in the Eternal Now.
- ◆ The Now is beginning to displace time within our realm. Once time is displaced then our physical illusion will recede.
- ◆ Mastery may be defined as embracing a greater service to others and if you wish it, Mastery can be yours.

Maitreya : EXPANSION

Greetings dearest ones, it is I, MAITREYA who comes into this very colourful and majestic Temple. It is wonderful to have the energies of Ganesh present also, as it is not often that this one speaks. I come to you upon a ray of serenity this day and so I am bringing peace all about you. Indeed stillness, Divine Stillness is always there as it permeates Creation. It is there for you and for all within existence like a river that is flowing, which you need only but bathe in every now and again. I fill up the energy fields this day and it is wonderful, is it not? There is much to be joyful about for with the stillness serenity comes and the joy unfettered by anything else. I come in addition to Ganesh to also celebrate and as the serenity begins to quell the human mind and to permeate your being, it slips away all of those cares and concerns about what has just been spoken. Within a place of stillness, clarity can come and a smile also.

I say to you that expansion is the natural movement of the cosmos and of Creation. It is the Outbreath in motion. All ones within Creation expand as a consequence and as one aspect of self expands, so too all aspects of self must, in consequence, expand for it is all the same 'you' in essence, is it not? Your expansion at this time is inevitable for your soul is growing you and your oversoul is impulsing you. The part of you which refers back to the soul of Creation is in constant movement outward. In truth one does not need to do anything in particular to expand ones consciousness, for the Outbreath is doing this for us. We are moving with the Outbreath and the Outbreath is moving through us. As we have consciousness so it is that we are compelled to participate within this expansion and to assist in the process and embody it. Embodiment is a profound term for it means that one does not have to do or strive toward anything; one just allows.

I say to you there is a profound destiny ahead because your soul has already moved in that direction. As you are within the space-time continuum there is always a lag and an integration period because you do not manifest instantaneously. The soul has already moved forward and now the human soul, the human aspect and the human consciousness is beginning to be pulled forward as well. This is what is opening for you at this present time. Many ones will come and cross your path in future for there will be significance to what you do. You will be fortunate for you will have had the foresight to embody expansion.

Do not forget the joy of it, for to the human mind it sounds very serious and perhaps like a lot of hard work, but it isn't. Embodiment is not. Putting aside the human conditions and limitations is truly a challenge but the embodiment itself is the most natural thing in the world for it is the direction in which the cosmos is moving outward with the Breath of God.

These are enough of my words this day but I am here to congratulate you for outside of your realm I see the results and it makes me smile and so take heart.

I AM MAITREYA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Expansion is the natural movement of the cosmos and Creation, it is the Outbreath of God in motion.
- ◆ We are moving with the Outbreath and the Outbreath is moving through us and we are compelled to participate within this expansion and to embody the process.
- ◆ With embodiment one just allows.
- ◆ Within our dimension of space and time there is a lag or integration period as we cannot manifest instantaneously.
- ◆ Your soul has already moved forward and your human consciousness will soon follow.

Sananda : ETERNAL LOVE

Dearest ones it is I, SANANDA who is here and I come into this Temple in my expanded form of the Christ Consciousness, the vibration in which I resonate and which permeates throughout existence. I come with a simple wisdom and more importantly my energies. Perhaps you are beginning to feel the temperature rise and the energies begin to build. The earth ones, the ones from far-flung places within the Cosmos and those truly multidimensional beings are all present. Energies are being directed to each according to their own capacity to receive. This is the beauty of this place - each receives that which they are able to integrate. When you come into a higher consciousness, particularly an oversoul such as I am at this time, it is so easy to fragment the energies of self and to give each that which they desire. This ability to direct energy in a multi-layered way is part of evolving into a much higher consciousness in service. But this is not my message this day. It is merely an explanation of the energetic work that is going on about you.

I am here and you can visualize me however you wish. I am seeing into the essence of each of you and the wonderful aspect of this is that as I peer into your essence, I see myself and I see God. The message I bring is to remind you (and these energies assist you to integrate this reminder) that you are loved eternally by our Creator. There has never been and never shall be a moment when you are not fully, completely and utterly embraced within the love of our Creator. It is something that is so easily forgotten when you are within the physical realm. There are other realities, which are not physical, but also experience illusion. They too find it difficult to reconcile to such an idea because of the seeming separation. Again I say to you - for all time you are loved in a way that is so powerful, so overwhelming that you could not doubt that you are absolutely cherished by your God. How beautiful, how comforting while in human form, to hear these words!

From the moment you were thought into being you have experienced an explosion of love. It is what carries you forward and it never diminishes, ever. It is like being held in soft cotton wool for the rest of your days. It is a love that literally you would die for, that you would choose to be embraced within for all time. The words that I give you cannot, of course, in any way impart the magnificence of the experience I am speaking of but I trust that you get a sense of what it is that I am trying to convey. I am blessed, as part of the vibration of Christ Consciousness, to be a conduit for this love, certainly not in the intensity of our Creator but I am a filter for this love through the Christ Consciousness.

I do not inhabit or embody the fullness of this love. It is beyond me. It is beyond anything. It can only ever arrive from one Source and it cannot be replicated. Fortunately for all of us that one Source is everything and is here forever. I say all this to you now, so that while you are in human form you can feel cherished for so often you do not have this feeling. There are so many ones upon your planet who are desperate, who despair, who feel so alone, unloved, unworthy, and who experience more often than not, conditional love. It is part of your illusion. It is part of the reality you keep co-creating and for us elsewhere there is a great sadness for you on your behalf. Our hearts swell with compassion and with an incredible desire to be in service to you. We try to bring some of that cotton wool into your lives, to buffer you from these very challenges. When these words are listened to (and I do hope they go far and wide) it is hoped that in some small way those who are listening will be touched and able to glimpse just a little bit of the knowing of our Creator's embrace. From this, comfort and rest can come. Take heart that no matter what incarnation, in what form or variation throughout existence you may appear, God's love of you is completely unwavering. It is just that you do not have the tools at this time to directly experience this for lasting periods. Though you feel the illusion of separation, God does not. There is no separateness from God with you; it is completely one-sided. Know that your parent is always there and cares and loves you so completely that all of Creation was manifest so that you could come into being. How loving is that? How supreme a being in intelligence must this One be in order to sustain the whole of Creation so that you may experience yourself!

Well, I AM SANANDA, I AM THE CHRIST CONSCIOUSNESS vibration which has the honour to transport but the tiniest percentage of God's love and I bring this to you this day, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The ability to direct energy in a multi-layered way is part of evolving into a higher consciousness.
- ◆ You are loved eternally by our Creator.
- ◆ There has never been and never shall be a moment when you are not fully, completely and utterly embraced within the love of our Creator.
- ◆ Though you feel the illusion of separation, God does not.
- ◆ Our Creator sustains the whole of Creation in order for you to experience yourself, such is the love of All That Is.

Akhnaton : GIFT OF LIFE

Greetings dearest friends it is I, AKHNATON who comes this day and I too come in my expanded form as the oversoul of Akhnaton. I also draw my expanded energies into this wonderful Temple and I come with a smile upon my face, so to speak, and I bring a quiet joy. Perhaps you are beginning to feel me about you for I am joyous to be amongst you.

I come here to experience all of you who are present from all of the dimensions within this truly magnificent place that we call Creation. And it is incredible. It is so incredible. As I come in my expanded form I have the privilege of moving freely between certain dimensions and so I experience many of the variations of the Divine expression and the more I experience the more I am humbled. For everything I come across, everything within Creation that I experience absolutely confirms the breathtaking magnificence of the All That Is, of Source, of our Creator. Know that to be in existence in whatever form is the highest honour that you can have. For just as easily you could be unthought. So to be in human form as one of the Divine expressions is a wonderful opportunity and it is given freely. All of this illusion, including the physicality of the illusion of the material and emotional world is given to you yet you are not able to keep it. You are required to relinquish it each time you transcend the physical and return to the soul. Yet it is such an incredible gift, for as dearest Sananda, the Christ Consciousness, did say our Creator sustains all of this; all of the universes in which you can express your human form, world, reality, spirituality and everything that you experience. Your physical universe, physical laws, spiritual laws and your whole third dimension is sustained for you for as long as you need it. This is the gift.

You are not forgotten, you are not unthought. Each time that you incarnate God shapes this reality around you. God's whole attention is always on you and on everything. The Singularity is omnipotent. The eye of God is always just on you and the beauty is, of course, that the eye of God is on all. With each lifetime much has been brought into being for you. There are many layers of intricate arrangement. This includes the concept of time and space and how inter-related everything is. It reflects and changes and shapes itself from micro-second to micro-second according to your consciousness. This incredible strength of will beyond our imaginings is given to you as a gift, so what do you do with it? What do you do with it? How do you honour this great privilege, knowing that all of the material, relationships, achievements and triumphs, are to be relinquished? Knowing that all of it will just slip away. Knowing this, what do you do with your life? Do you say: "thank you, thank you for this privilege, thank you for this enormous strength and determination of Divine Will that places me here and the universe around me”?

How do I balance the illusion of this world that God has given me to enjoy, explore and to certainly grow through with my own sense of divine gratitude and purpose? It is something truly to go within and contemplate quietly. Honouring God does not have to be in broad strokes. A quiet, humble gratitude is so important. There is such camaraderie to Creation if you choose to be open to it even while you are in human form. Look upon each other and smile because you all know: “wow, we were given this gift and we were given it together”.

Well, I am so delighted to be here with you and that you are part of Creation. I am so delighted that we share this journey. This White Star Temple is such a jewel, do not forget this. Do not take it for granted as it is truly a gift.

Well, I AM AKHNATON, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ To be in existence is a great honour and to be in human form is a wonderful opportunity.
- ◆ Though the illusion of the physical realm is freely given to us we must relinquish it each time we return to our soul.
- ◆ Our whole universe is sustained just for you for as long as you need it and that is the incredible gift.
- ◆ Each time you incarnate God shapes reality around you.
- ◆ What then do you choose to do with your life?
- ◆ Quiet gratitude for this gift of life is important.

Melchizedek : CALLING

Greetings dearest ones it is I, MELCHIZEDEK who comes this day to join you and I am well pleased that this gathering has so beautifully expanded. I welcome each of you to this place. Outside of the space-time continuum the simultaneous nature of existence is evident and so this is not the first time you have come to the White Star Temple nor is it the last for it is all occurring outside of time. We are known to each other and it is an honour to come into service to this gathering and be with you. There are so many aspects of you that are truly divine and magnificent and we see you as such; the human body is not visible to us, it is not relevant. We are not operating within a physical realm. We see the light, we see the geometric structure of you which is how the human consciousness is expressed outside of its body. Beside this we see the absolute wonderment of the oversoul of you. The human consciousness that I see is just as beautiful and each has the capacity for greatness beyond what you currently experience and beyond that which you set before you as a goal. You do not yet realize that destiny for each within your human life can be as grand as the greatest vision that our God can place before us. Indeed there are destinies for each that may well be quite surprising to you. There are opportunities for each which will draw out and express an experience, a mastery that is within.

Those who come to this Temple do so because they have trodden their path for a very long time. The seekers, the ones who quest, come to this place for assistance to peek beyond that which is the holographic reality of your world. This is not for any great curiosity but rather for you to fulfill your spiritual destiny and expand beyond that which you currently experience. Expansion can only lead to more service to others. I do not say this lightly but for each there will come many ones who will look to you for service; whatever form this may take and however you wish it to unfold. It will be your piece of the puzzle that you offer back to the Divine as part of the inscrutable Divine Plan. Each has, at any given time within your consciousness, a calling. We are truly such multidimensional beings. All aspects of you have an individualized calling and the total sum of these callings combine to form an essential component of the Divine Plan, and that which is the greater aspect of yourself. Sometimes it takes a series of lifetimes to hear this calling; sometimes even then it takes a series of opportunities to act upon this calling. I would say to you that this is one such lifetime. I do not say this to impress you, but so that you can become more self-aware and to allow new visions and new capacities to percolate within your life. Do not wait until tomorrow to act upon things that have been creeping up upon you in your dreams, your meditations, your knowingness.

You are well supported by your guides, soul and oversoul and beyond and certainly by all other aspects of you. They also are evolving toward the overarching goal which is to allow the Divine to become more of you, to breathe through you more fully and by breathing through you to reach others. Perhaps it is a little abstract but my dearest ones, change is on the horizon. It is not to be feared for you have done much work through many opportunities and lifetimes. Through the simultaneousness of these lifetimes this particular lifetime can be a trigger. For each lifetime affects all other lifetimes and not in sequence as it is all simultaneous. It is like a wonderful pond on which a pebble is dropped and the ripples go outward and touch all other lifetimes and then all other lifetimes ripple back to touch this one. Within this lifetime you have the capacity to hold this pebble and to release it and that is all I shall say.

I AM MELCHIZEDEK, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ You have the capacity for greatness beyond what you know.
- ◆ Your destiny can be as grand as the greatest vision that God can place before you.
- ◆ Spiritual expansion leads to more service.
- ◆ You have a calling and all aspects of you each have an individualised calling.
- ◆ The sum of these callings combine to form part of the Divine Plan.
- ◆ Within your present lifetime you can choose to hear this calling.

Akhnaton : FUTURE CONTACT

Greetings dearest ones it is I, the oversoul of AKHNATON who comes once again and we are truly becoming old friends in this place, are we not? I would have you perceive about you this White Star Temple and look beyond this structure to see the magnificence of your universe. It is your universe with your physical galaxies and it looks familiar to you. There is an absolute beauty to this physicality with the blackness of space providing a perfect backdrop upon which sits the most exquisite galaxies, nebulae and stars. It is completely alive with all of the vibrational aspects that Creation has and with every particle having consciousness. All of the structures, formations, galaxies and super clusters also have their own consciousness. You have learned of this through the one known as the Galactic Ashtar.

I come not to speak of such things but to take you on a special journey into your own universe. I ask that you perceive before you a beautiful spiral galaxy (use your frame of reference from those wonderful images that your telescopes bring to you) and it is everything as beautiful as imagined and more. In reality when we look with our spiritual eyes we see that not only is the galaxy radiant with the physical suns that comprise it but there is the halo surrounding all - the halo of the life force. Amidst the twinkling of the stars that reflect and are sunlight, there is also the twinkling of Divine Light. This galaxy is awash with light and colour and it is moving with a rotation that is part of all of the universes. In its movement it seems to us to be so absolutely magnificent and so quietly majestic in its silence.

There is something appealing to the human eye about massive structures. It is truly awe-inspiring; the sheer billions of celestial bodies that comprise this one galaxy. It is your galaxy, neighborhood, and milky way. Earth is amongst this brilliance and sheds her own Divine Light. I draw your attention to a particular region within this galaxy and bring your consciousness down to a particular area of planets and suns. Perhaps you are just seeing the light. There is one particular planet and as we gaze upon it we see that it is lit up with the tiniest pinpoints of light as if we were gazing upon cities from above but of course we are seeing the Divine Light of those who occupy this planet. It is not for you or I to contemplate who these ones are or how they manifest in appearance as it is not relevant at this time. I draw you to this place because you see that at a point within the illusion of your human future, humanity and these ones will interact.

It is humanity's destiny eventually and inevitably to become tangibly aware that other children of God occupy this universe. Within your own neighbourhood humans will detect life upon this world and what an incredible transformation that shall be! Can you imagine from your vantage point in this present human consciousness what it would mean for the average person to learn that there are others (aliens as you would term it) who are also children of God expressed in many forms? It would be mind boggling for many. This is why it shall take place not now but at a future time when humanity is ready, open and more spiritually mature.

These ones that you see as the pinpoints of light have no idea that your species will be interacting with them for it is part of their future and the illusion thereof. These ones will also be incredibly transformed by such contact and knowledge that they are not alone within the cosmos. And how absolutely beautiful will that era be? It will have its challenges no doubt but the transformation will be immense. The wonder of it shall be incredible as will be the sharing, learning and humbling nature of such a discovery. This is but one group of children of God interacting with but one other group of children of God, and there is the whole cosmos to explore. There are destinies, my friend, for eternity can encompass such interactions and there is all the time in the world for preparation for this to occur. I am showing you an aspect of that which is to come to your world. I cannot impress upon you enough, from a spiritual point of view, how beautiful it will be for communion to take place and how absolutely incredible to be exposed to other children of God and their perceptions of spirituality - of why life is and their perceptions of a Creator. Each within Creation has their part to play. Each has, according to where they are placed by God, their own perspective to contribute and each has their own unique spirituality and spiritual laws which come into play.

Each dimension has its own spiritual laws, yet within the one dimension such as your third dimension there are also different spiritual realities for each species to resonate to. Humanity will bring its spirituality into Creation for the rest of Creation to share. I am sure you would agree there is a distance to travel before this is possible and perhaps it is hard to perceive of this from your present vantage point. We know of the simultaneousness of all so I am showing you something that is already occurring and that you can look forward to. Some of you will literally be incarnate within that era. Some of you will actually be spiritual Masters in service to the world you look upon in this place I have brought you to - it is food for thought. For in that future perhaps you will find that you are no longer in embodiment at all and that the White Star Temple has served you well so that you can become part of the Ascended Ones in service.

Well, my words this day are a gift. They serve no other purpose for you in this current earth incarnation other than to allow you a peek into a possible future.

Well, I AM AKHNATON, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Everything within our universe has a consciousness, including the galaxies and other celestial formations.
- ◆ It is humanity's destiny to inevitably become aware that other children of God also occupy our universe.
- ◆ Within our own 'neighbourhood' we will detect life, and what an incredible transformation this will bring.
- ◆ Through this, humanity will be exposed to other perceptions of our Creator and spiritual realities.
- ◆ Humanity will also share its spiritually with the rest of Creation.

Sanat Kumara : RUBY RAY ACTIVATION

Greetings dearest ones it is I, SANAT KUMARA who joins you this day in this truly marvelous place called the White Star Temple, a Temple that sits outside of space and time. It is an interdimensional Temple and you are here and have always been here for you come outside of time. The many aspects of you are also present as are a wonderful array of beings from other worlds, other dimensions who come to this place in order to receive, as do you. I wish to welcome you to this place and it is inaccurate for me to do this for you have always been here, are here and shall be here yet the human consciousness is enveloped within that wonderful structure called time. So to you it would appear that this is the first greeting I give you but the truth is indeed that we are great friends.

I come this day in my expanded form with the energies and the consciousness that you identify with me as an Ascended One - it is that part of me which comes in service to earth and humanity. This day in the White Star Temple I come as a greatly expanded consciousness; an expanded aspect of Sanat Kumara. The consciousness that you would be familiar with as an Ascended One is but a small part of my vast oversoul. You are becoming aware of the energies I bring into this place and have come here precisely for this reason. The words are a privilege but the energies are profound. Energy brings understanding and carries upon its stream the resonance, the knowingness. Coming into a Temple such as this allows you to be bathed in energies that you are presently not experiencing and which will bring, if you are open to it, new layers of perception. Thank you for being here, dearest ones, and the consciousness that you bring, the energies that you inhabit and that you contribute to this Temple this day are much appreciated. We acknowledge you here as the absolutely magnificent beings that you, in truth are and I see before me such shining radiant light as each of you is known to me. Within your energy fields there is such joy and it is as if each of you were absolutely laughing with joy because of the coming together in oneness again, into this place, even though it seems as if it is but the first time. The essence of you is so delighted to be amongst radiant friends that are here with you.

I do not come just to welcome but to bring what you would term an activation. This Temple is a perfect framework within which to initiate this activation for the White Star Temple herself is a living consciousness. Its very structure is comprised of the energy of you and all else who are here. It is the oneness and unity that gives birth to the etheric Temple.

I ask that you perceive in the centre of this circle a truly magnificent ball of light. It can be the golden white light that you are familiar with. It is absolutely radiant and the energy of it is soft and gentle. It is a living light and I invoke the White Star which indeed sits above this Temple and is its namesake. This White Star is a magnificent jewel, a diamond of living light that reflects Divine Light into this Temple. There is a pillar of light being drawn down from the White Star to join this orb but this day we will work with one of the most powerful rays within your dimension; the Ruby Ray. It is the ray of activation and attunement and at times the ray of encodement. It is an active ray and so this beautiful ball of golden white light begins to become ruby coloured and pulsate with the energy of this ray. All rays have consciousness and are embodied by ones who come in service to inhabit such a concept as a ray. We are indeed privileged and honoured to have this concept of the Ruby Ray present. The Ruby Ray casts a wonderful glow about this Temple and it shines on all of your radiances for you are here in your energetic bodies.

Perhaps you are beginning to feel the Ruby Ray coming into your energetic field and aura. Perhaps there is an increase in pressure or an increase in temperature. It gently comes into your aura, merging and you may even sense the consciousness of this one. This whole place is filled with this wonderful Ruby light and the column of Divine Light is still streaming into this Temple from Divinity and a resonance is beginning to occur. At a molecular level all that is occurring is beginning to become one. In truth there is no distance between the molecules of you and the molecules of all those present and of the consciousness of the Temple and of the rays and Divine Light.

At the subatomic level all is but a marvelous tapestry of consciousness and a wonderful matrix where there is no separation or clear delineation between who you are and the person next to you and myself in the Temple. At this level we just see a carpet of Divine particles of light and energy. They do not create an outline of you as they have no form. It is Divine Intelligence and the magnificence of your own soul that instructs each molecule to define you in some way. This is an intellectual process that is part of an incredible journey in Creation which is separated into dimensions. In truth at that quantum level there are no boundaries, no definitions. It is just a sea of Divine Light and energy seemingly fragmented and individualized. In truth there is only the singular particle, there is only the Singularity and that Singularity experiences all simultaneously, giving rise to the illusion of the multiple. This is why there is no delineation, no definition, no boundary or separation at a quantum level because it is just the one particle, not repeated, not cloned but the one particle. This one finite substance of the Divine is experienced infinitely, simultaneously in a limitless number of expressions and you are one of those expressions. This is why when we work with the colour rays and the consciousness that inhabits a ray, we merge with those energies, as at that level separation ceases to be relevant.

The resonance is coming into being and the consciousness of the Ruby Rays are impulsed, as are we all, by the Divine. The Ruby Ray is impulsed by the All That Is and by God to deliver to you a resonance that will interact with you at this quantum level. It is time for you to begin a new cycle and this is why we call this event this day an activation. It to activate within you at a molecular level, if you so wish it, a new cycle of being, one that is greatly expanded and brings your human consciousness and its perspective out of the limitation of your illusion and into magnificent, unending Creation. Humanity is not destined to wear this veil of illusion forever. You are operating within a 'free will' dimension and so to release the illusion requires your participation in cooperation with the Divine Impulse.

How wonderful it is to be visionaries and to be called to have this impulse already within and to go beyond. You would not be here if it were not so and you have been here since the dawning of this Temple. These are my words this day.

I AM SANAT KUMARA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Coming into the WST brings new layers of perception.
- ◆ The White Star is a diamond of living light that reflects Divine Light into the Temple.
- ◆ The Ruby Ray is one of the most powerful rays within our dimension and is the ray of activation, attunement and encodement.
- ◆ All rays have a consciousness which manifests itself.
- ◆ There is no separation at a subatomic level; it is a sea of Divine particles of light and energy. There are no boundaries of form.
- ◆ Your own soul and Divine Intelligence instructs each molecule to define you.
- ◆ We merge with the consciousness of a ray when working with it precisely because there is no separation at a quantum level.
- ◆ The Ruby Ray (as with all rays) is impulsed by the All That Is.
- ◆ A new cycle for you is nearing.
- ◆ Humanity is not destined to wear the veil of illusion forever.

That Which I Am : SPEAK TO GOD

Greetings dearest ones. I have not come for some time and I come to you as one who is known as That Which I Am - the consciousness of consciousness. Perhaps you are feeling the energies that I bring and certainly the crown chakra of each is very stimulated at this time from my presence.

I wish to speak this day but the energies are the most important part of this lecture. The energies are bringing about an alignment within the cellular structure of your light vehicle. It sounds complicated but it is not, for you have known for some time that there is a blossoming at hand and a new cycle to begin. In this Temple it is right that one such as the consciousness of consciousness would take up the invitation to be beside you this day, for you have called me in. I am about you at all times, yet I do not speak until spoken to.

I also wish to speak briefly of another who spoke and therefore Creation came into being. I am referring to our Creator and as you well know God and our Creator (The All That Is) are separate. God is a manifest aspect of the unmanifest All That Is and God is indeed the conduit for the Outbreath of our Creator. God is the means by which Creation is sustained at a Divine level. When you are within the Presence of God, God can speak to you and when God speaks to you it is like a thought explosion occurring throughout your entire being.

You upon your earth realm are very much used to the singularity of thought that is language. Sometimes language has more than one meaning and there are words that you speak that can have more than one meaning, but it is limited to only this.

When God, the Divine speaks, there is an explosion of meaning at that precise moment. It's as if incredible bursts of light were to shower you and each burst has its own meaning that arrives within your consciousness to cause understanding. God need only utter one word, so to speak, and a trillion-fold meaning arrives. It is so layered but not in terms that the human consciousness would use. It is not structured, it is an explosion, I keep coming back to this term. When God speaks understanding arrives in all its Divine complexity through the Divine impulse from the unmanifest, through the conduit of God.

Throughout Creation God speaks at certain junctures of evolution and beyond this of course God speaks when spoken to, as do I. In the presence of God this is possible within illusions of physicality such as your world, your realm. It is less precise but we speak to God through prayer. Do not underestimate this for prayer is like shafts of light that reach out from your world, into the heavens and speaks to God and God listens. God contemplates and then speaks to you in your realm and it comes in many ways does it not; through ones own inner guidance, through channels such as this, through the myriad of beings who cross your path and the opportunities and challenges that arrive. It is multilayered in this regard.

To be in the Presence of God, unfettered, unrestrained by the physical body and the human consciousness is to receive all meanings all at once. The force of God's word can uncreate the whole of Creation it is so powerful. So how must it be for God to speak directly with you! Such power will change your consciousness. It is possible dearest ones, to be in the presence of God from within your physical realm by transcending the human consciousness. You well know this but it is not something that each has been seeking out.

God's word also travels through the lineage of your soul, and the oversoul and the overarching soul, etc., back to the Singularity. When you receive guidance from your soul you receive guidance from God. When you receive guidance through another that resonates to you, you receive guidance from God. As each is part of the whole and as each is the whole (the Singularity) each of us are the students and teachers of ourselves. Those whom you take instruction from are yourself. You learn from yourself. Within your world of separation it appears as though you learn from others and you place great store by them, believing they have something more than you to impart. Perhaps they do but it is 'you' anyway. You are teaching yourself every step of the way. Those who come to you as teachers are you. Those who come to you as their teacher, and they your students, are you and there is no difference and it matters not. It matters not.

Hierarchies are part of human function. They work within the human function but they are an illusion. Take what you need and ignore the illusion. If you need to sit at the feet of a master, sit at the feet of a master, for that master is you. Be humble and reverential enough to worship you and to receive from you, for your soul speaks through many ones and God speaks to your soul - and you need but ask. God speaks when spoken to. I speak when spoken to - I, All That Is, the vibration of consciousness.

How incredible that the whole of Creation is your university and that you teach others and others teach you. Yet when we refer back to the Singularity, it is you. The kindness that we bring to others we bring to ourselves through the concept of grace. The concept of grace is a beautiful one. It is of the earth realm. Grace in a much larger context is the idea that kindness shown to another, ultimately is kindness shown to the singularity of self.

Within any realm is the possibility of creating new paradigms. If a certain structure or paradigm is not sitting well with you or resonating and you cannot find beneath your feet a place to stand, create a new paradigm. Alternatively, work within the old paradigm to expand it. Whatever you do from within your heart and your spiritual consciousness will manifest evolutionary change within your life-stream, timeline and certainly within the present incarnation.

Too few new paradigms are manifest for although the imagination of humanity is vast, great and wonderful, it limits itself in equal portions. If you do not find what you seek, create it. Create the avenue and speak so that you may be spoken to by God, by consciousness, by you.

Well these are my words this day, I AM THAT WHICH I AM.

SUMMARY :

- ◆ God is the manifest aspect of the unmanifest All That Is and a conduit for the Outbreath of our Creator.
- ◆ When God speaks there is an explosion of meaning that arrives in your consciousness.
- ◆ God speaks when spoken to. In our physical realm we speak to God in prayer and God listens.
- ◆ To be in the presence of God's Word is to receive all meanings at once.
- ◆ God's Word travels through the lineage of your Soul.
- ◆ Create an avenue to speak to God so God may speak to you.

Sanat Kumara : AGE

Greetings dearest ones it is I, SANAT KUMARA who comes to speak to you this day. I wish to speak on what you would term 'age'. Time is not sequential and is an illusion. Age is also not sequential and is not as it would seem. It is an illusion. Within your third dimensional realm where time is manifest, eons have passed. There is evidence of this all about you. This includes the changing of the topography of your world, the unearthing of artifacts from thousands if not millions of years ago and all of the creatures who once walked upon your earth and the mountains that did exist and do no more. Your world has been reshaped time and time again and it gives humanity great insight, wonderment and pleasure to discover what has gone before and to reveal the secrets that are buried beneath the earth and oceans. There are countless museums that house the relics of times gone by.

The prevailing thought is that you as a species developed over eons of time with a slow evolutionary progression. Yet as spiritual people you know there has been an evolution of a differing nature but I would say to you that this concept of age is truly an illusion. There is nothing in your world that is millions of years old let alone thousands or even hundreds of years old. For within the illusion of this construct of time that you occupy, there is an experience of this being so. It is subjective to your species and to the common consensus surrounding the reality that you occupy in order to grow your soul. I say to you that these artifacts, these relics, the mountains that have come and gone, have done so instantaneously. It is there as part of your experience but in truth it is not there at all. Our Creator can manifest the most ancient piece of rock in an instant. It would be an instant, but to you it would look to be millions of years old. Our Creator knows no limitation and for our Creator to create that which would seemingly be ancient, is absolutely possible.

The galaxies which surround you and the one you are within as well as your physical universe is but an instant old yet it is measured by your time as millions, if not billions, of years old. It is part of the superb ingeniousness of the illusion that our Creator has given you. It is but an instant old. Outside of the space-time continuum all is in the Now. As it is all within the Now, to give the experience of something being ancient is simply that, an 'experience'. Nothing can be made old, for it is within the perpetual Now. I trust that you are following my thoughts in this regard. Not only is the physicality an illusion, not only is sequential time an illusion, but so is the concept of geological history. In the instant you experience past civilizations (as indeed there has been) you in truth experience them in the Now while you are within a particular incarnation. Yet when you are not within that particular incarnation, the civilization ceases to be. It has no history and does not exist within the confines of time yet you experience the illusion of such. You experience the attention to detail, so to speak, that our Creator affords us - the whole package of this illusion, the eons of geology, the millions of years of civilization, all are but one instant old.

Well, it is food for thought and it does not serve any other purpose than this. It does not impact on how it is that you are weaving your way through this lifetime except for you to go: "ah, perhaps I can look at the past with differing eyes". Just as our Creator can in an instant make all that is ancient, so then the future can manifest here, also within that same instance. There have been many future relics found hidden and ignored. There are some astonishing future relics upon your globe and I would say to you that your beautiful crop circles are such a thing. They are of the future but the future is an illusion also.

Dearest ones, it is an interesting world within which you live and such is the absolute majesty of this illusion. It never ceases to amaze, it never ceases to reflect the Supreme Intelligence. What a wonderful playground for you all. Well, my love and light this day.

I AM SANAT KUMARA, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ The concept of age is an illusion; there is nothing upon our Earth that is millions, thousands or even hundreds of years old.
- ◆ All within the physical has come and gone instantaneously for our Creator manifests the most ancient piece of rock in an instant.
- ◆ Outside the space-time continuum all is within the Now so nothing can in truth be 'old', but an experience of being ancient can be undertaken by being submerged in 'time'.

Akhnaton : GOD'S GAZE

Greetings dearest ones it is I, your friend AKHNATON who comes in my oversoul capacity which is a higher aspect of the Egyptian Master that I am known by. I come into this White Star Temple to bring a brief but simple message but more importantly to bring those energies that I inhabit. Perhaps you can feel this all about you in this beautiful etheric Temple; that there is a swelling of energy as if something were inflating beneath you. Your consciousness is becoming held and supported by my consciousness, by the oversoul of me.

I come to speak of that beautiful metaphor that has been given to you time and again of the multi-faceted diamond - that which is symbolic of you within Creation. Each is represented by this wonderful diamond crystal and the radiance is tangible. It is as if our Creator breathed light into the back of this diamond. As this breath of light passed through the diamond of you, it fragmented into the most dazzling rays of light. Each facet of your diamond integrated and reflected this Divine Light outward into existence and into Creation. Each wonderful reflection became almost a beam of light going in all directions throughout Creation, each following its Divine path of purpose and destiny. You come here in your human consciousness as part of one of those paths of light that you would call your oversoul. Each facet of this diamond that God breathed through has an oversoul and each oversoul fragments into souls. Each soul fragments into consciousness such as your human form and many other expressions in this wonderful fractal of life. There are those of you who are familiar with this but I speak to those who are not. It is so beautiful to perceive the essence of you in such a way for truly every moment of every day of every lifetime our Creator is breathing light through you. You are light being transported outward with the Outbreath of God. You are a particle of light that is part of the beam that each facet projects outward and you catch the sun and light.

Within this little Temple there are present each of you and many ones who have come from various dimensions and worlds as well as other aspects of you in great consciousness. Do you know that when ones within Creation such as you, I and all else present here, (and all those listening to these recordings), come in unity and bring our focus into a place such as this that the eye of God is cast upon us? Wherever unity comes in and there is a connection between beings within Creation with the intention that spirituality be experienced then so it is that the gaze of God is drawn upon us. I would say to you that this gaze is never far from each of us. We are truly upheld within the consciousness of our Creator at all times yet we bring a greater focus from our Creator when we envisage Temples such as this and other sacred places, or when we simply come together in groups with the intention to do good, to do God's work, so to speak.

This Temple does not go unnoticed by God or by our Creator and what a blessing! For it means that more of the Divine Mind brings Divine Intelligence to that which we are undertaking. It means that impulses from the Divine Mind will come our way. For Divine Thought is like a beautiful wave cast out into Creation that is directed toward every consciousness and in Divine Timing each consciousness will be washed over by this wave and awakened to a new level of understanding, a new level of being. We cannot predict when these impulses come our way, however, we do know that through unity, through a coming together, it is inevitable that God's eye is upon us and so too then an impulse is imminent.

Each is blessed as am I to be part of something that is so beautiful and so honours our Creator. We do indeed honour our Creator by the mere fact that we wish to expand and become more of who we are and to go beyond our limitations and strive toward the perfection that we know we are. To shine the light back to God more brightly is our heart's desire. Do you know that when you create with your consciousness such as you are doing at this moment by being here with the intention that you are indeed within this Temple that it sets up a definition within the matrix of Creation? It creates, for want of a better term, a bulge within this matrix and influences how the fabric of Creation is laid out. It becomes actual and part of the Divine Blueprint. We co-create with God and the more souls and consciousnesses that are drawn to vibrational Temples such as this, (and there are indeed an infinite number throughout Creation), so it is that a great tremor within the fabric of Creation is felt, is made. It is like a tremor or a ripple that goes outward across the matrix of light that sustains all within Creation. You here today are affecting the lay lines, so to speak, all across the cosmos. On all dimensions the tremor goes out. It is able to be received and picked up by anyone within Creation. Anyone can begin to attune and align themselves to this ripple as if it were a calling and indeed it is. The Temple calls forth those scattered throughout Creation who are destined to participate in such a wonderful experience as this.

Well, enough of my words this time.

I AM AKHNATON, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Each facet of you has an oversoul which fragments into individual souls which in turn fragment into many forms of consciousness.
- ◆ Every moment of every day our Creator is breathing light through you as part of the Outbreath of God.
- ◆ When we come together within the WST God's gaze is upon us, as it is whenever unity is experienced.
- ◆ Divine Thought is like a beautiful wave cast out into Creation and each of us will be touched by this wave and awakened to a new level of being, within Divine timing.
- ◆ When you create with your consciousness a tremor goes out through the fabric of Creation and your creations become actual; become part of the Divine Blueprint.
- ◆ We honour God by wishing to expand ourselves and go beyond our limitations.

Melchizedek : YOUR CONSCIOUSNESS

Greetings it is I, MELCHIZEDEK who is here with you and in truth I am always here with you in this place and I welcome all. There are a great many ones who form a family about you. There is such goodwill and I see that each of you, perhaps unknown to you, has brought into this place a higher aspect of self, an aspect that is profound.

You may feel the essence of you about you. If you cannot, it doesn't matter. Suffice to say that your consciousness is operating on so many levels and it is not as though the aspect of self is truly separate; there is the illusion, of course. Each frequency of dimension appears to separate the aspects of oneself, but in truth this is not so. Your human consciousness is present but a truly vast consciousness of you is present also. Often ones speak of the enormous energies within this place; this place that you sustain with your intention and energy. I would say that a significant portion of what you feel is, in fact, yourself.

The consciousness of the Temple is a beautiful entity. She is wonderful but the powerful energies that seem to increase week by week is you, other higher aspects of you and others who join you in this place. You have always been here and so next when you feel and speak of such energies remember the power is of you and the others. Yet what you feel is but a minute spectrum of the incredible energies that your consciousness commands and manifests. Every time that your higher consciousness joins you (and it joins you always because you are not separate) you will find that it influences your human consciousness in that you are able to inhabit and express more powerful energies and light. It is a consequence, a by-product of spending time with oneself. Do you know that there are parts of your consciousness that are teaching within this Temple? There are parts of you which have whole groupings of beings about you. You are imparting your energies together with the understanding and the wisdom that travels upon these currents of energies.

Each has a destiny to travel. As you have been here for all time in this place and as you have grown it and as it has grown you, so it is that there is an acceleration within the beam of light which you occupy and that you are a particle within. This light travels forever forward in its God-given direction. As it passes through the matrix of your universes and you travel forward with the light, it does not slow down rather it accelerates as you expand. The more that you move throughout Creation the more vast you become and the more vast that you become then the more that Creation expands about you. For there is no finite boundary to Creation. It expands to accommodate everything within itself and as everything within itself expands then so Creation must expand in order to accommodate this. The potential is there to be never-ending for you cannot expand too much. There is not a point which you may get to where you may go: 'well, this is it, I am all that I can ever be' for they are finite terms; they are terms that have no meaning within the greater context of Divine unfolding - hence infinity.

I simply come to alert you to the fact that you are here in a greater capacity than you realize and to say that this is wonderful. So you may feel honoured of yourself for you reflect God's Light back to the Divine Mind so intensely. You are doing good work throughout Creation and soon this will translate into the human consciousness and your physical reality.

Well, my love and light to each this day.

I AM MELCHIZEDEK, ADONAI

SUMMARY :

- ◆ Each dimension seems to separate the many aspects of you but this is an illusion.
- ◆ The powerful energies you now feel in the WST are other aspects of you which join you there.
- ◆ What you feel is a minute spectrum of the incredible energies that your consciousness commands and manifests.
- ◆ Joining with your higher aspects influence your human self.
- ◆ There is no finite boundary to Creation so the more vast you become the more Creation expands to accommodate you.
- ◆ Your expansion is potentially never-ending for there is not a point where you could say 'I am all that I ever could be'.

WHITE STAR TEMPLE PRODUCTS

If you enjoyed this book you may also greatly enjoy the original recordings:

SERIES ONE (Book 1):

MU Audio Set 1 - 4 CDs	$45
MU Audio Set 2 - 6 CDs	$65
MU Audio Set 3 - 6 CDs	$65
MU Audio Set 4 - 6 CDs	$65

BUY ALL 4 SETS FOR $220 (save $20)

SERIES TWO (Book 2):

MU Audio Set Higher Spectrum - 4 CDs $45

MU Audio Set 1 - 6 CDs	$65
MU Audio Set 2 - 6 CDs	$65
MU Audio Set 3 - 6 CDs	$65
MU Audio Set 4 - 4 CDs	$45

BUY ALL 5 SETS FOR $260 (save $25)

BOOKS:

Teachings from the White Star Temple - Book 1	$30
Teachings from the White Star Temple - Book 2 *	$TBA

 Coming soon - check our website for availability*

ALL PRICES LISTED IN AUSTRALIAN DOLLARS
PRICES DO NOT INCLUDE POSTAGE & HANDLING COSTS

TO PURCHASE please go to our online store at:
www.melchizedekuniversity.com

Prices & availability correct at time of printing. Subject to change.

STAR LANGUAGE PRODUCTS

Soltec & Toltec Enterprises also produces a range of beautiful transformational cardsets featuring powerful Star Language symbols. To learn more about these products visit our website:

www.starlanguages.com

STAR LANGUAGE CODEX:

A transformational, multidimensional tool and our flagship product. Features 60 cards and 180 symbols plus substantial manual. Enables you to work interdimensionally using powerful energies, sacred geometry, spiritual genetics and mandalas.

COST: $69.95

MANDALA MANIFESTATION CARDSET:

Use symbols and color to create mandalas which can bring about accelerated change and manifest wishes in your life. The unique triangular shape of these cards allows them to be placed together to create an enormous variety of colorful mandalas. Each of the 60 cards feature a different symbol, which combine to bring powerful energies together that can bring your dreams into reality. The boxed set also includes a full-color booklet.

COST: $19.95

ALL PRICES LISTED IN AUSTRALIAN DOLLARS
PRICES DO NOT INCLUDE POSTAGE COSTS

TO PURCHASE please go to our online store at:

www.starlanguages.com

Prices & availability correct at time of printing. Subject to change.

Feedback and Testimonials

MU Audio Set Reviews

Dear Soltec, Thank you so much for the Melchizedek University set, which I found absolutely amazing and wonderful. Words do not describe adequately their beautiful content. I am grateful and thank you again.

Dawn Chapple, Qld, Australia

Dear Soltec, I listened to all of the lectures and keep repeating them. The energy of the different discourses is quite extraordinary and makes me feel such a connection to all the Masters and to all of you in attendance. I feel so honoured to hear from the Masters in such a personal way . . . their love and benevolence is so soothing to take in . . . you are such a perfect medium to do the channelling for the Masters. You are beautifully attuned. What a gift to all of us listeners.

Karla Meyer, Ft Lauderdale, Florida, USA

Hello Dear one, Soltec I received my Melchizedek University gift pack of CDs and offer my heartfelt thanks for these beautiful master lessons. I have just finished listening to CD 1 and look forward so much to enjoying each of the remaining CDs - listening in a meditative state. I treasure these opportunities.

Sestriel, QLD, Australia

Dear Soltec, I can't tell you how much we all enjoy your beautiful channelings. I enjoy listening to these CDs over and over again, and, of course, each time I understand a different aspect of the messages as they are clearly multi layered..You are extremely gifted to be able to channel so many "high powered" entities and with such seeming ease! The reproductions are excellent.

Louis Gebhardt, VIC, Australia

Dear Soltec, I was inspired to listen to the channellings from the Melchizedek University - and that was a truly sublime experience! Perfect timing - reaching right into the depths of my subconsciousness - deep! Your work is magnificent! An honour and a joy to receive!

Robin Bee, Australia

Soltec, It is out of this world! . . . there is a lot of love and beautiful messages along with being in the know -now ! I am a little amazed that the human conscious is invited to this. Seems like something only the angels and ascended ones would be a part of. Therefore I am honored and grateful.

Teresa Dryden, USA

Dear Soltec, I find myself compelled to write and thank you for the blessing of participating in the Melchizedek University lectures. They are absolutely beautiful, and I am awe struck so to speak at their profound content and importance. I am also aware how unique a being you must be to bring forth such extraordinary channellings.

Maggie Ireland, Australia

Hello Soltec,

Wow! Thank you for the Melchizedek University Mastery set- it's amazing. I'm usually not very good at visualisation or meditation but I automatically relax whenever I listen to any one of the lectures and I feel so positive and uplifted.

Tracey Moyes, UK

Dear Soltec, I have heard a lot of channels and I must tell you that you are one of the best. Your channeling is so informative and spoken intelligently. It's amazing that you're able to connect with so many different energies.

Diana Buskirk, USA

